Lectures deal with leisure

A colloquium entitled "A Recreation Philosophy for Life in a Leisure-Centered Society" will be conducted here Saturday.

The 8:30 a.m. presentation in Room 115 of the Recreation and Parks Building is part of a visiting lecturer series sponsored by the Recreation and Parks Department.

Guest lecturers for the all-morning session include Miss Patricia Delaney, Dr. Rolf Meyersohn, Dr. H. Douglas Sessoms and Prof. Louis F. Twardzik.

Biomedical profs to present paper

Dr. Paul H. Newell, head of the biomedical engineering program at A&M and Dr. Daniel G. Barbee, assistant professor of mechanical engineering, will present a paper at the annual conference on Engineering in Medicine Nov. 15-18 in Washington, D.C.

The presentation, "Analysis of the Effect of Injection Procedures on the Distribution of Particulates in Suspended Flows," is based on original research conducted here.

Firemen's school heads plan for course

Supervisors for the Texas Firemen's Training School Industrial Fire Protection Course will meet in Houston Saturday to finalize plans for the instructors' conference at A&M in January.

Henry D. Smith, chief instructor for the A&M-sponsored program, will meet with five supervisors in the Texas Eastern Transmission Building from 8:30 a.m. until noon.

Air Force contracts now available

Applications are being accepted at A&M's Aerospace Studies Department from qualified students desiring an Air Force contract in the Professional Officers' Course for the spring semester.

Col. Keith C. Hanna said the department is particularly interested in civilian students who completed the first two years of the four-year AFROTC program.

Hanna said interested students should contact Maj. R. P. Thorpe, project officer, in Room 307 of the Military Science Building.

Sports Car Club plans 10-class time trials

Time trials will be run Sunday by the Texas A&M Sports Car Club.

Club president Jim Forte of McKinney said the 10-class event will be held at the Research Annex. Practice runs will begin at 9 a.m. and timed runs at 1 p.m.

An entry fee of $4.50 per driver will be charged. TAMUSCC members pay $3. Trophies four-deep per class will be given, entries permitting, noted Kerry Bonner, event master of Pasadena.

He said time trial headquarters can be found at the annex by going to the south end of the main entrance road and turning right to the south end of the former Bryan AFB taxi apron.

Utility workers meet here for short course

Approximately 150 electric utility workers from throughout the Southwest will attend the five-day Electrical Metermen Short Course beginning Monday at the Memorial Student Center.

Dr. John Denison, professor of electrical engineering, said the course included three separate programs running concurrently.

Sponsors are the Electric Power Institute of the Electrical Engineering Department and the Southwest Metermen's Association.

Denison said two courses run Monday through Friday and the Laboratory Personnel Seminar is scheduled Tuesday morning through noon Thursday.

A&M receives $5,000 Eastman Kodak grant

A&M has received a $5,000 unrestricted grant from Eastman Kodak Co., given in recognition of five former students who are Kodak employees.

The grant was computed on the basis of $250 for each academic year completed at A&M by five graduates who joined Kodak within five years of graduation.

Soldier's view of war topic for ROTC lecture Monday

"The Common Soldier's View of War From the American Civil War to Vietnam" will be presented here Monday in the ROTC Speakers Program series.

Dr. James J. Hudson, history professor at the University of Arkansas, will make the presentation at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center ballroom, announced Col. Jim H. McCoy, commandant.

Although the program is directed toward supplementing the military history course presented to Army ROTC sophomores, other Army and Air Force cadets as well as the general public are invited to attend.

Admission is free.

Multi-screen show Tuesday by UT prof

Dr. Richard Byrne, head of the Department of Radio, Television and Communications at the University of Texas at Austin, will bring his multi-screen media presentation back to A&M for a return engagement Tuesday at 8 p.m., according to Robert Riggs, chairman of Contemporary Arts Committee.

Dr. Byrne presented a similar program during last spring's Contemporary Arts Festival, Riggs said.

"Faster than a Speeding Bullet" illustrates the impact of media technology on contemporary society, he said. Dr. Byrne has conducted many experiments in the film media with light and sound shows, Riggs said.

The first CAC presentation of the year, the slide show will be held in the Assembly Room of the Memorial Student Center.

15,800,000 COLLEGE STUDENTS CAN'T BE WRONG

By conservative estimate more than fifteen million college students have used Cliff's Notes since we became America's first literary study aid. This preference continues to build—for two big reasons:

- 1 / QUALITY—The easy-to-understand commentary and explanation you get from Cliff's Notes result from painstaking work by our board of authors. Predominantly Ph.D.'s, these scholars are specially selected for their knowledge of particular works and for their ability to make these works meaningful to you.
- 2 / AVAILABILITY—Cliff's Notes concentrate on giving you all the plays and novels most frequently assigned in college. If your dealer is temporarily out of the title you need, ask him to call us on his special "Hot Line."

Buy Cliff's Notes today—they're a bargain in understanding college literature assignments.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

Through every generation — people have looked for peace and security. Hundreds of volumes have been written on the subject and thinkers and writers have devoted their lives to the search.

But of all these books, the Bible is most concerned with peace and security. "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed for I am your God."

No man-made philosophy can banish the worries and troubles of today's complex life. But in the gospel we find assurance of His care.

God loves us. When we go to Him in humility, He cleanses us of sin. Our minds are put at ease. Peace fills our souls.

Go then to the Book for modern man. Through study, prayer and worship we will find that peace which has been granted to millions — in every country — in every age. Discover anew the life for modern man.
