

Nebraska Cornhuskers ranked first in nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nebraska is king of major college football for the first time, but the wild happenings that led to the title followed a script that is not new to the Cornhuskers. Nebraska was voted No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll Tuesday after its 17-12 Orange Bowl victory which followed Notre Dame's 24-11 upset of previously top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl and Stanford's 20-17 upset of No. 2 Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

Notre Dame finished second with Texas third and Ohio State fifth behind Tennessee, the Sugar Bowl winner.
The 1965 national championship was determined the same way. Alabama came out on top in the final AP poll by winning the Orange Bowl and previously No. 1 Michigan State was upset in the Rose Bowl and Arkansas was surprised in the Cotton Bowl.

Alabama's victim in the 1965 Orange Bowl was Nebraska which had gone into the game with a 10-0 record and could have ended up No. 1. The Cornhuskers had to settle for No. 5.

"It's probably the greatest thing ever to happen to University of Nebraska athletics. You could say the same thing goes for me as a coach," said Bob Devaney Tuesday after Nebraska, which finished with an 11-0-1 record, received 39 first-place votes and 964 points.

Notre Dame received eight first-place votes and 814 points, while Texas notched three firsts and 721 points.
"I'm pleased we moved up in the final ratings," said Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian, whose Fighting Irish went into the Cotton Bowl ranked sixth after losing their final regular-season game to Southern California. The Trojans also tied Nebraska and finished with a No. 15 ranking despite a 6-4-1 mark.
Following No. 5 Ohio State was Arizona State, with an 11-0 record the only other unbeaten team in the Top Ten, which received the other two first-place ballots and 472 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten were Louisiana State, Stanford, Michigan and Auburn.
Arkansas headed the Second Ten, followed by unbeaten Toledo, Georgia Tech, undefeated Dartmouth, Southern Cal., Air Force, Tulane, Penn State, Houston, and Oklahoma and Mississippi, tied for 20th.
The final Top Twenty College football teams, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points, tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8, etc.:
1. Nebraska (39) 946
