Hoffman critical of court system

By JAMES R. JACKSON
 Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman, speaking to a large crowd at the University of Florida, blasted the judicial system of America.

He said the courts in America "have nothing to do with justice." He said they only protect the property and money of those "who already have the stuff," and that it's who you are rather than what you did that determines your fate in a trial.

Instances of what he felt were injustices were the 10-year sentence given to Timothy Leary for "smoking a flower," and the indictment of almost 30 students for participation in the antiwar rally at Kent State which resulted in the deaths of four students. Hoffman said, "It's a wonder they didn't indict the four dead kids."

He scoffed at the judicial system's guarantee of a "jury of peers" for anyone on trial because in his trial, he said, the average age of the jurors was 54.

Commenting on U.S. - international relationships, Hoffman said the United States controls some 55 per cent of the world's natural resources, while the U.S. population is only about seven per cent of the world's. He added that there can be no progress in this country until "the fight" is brought home.

A women's liberation spokesman at the University of Washington blasted the "female stereotype." She said, "For years society has methodically told women that they are protected by men, are sexually passive, and that if they don't salute the American flag, motherhood, and apple pie women are outcasts of society."

"Our culture dictates that a woman is beautiful, and so the ugly women of the world spend a lifetime dieting, coloring their hair, using cosmetics and squeezing into girdles so they too, can measure up to beauty."

She concluded by saying, "The Women's Liberation Front Movement is designed to get women to realize how they are discriminated against in job opportunity, sexual pleasure, and being able to identify themselves without society's subtle conditioning."

Singing Cadets receive $1,100

Contributions totalling $1,100 have been made to Texas A&M Singing Cadets.

Gifts of $1,000 by C. J. (Red) Davidson of Fort Worth and $100 by Mrs. William L. DeGinder of Austin were announced Wednesday by Director Robert L. Boone.

He said the contributions were made prior to the Singing Cadets participation last weekend in the 10th Miss Teenage America Pageant.

Davidson, 1917 A&M graduate in electrical engineering, has made previous contributions to the A&M glee club. The Fort Worth oil man, who was a close friend of the late A&M President Earl Rudder, presented a gift of oil stocks worth $2,400 several years ago.

The A&M choral group made him an honorary Singing Cadet last year.

Mrs. DeGinder's personal check for $100 was "the first contribution of this type we've gotten," Boone said.

Washington staged by the Radical Organizing Committee was attended by an estimated 350 persons in response to the rape conviction of Jim and Ervin Newson.

The two brothers were convicted after a girl testified she had been raped by them while she was drunk and celebrating her 20th birthday.

The purpose of the rally was to raise money for the two men to appeal their case.

Barbara Crosby, a representative of the women's lib, told the rally that the rape law is sexist. She said the law is based on society's perception of women as submissive sex objects.

Another woman said that just because the brothers have been convicted they should not be assumed guilty. The courts are "out of touch with the way we live and our own moral code," she said, and are, therefore, unjust.

A 17-year-old high school student from Kent, Wash., has been suspended from school for three days for not wearing a bra. "I don't go to school to show off clothes," said Sherry Platt. "I go to learn."
