CHARLIE JENKINS (11) lets fly with a crucial field goal in the Aggie comeback bid that produced a 74-73 win over Rice in Houston Tuesday night. Making the effort to block the shot is Mark Wehrle (44). Jenkins hit on four of six field goals and lead the Aggie floor game in the win. (Photo by Clifford Broyles)

Pats take Plunkett as first pick

NEW YORK (AP) — Quarterback Jim Plunkett, the 1970 Heisman Trophy winner from Stanford, was selected by the Boston Patriots today as the No. 1 pick in the National Football League's college draft.
The Patriots landed Plunkett, holder of the all-time major college records for passing and to-Dave Elmentdorf, Texas A&M's All-American free safety, had not been selected in football's annual college draft when The Battalion went to press this morning. The first round selections were still being made.
Elmentdorf was expected to be selected early, possibly in the first or second rounds.
tal offense yardage, after spurning numerous offers to swap the top choice in a package deal for established players.

Plunkett reportedly will seek a $250,000 contract. The Patriots who drafted first because their 1970 won-lost record was the worst in the league, have another high-salaried quarterback in Joe Kapp.
The New Orleans Saints, picking second, selected quarterback Archie Manning of Mississippi, as expected.
The Houston Oilers picked a third quarterback, Santa Clara's Dan Pastorini.
The first three picks were made within 10 minutes after the 17-round draft session kicked off at 10 a.m. EST at a midtown hotel. Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced the successive quarterback selections.
The Buffalo Bills, picking fourth, broke the quarterback string with the selection of swift J. D. Hill, a wide receiver from Arizona State.
As the New York Jets prepared to make their selection, Rozelle interrupted the proceedings to announce a blockbuster trade in which the Los Angeles Rams dealt six players, including their starting linebacking trio of last season to the Washington Redskins.

Washington, whose coach, George Allen, piloted the Rams last season, gave up linebacker Marlin McKeever, its No. 1 and 3 picks in this year's draft and five more 1972 draft choices.
Going to the Redskins are veteran linebackers Myron Pottios, Jack Pardee and Maxie Baughan, defensive tackle Diron Talbert, a 1970 starter, guard John Wilbur and running back Jeff Jordan.
In addition to McKeever and the two high draft choices this year, the Rams will have Washington's third through seventh picks in next year's draft.
The Jets then tapped running back John Riggins, a 6-foot-2, 225-pounder from Kansas. Riggins broke Gale Sayers' career rushing mark at Kansas with a three-year total of 2,706 yards.

At that point, Rozelle announced a second trade, whereby the Green Bay Packers sent quarterback Don Horn to the Denver Broncos in return for defensive end Alden Roche. The clubs also swapped their first round draft picks, moving Green Bay up from 12th to ninth in the order of selection.
Correction
Results of the 1 meter diving event at the Rice-A&M dual swimming meet Tuesday in Houston were incorrectly listed. The correct standings were: 1. Greg Rippey, A&M, 190.60; 2. Doung Cooper, A&M, 178.95; 3. Duncan Manley, Rice 108.50.
