The Texas Aggie track team—running without top runners Curtis and Marvin Mills—tied for third place with Memphis State in a classy field of four conference champions Tuesday night at the Liberty Bowl Indoor track meet in Memphis, Tennessee.

The University of Kansas, defending NCAA indoor track champions, won the meet with 60 points. The University of Tennessee was second with 46 points and the Aggies and Memphis State tied with 22 points.

Kansas won the Big Eight Conference track title last year; Tennessee, the Southeastern title; Memphis State, the Missouri Valley crown; and the Aggies, the Southwest Conference championship.

Minus the Mills brothers, who stayed at A&M to catch up on some academic work with finals closing in fast, were hampered in the mile relay, 440 and the sprints.

The Aggies managed only one first place as SWC sprint champion Rocky Woods claimed first in the 50-yard high hurdles in 6.2 seconds, which was one of five indoor school track records set at the meet. Donnie Rogers was fourth with 6.4.

High jumper Marvin Taylor cleared the bar at 6-10 but finished second to Kansas' Barry Schur on fewer misses. Ben Greathouse was fourth at 6-8.

Willie Blackmon also set a school indoor mark in the 880-yard run when he ran the half mile in 1:55.9.

Don Kellar zipped to a school record of 1:13.2 in the 600 yard run and Frank Ybarbo also set a school standard with a 9:10.8 time in the two-mile run.

The Aggie two-mile relay team of Dennis O'Brien, Harold Bogt-borg, Pat Bradley and Sammy

Skinner also set a school record with a time of 7:54.6.

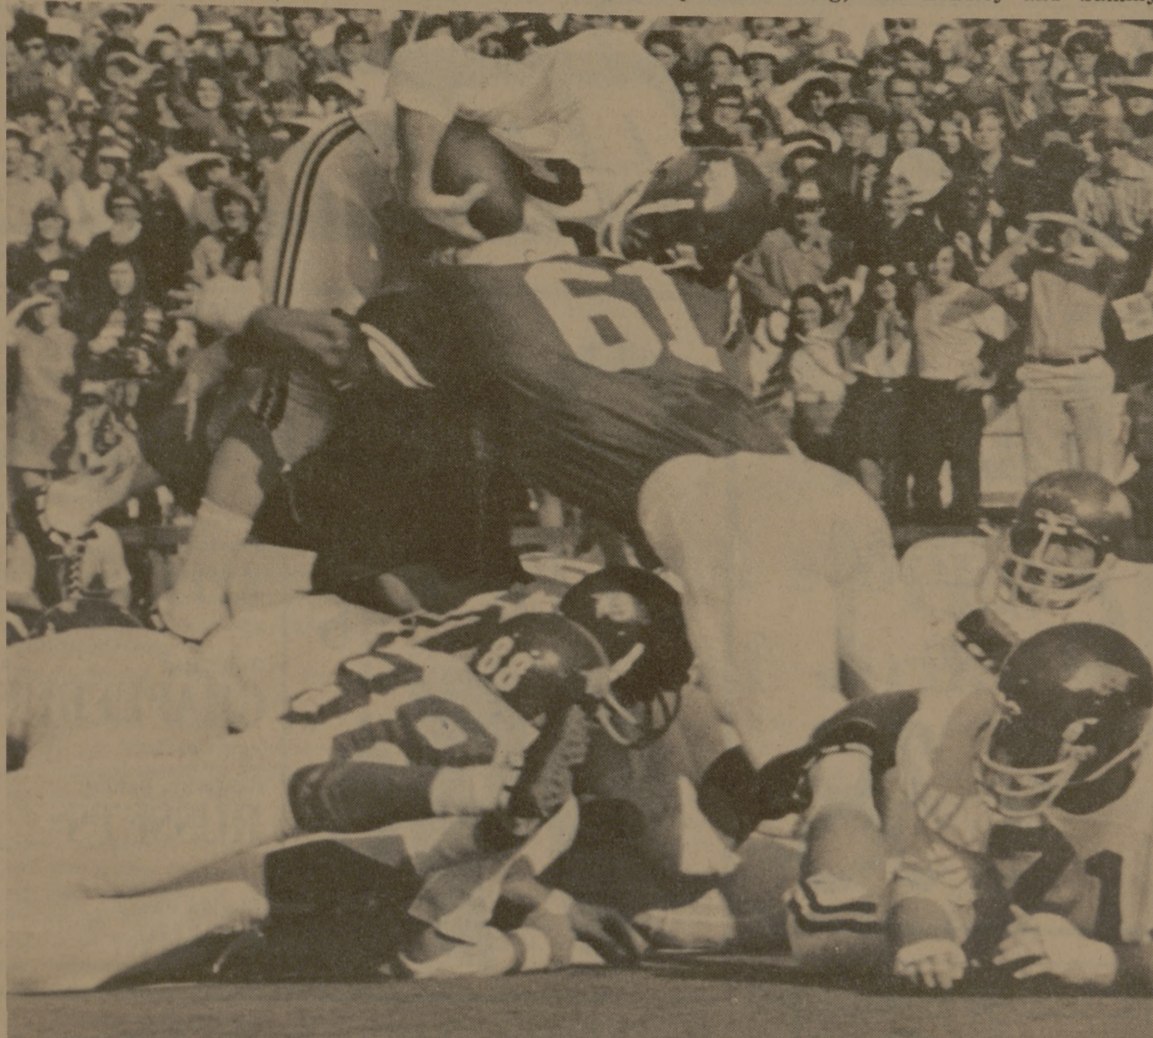

The two-mile relay, Taylor and Kellar all finished second and Ybarbo third.

David Morris picked up fourth place points in the 440 with a time of 51.7.

Kansas took first place in six events, the two-mile relay, mile run, high jump, 1000-yard run, pole vault and shot put, in winning the meet.

Tennessee took first in the mile relay, 880-yard run and 600-yard run and Memphis State won the 440 and the 50-yard dash. work on and it was the first time this season the Aggies have run on an indoor oval.

ARKANSAS TAILBACK Bill Burnett runs into Texas' Scott Henderson (61) during the Longhorns second-quarter goal line stand that preserved a 14-7 lead and put them on the road to a 42-7 win that placed them in the Cotton Bowl for the third straight year. Arkansas, despite a 9-2 record, will not go to a bowl as several bowl committees took teams with 3, 4 and even five losses instead of the Hogs. (Photo by Steve Bryant)

Squadron 2 wins bowling title

Fall intramural sports is nearing its end—Thursday is the final day of sports this semester. While winning four championships, Squadron 2 has taken the lead in the race for intramural team championship.

Squadron 2 won its latest championship last week. They beat F-1 for the Class B bowling title. They have won Class B bowling and basketball championships and Class A football and handball championships.

The final game will be played today in Class A horseshoes. Playing in the semifinals Tuesday were K-1, C-1, Squadron 10 and the White Band. Golf also will be finished before Christmas with eight teams remaining at this time. A-1, E-1, F-2, Squadron 9, Squadron 10 and Davis-Gary I & II all have reached quarterfinal action.
