

Aggs have new look versus ACC

CLIFFORD BROYLES

Before the season started, when asked about the coming season guard Pat Kavanagh said, "If we put it all together we're going to be tough to beat."

Monday night, the Aggies broke a streak of inconsistency and topped Abilene Christian soundly, 91-74.

For once, everyone had a decent night. Before that the Aggies hadn't had a real top team effort. One night somebody would play exceptionally well, the next night he wouldn't.

Against ACC, A&M not only had its best offensive game but also best game rebounding and setting up the fast break.

The team showed hustle that had been lacking in the early stages. Maybe hustle isn't the proper word, but they were lacking something.

Bill Cooksey, senior guard hit on seven of nine shots from the floor in the first half in the game and for the first time this season the Aggies had an outside shooting threat.

Before that, defenses didn't have to worry about the Aggies out on the court and just put added pressure on 7-0 Steve Niles, 6-8 Rick Duplantis and 6-7 Jeff Overhouse.

Notably, over the weekend, a good Oregon team and an average team sagged against the Aggies, battling away passes in the game and turning them in to 24 and 20 point wins. Another shocker the game with the University of Texas at Arlington, The Rebels did something and beat the Aggies in a game that probably should have something like Monday night.

Cooksey's outside shooting opened up the middle for the big but also some exceptional performances from Chuck Smith and Howard got the ball rolling.

Smith, who was the only Aggie to have a good night against the Rebels, pulled down nine rebounds and scored 11 points while Howard, playing extensively for the first time this year, dropped in six of eight goals and tallied 13 points and eight rebounds.

But the important thing about their play was not this phase of the game. It was the finesse and defense displayed by the Aggies that led the way for new optimism.

But then Monday's game is only one game, and considering that the Aggies had five straight either mediocre or poor games before that can't go overboard yet.

But it does provide a new optimism for the Aggies as they depart their first road trip of the year.

The trip starts with a visit to nationally ranked Tulsa Dec. 23, to Greenville, N.C., to defend their championship in the Poinsettia Classic Dec. 28 and 29.

On Jan. 7 they travel to Charleston, S.C., to play the Citadel and return to Charlotte, N.C., a couple of days later to play the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

The Aggies return home to play Lamar Tech, Jan. 15, on a Friday night. The spring semester starts the following Monday and Southwest Conference competition starts at Baylor Tuesday.

Top 5 teams way out front

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Major College basketball's unbeaten Big Five, led, as usual, by UCLA, dominated the rest of the field in the weekly Associated Press rankings.

Jacksonville, No. 5 in the poll of sports writers and sportscasters throughout the country, held a whopping, 153 point bulge over the sixth ranked team, Penn.

UCLA's mighty Bruins, winners of two games last week, remained in their customary spot atop the standings but Kentucky and Jacksonville switched places, the Wildcats jumping from fifth to third.

South Carolina remained No. 2 with four first place votes and 650 points. Kentucky polled 524, Marquette followed with 497 and two first place ballots and Jacksonville dipped to 439 and one vote for No. 1.

UCLA polled 712 points and 33 first place votes after knocking off U. of Pacific 100-88 and Tulane 97-75. The victories stretched UCLA's record to 4-0 for the season and 124 triumphs in 128 starts.

Penn advanced two places from a week ago to sixth with Notre Dame, Southern California, Drake and Villanova completing the Top Ten in that order.

The rest of the top 20, in order, was made up of Western Kentucky, Kansas, Indiana, Tennessee, Utah State, Oregon, New Mexico State and Florida State Florida State and North Carolina replaced Army, No. 14, and Louisville, No. 20 a week ago, which dropped out.

The Top Twenty, with first place votes in parentheses and total points on a 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8 etc. basis:

1. UCLA 33 (12) 712
2. South Carolina 4 (4) 650
3. Kentucky 1 (3) 524
4. Marquette 2 (1) 497
5. Jacksonville 1 (1) 439
6. Penn 1 (0) 286
7. Notre Dame 1 (0) 283
8. Southern California 1 (0) 258
9. Drake 1 (0) 257
10. Villanova 1 (0) 192

11. Western Kentucky	178	16. Oregon	65
12. Kansas	176	17. The New Mexico St.	33
13. Indiana	123	Florida St.	33
14. Tennessee	69	19. St. Bonaventure	32
15. Utah State	67	20. North Carolina	24

Mark Green on All-SWC frosh squad

Mark Green, free safety on the Texas Aggie Fish football team who intercepted four passes in the team's five games, has been named to the first team All-Southwest Conference freshman squad picked by the Waco News-Herald.

Green, 6-3 210 from Odessa, was the only Aggie to make the squad and is a candidate to play free safety next fall for the Aggie varsity, a spot vacated by All-American Dave Elmendorf.

The University of Texas at Austin, which went undefeated, dominated the team by placing 10 players on first team defense and offense and also had the players voted as the outstanding offensive player, running back Don Burris and outstanding defensive player Glen Gaspard.

Burris, from Houston Aldine, rushed for 713 yards, an average of 11 yards per carry and Gaspard, the team's fullback, was a first team selection at that position and also at linebacker.

Selected to first team offense:
Ends—Jim Moore, Texas, and Andre Tillman, Texas Tech; guards—Randy Scroggins, SMU and Greg Dahlberg, Texas; tackles—Mike Leitko, SMU and Mark Chambers, Texas; center—Bill Wyman, Texas; quarterback—Jimmy Carmichael, Texas Tech; running backs—Burris, Gaspard and Joe Barnes, Texas Tech; kicker—Allen Pringle, Rice.

Selected to first team defense:
Ends—Clyde Adcock, Rice and Richard Mason, Baylor; tackles—Robert Guevara, Texas and Wade Bode, Rice; linebackers—Gaspard, Danny Rhodes, Arkansas, Steve Wade, Texas Tech and Hap Feuerbacher, Texas; backs—Green, Pat Kelly, Texas and Ron Workman, Texas.
