

Fish use fast break to overwhelm Temple cagers

By MIKE STEPHENS
Battalion Staff Writer

The Texas Aggie Fish, using good shooting and an exceptionally fast break, ran Temple Junior College ragged Tuesday night as they recorded their fifth win of the year, 97-69.

Repeatedly stealing the ball and causing turnovers, the Fish ran one fast break after another. A&M finished with a 54.8 per cent shooting record with Randy Knowles and Bobby McKey leading with 30 and 26 points respectively.

Falling and sliding all over the floor while trying to steal, McKey's hustle showed as he stole the ball three times for layups and helped cause several Temple turnovers. Time after time, a fast break started with McKey and ended with a short jumper by Knowles.

Temple led 6-5 with 17:17 left, but Knowles put the Fish ahead with a short jumper and the Fish never relinquished their lead again. Using a man-to-man defense, A&M forced Temple into numerous mistakes and by the time the first half ended, they had a 48-30 lead. Shooting 57.9 per cent to Temple's 40.6 per cent, the Fish also commanded the backboards in the first half leading 26 to 17 in rebounds.

A&M began the second half as they played the first half; fast breaking and excellent shooting. But Temple went into a tight man for man and pulled within 10 points at 72-62 with 5:45 left in the game.

Going into a full court press with five minutes left, Temple then was completely outrun and outthusted. A&M began their fast break in earnest and outscored Temple 25-7 in the last five minutes of the game.

With Jack Vest, McKey and Knowles scoring with short jumpers and layups, the Fish hiked their lead to 20 points with 2:00 left in the game. With Knowles hitting five more points and Vest hitting four, the Fish ran to their biggest lead, 97-67, with 14 seconds left as Knowles fouled out.

A&M shot 51.4 per cent during the second half while Temple shot only 36.7. Temple shot a cold 37.8 per cent for the game. A&M also outrebounded Temple with 52 against 39 for Temple.

Danny Allie led Temple with 18 points and Julius Howard had 16 points and 11 rebounds.

The Fish had nine players scoring. The scoring went like this: Knowles had 30, McKey, 26; Vest, 15; Joe Arciniega had eight; Johnny Mayo, seven; Mark Stewart, five; Randy Pryor with two, David Little with two and Ken Bucek with two.

The Fish next play the Yearlings in Austin Tuesday. Yearlings will have a preview team as their latest effort. They beat TCU's freshmen to 68 last week.
