

Baylor guns down Ags

By CUFFORD BROYLES
The Baylor Bears — starting off in their usual fashion Tuesday night — showed the strength of a champion by hitting on 56.9 per cent of their shots as they dumped the Texas Aggies 108-83 in Heart O' Texas Coliseum in Waco.

Baylor, annually the fastest starting but also fastest fading team in the SWC, worked the ball around with precision as the Bears riddled the Ags to the point where they looked helpless to do anything about it.

Senior guard Tommy Stanton provided the Bears with an early spark, then it was three junior college transfers, Roy Thomas, Bobby Thompson and Willie Chatmon, taking their turns as the Bears rolled from a 48-35 half time lead to their second Southwest Conference win without a loss, while pinning a loss on A&M in its first encounter.

Stanton hit on eight of nine shots in the opening half, including the first four Baylor buckets as the Bears hit 63.6 per cent from the field.

Thomas, the first substitute to enter the game with 13:01 left in the half, sparked the Bears from a 16-14 deficit to take a commanding lead.

Thomas netted three field goals and set up another in the first three minutes he played.

Baylor built the lead in his first three minutes to 27-20. The Bears upped the lead to 10 points midway through the half before the Aggies narrowed the margin to 7. Stanton then put the Bears comfortably ahead with two jumpers and Chatmon then canned an eight footer to up the lead to 12.

Then it was Stanton with a 24 footer, and then the Aggie bench was called on a technical foul after Bob Gobin was nabbed for an offensive foul.

Stanton went to line for the personal and made it but missed the T.

Eleven seconds later Coach Shelby Metcalf was called for another technical and Stanton sank it. He was fouled again five seconds later and Baylor was on top 46-30.

After going to the dressing room with a 48-35 halftime lead, Thompson put the Bears out of any trouble with three straight jumpers from the corner.

Chatmon finished the game with 25 points and 22 rebounds as he held command on the boards throughout. He scored 11 points and had 10 rebounds in the first half and 14 points and 12 rebounds in the second half.

The Bears' offense continued to explode throughout the second half as the lead mounted. Their biggest of the night was 33 and they moved the ball offensively so well in the second half that Chatmon and his replacement, Pat Fees — who scored 12 points in the second half, were open for easy layups several times.

The hot shooting of the Bears hardly left the Aggies with a breath and three Aggies, Bob Gobin, Jeff Overhouse and Rick Duplantis, left by the foul route in the wild second half that saw nothing but fast breaks and foul shots as the Ags played catchup.

The shooting percentages bear out why the Bears won this one. They shot 56.9 from the field and 26 of 34 from the foul line with 20 of 22 coming in the second half.

Six Baylor starters scored in double figures and the Bears crossed the 100 point mark for the sixth time this season in 14 games.

Baylor also claimed a 52-37 lead in the rebounding, although Jeff Overhouse, who led the Aggies with 13, gave A&M control of the boards in the opening minutes.

The two teams were tied at 19 midway through the first half before Thomas put in his show, and the Aggies never were in it again as the Bears were off and running with a swish of the net.

A&M-Baylor scoring:
A&M — Charlie Jenkins 4, Bob Gobin 10, Chuck Smith 15, Jeff Overhouse 19, Steve Niles 14, Rick Duplantis 6, Bill Cooksey 8, Wayne Howard 4, Bobby Threadgill 3.

Baylor — Tom Friedman 10, Tom Stanton 18, Jerry Hopkins 7, Bobby Thompson 12, Willie Chatmon 25, Pat Fees 14, Roy Thomas 10, Keith Curlee 6, Randy Lee 4, Bobby Griffiths 2.

Owls stop Mustangs

HOUSTON (AP) — The Rice Owls, paced by 6-9 Steve Emshoff who was playing with a partially-healed broken bone in his ankle, dropped the visiting SMU Mustangs 78-67 in Southwest Conference basketball Tuesday night.

Emshoff scored 19 points and ripped off nine rebounds. Gary Reist also scored 19 for the Owls.

"We couldn't have done it without Emshoff," Rice Coach Don Knodel said after the game. "He's still got that bone break, but now I think he's also got his confidence."

The Owls, last year's SWC champion, led from 11:07 left in the first half and were 40-33 ahead at the mid-point.

Gene Phillips of SMU was the game's top scorer, pushing in 28 points.

In the preliminary game, the SMU freshmen, who were averaging 106 points per game, were humbled by the Owlets 81-66.

Fish overtake Baylor Cubs

By JOHN CURYLO
Assistant Sports Editor

The Aggie Fish came to life last night, defeating the Baylor Cubs 66-55, in Heart O'Texas Coliseum.

The win brought the Aggies' record to 2-1, and it really got them back on the track, following the loss to Lamar Tech after a long layoff.

Randy Knowles lead the Fish with 22 points and 12 rebounds. He hit eight of fifteen from the field and six of seven from the free throw line. Bobby McKey chipped in with 19. He made eight of 11 field goals and three of five charity shots.

Johnny Mayo hit two of five from the field and seven of eight from the line for 11 points. He also had 11 rebounds. Mark Stewart and Randy Pryor both came off the bench to contribute four points and six rebounds each, while starter Jack Vest rounded out the scoring with six points and six rebounds.

A&M had the edge in rebounding 47-34. The Fish hit 46% from the field and 74.1% from the free throw line. Baylor made only 35.8% of their field goals and 41.2% of their charity shots.

The best parts of the game for the Fish came in the first half and the last five minutes. The Aggies led 32-25 at the half, after hitting 54.2% and six of 10 free throws. Knowles led all scorers at this time with 11. Mayo had seven of his rebounds, and Vest made all his points by the half.

Things reversed in the second half, as the Cubs used a full court press to cause numerous turnovers. They kept this up until there were five minutes left and they led 52-46. The Fish then used free throws, rebounds, and defense to score 20 points to Baylor's three.

At 55-54 for the Cubs with 1:40 left, Mayo tipped in a shot by Knowles to give the lead to A&M. Baylor did not score for the remainder of the game. Mayo hit a layup on a David Little assist up the middle to make it 58-55.

The Aggies then began using the free throw route to make some points. Mayo converted a one-and-one, then Pryor did the same. With 13 seconds left and the score 60-55, Knowles was fouled on a rebound and made his one-and-one, then was fouled again and responded with another one-and-one. At the buzzer, he hit on a long jump shot, and the Fish were back in the winning groove.

The next game for the Fish is Saturday against the TCU Wogs. Since the varsity game that afternoon will be televised, the preliminary contest will begin at 10 a. m.

Ags give check to Wichita fund

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Texas A&M University's four senior football players presented a $5,000 check to the Wichita State University football fund Tuesday after the squad had voted not to have their annual football banquet in lieu of giving the money to the shockers.

A plane carrying members of the Wichita State team crashed late last year putting the school's athletic program in peril.

The four senior co-captains were on hand for the presentation. They were Dave Elmendorf, Jimmy Sheffield, Winston Beam and Jimmy Parker.

Wichita State players on hand to receive the donation were John Hoheisel, Mike Bruce, Glenn Kostal and Dave Lewis.

Texas A&M athletic director Gene Stallings said "the players had almost unanimous vote to give the money to Wichita instead of holding the banquet. It's not much money but perhaps it will encourage other schools to do the same."

Wichita State has received some $575,000 in donations.

Wichita State President Clark Alhberg said "this gesture of sportsmanship personifies the best in intercollegiate athletics. It isn't the amount of money that is important, it's the concern."

Texas A&M and Wichita State played each other in football last year and the Shockers are on the A&M schedule for the next three seasons.

Alhberg said "out of every tragedy some good must come and we are very grateful for this very generous action on their part."

Hagen has surgery

DALLAS (AP) — Lineman Halver Hagen of the Dallas Cowboys underwent surgery Tuesday for a torn cartilage in his right knee.

Cowboys officials said at least five other members of the runner-up Super Bowl team will have surgery within the next three weeks.

They are lineman Ralph Neely, a knee; defensive tackle Jethro Pugh, a shoulder; linebacker Dave Edwards, knee; Reggie Rucker, bunions on both feet; and linebacker Lee Roy Jordan, a shoulder.

Mr. Cub signs

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernie Banks, who will turn 40 on Jan. 31, signed for his 18th season with the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

Technically, first baseman Banks signed his 1971 pact as a player-coach, which he did also two years ago in signing a two-season contract.

Banks was on the disabled list for much of last season for the first time in his major league career, all spent with the Cubs. But after being shelved with a chronic arthritic condition in his left knee from July 22 through Aug. 20, Banks batted .326 in 17 games.

New Rice coach

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Head football coach Bill Peterson of Rice University said Tuesday he has hired Bob Ross, 34, an assistant coach at William and Mary, as an assistant.

Ross, who reported for work Tuesday, will coach linebackers, Peterson said. He is the eighth assistant coach named by Peterson since he took over the job in late September.
