

Astrology can tell how to handle your man

WOMEN NOW

By SUE DAVIS

Battalion Women's Editor

Many times a woman may date a guy she would really like to impress, but she just does not know how she should dress, act or cook for him. Astrology can provide an answer for her dilemma.

Everyone is born under one of the twelve astrological signs. This determines his characteristics and, therefore, the characteristics he likes in other people.

If your boy friend is difficult to understand, some clues that may help you are below, along with some famous men born under each sign.

The Aries man is a man with a temper. He is a romantic, though, in search of the ideal woman. When he finds her, he will promptly put her on a pedestal. He appreciates a beautiful woman, who must have varied interests and be able to match wits with him. She must, however, be conventional and conform to his high standards.

He is a stickler for doing the right thing at the right time. He detests deception of any kind and will never forgive it in a woman. Although he is an exacting and demanding creature, he is the kind of man most women want as a lover or husband—distinguished, proud, faithful, and very passionate.

How do you make an Aries notice you? Always dress for the occasion (he loves fire-engine red). He likes to entertain and needs a good hostess to help him. Because he loves a challenge, he will read and know at least one subject well. He loves the chase so let him be the aggressor. Do not make his conquest too easy.

Famous Arians are Marlon Brando, Warren Beatty, James Garner, Omar Sharif, Gregory Peck and Peter Ustinov.

The Taurus man has a thoughtful, emotional nature and values his home over almost everything else in life. He is a good provider; sometimes he amasses a fortune. In return, he expects a well cared for home and, above all, good food. He is the epitome of a man whose heart can be won through his stomach, so if you cannot cook, learn how. All of his five senses are highly developed, so be sure the meals look as attractive as they taste.

Since Venus rules this earth sign, he loves everything that is beautiful, especially women, so always look your most alluring. He is possessive, but does not like possessiveness in women. He loves the outdoors, so be a good sport and a good partner.

Taurus men are highly susceptible to fragrance, so be sure to wear his favorite perfume. Develop your culinary skills. He loves blues and greens, so plan your wardrobe around these colors. Be feminine. He loathes loud, aggressive women.

Some famous Taurus men are Glenn Ford, James Mason, Perry Como, Harry Belafonte, Robert Morse and Salvador Dali.

The Gemini man is a poet and gadabout who simply cannot bear monotony. Variety is the spice of life. The worst thing you can do is bore him. He wants a woman who is bright, quick-witted and willing to move about.

He is flirtatious because he enjoys a new face. When he strays, leave him alone and he will come home wagging his tale (of woe) behind him.

Amuse and intrigue him, but never show a trace of possessiveness. Keep him guessing—he loves variety and the unexpected. Keep up with the latest trends in fashion. He loves his woman to wear many faces.

Famous Geminis are Prince Rainier, Hubert Humphrey, Bob Hope, John Wayne, Pat Boone and Tony Curtis.

The Cancer man is home-loving, so much so that you may have trouble ever getting him to leave the hearth. Ruled by the Moon, he is highly emotional and not easy to live with. He is rather fussy and critical and wants things done his way. He can be charm personified and he needs very much to be loved and appreciated. He is overly sensitive to ridicule, so never make fun of him even in jest.

A good provider, he is usually expert at putting figures together, so do not let him catch you overspending (or overweight!). He is conservative, so let that be your guide in dress and manner.

How to appeal to him? Organize little dinners for his business associates. He loves to entertain at home. Be a good outdoor companion. Since he is a water sign, his favorite sports are probably sailing, skin diving and water skiing. Buy him an aquarium for his birthday.

Some famous Cancer men are the Duke of Windsor, Nelson Rockefeller, Van Cliburn, Red Skelton, David Brinkley and Yul Brynner.

The Leo man demands center stage. A fire sign, he is very temperamental, but music soothes the beast in him. Find out his favorite records and stock up on them. He expects life to revolve about him and will not tolerate sharing the spotlight. Quick to anger, he forgives easily and never holds a grudge.

He is generous (almost to a fault), thoughtful, and affectionate, and for the right kind of wife, he makes a marvelous husband. He likes a beautiful, accomplished woman whom he can show off. Play a little hard to get; he likes a challenge. Show him lots of affection—he needs it—and he will give you lots in return.

Sun colors—yellow, orange, gold—please him. He has unusually good taste in dress and expects it in his woman. Life will be a continuous adventure with a Leo. You will never be bored.

Famous Leos are Robert Taylor, Robert Mitchum, Ralph Bunche, Yves St. Laurent, Jason Robards and Peter O'Toole.

The Scorpio man is the sex sign of the Zodiac. He makes a very exciting partner and you will never be bored. He has a fine, constructive mind, but is a very jealous nature. He can never get enough love and affection.

Some men of this sign work tirelessly and often thanklessly for the benefit of the human race. Show him you care by being docile and yielding.

If you do snare this man, be prepared for a tempestuous life. He has strong appetites and expects quality in everything. He likes to be kept amused. His most outstanding characteristic is his sensuality. Appeal to his senses with Oriental blends of perfume. Be mysterious.

Some famous Scorpio men are Pablo Picasso, the Shah of Iran, Richard Burton, Johnny Carson, Rock Hudson and Billy Graham.

The Sagittarius man adores beautiful women, especially those with gorgeous legs. He loves to travel. When he does succumb to marriage, it will not be the conventional kind. He does not mind a working wife as long as she does not neglect him.

He is not a domestic type. He is adventurous, adores sports, horses and gambling. A fire sign, he has a fiery temperament but forgives easily (look helpless during his tirades). His nature is honest but blunt. He is usually very successful and puts work before personal interests.

To please a Sagittarian, be understanding and a good listener. Do not be possessive, for he loves his freedom. He has healthy, uninhibited passions and a roving eye.

Famous Sagittarians are the Aga Khan, Joe DiMaggio, Kirk Douglas, Dick Van Dyke, Frank Sinatra and Ephrem Zimbalist Jr.

The Capricorn man makes a good husband and provider. He loves his home. He is companionable, but likes things "just so" and can be critical and demanding. He is conservative, hard-working and thoughtful. Since he is an earth sign, he loves the great out-of-doors.

How to appeal to him? Feed him. He is a gourmet, so start collecting cookbooks. He generally does not have to worry about his weight. He likes a comfortable home done in earth tones, browns, beiges, greens with accents of orange or yellow.

Be conservative in your appearance. He abhors flashiness in design and in color. He hates to be taken by surprise. Let him have his evenings playing poker with the boys and do not trail around after him on the golf course. He has an independent nature and likes to spend some time alone.

Some famous Capricornians are Sandy Koufax, Jack Jones, Robert Stack, Cary Grant, Danny Kaye and Richard Nixon.

The Aquarius man is an adventurer, a visionary, a torch bearer. Unlike Sagittarius, who likes adventure for the sake of excitement, this air sign loves adventure of the mind, a great humanitarian. The drawback is that he might be more interested in mankind as a whole than in you as an individual.

But he is the kindest and most generous of the signs and, while he is not an especially ardent lover, he treats his woman with courtesy and consideration. Do not expect him to be possessive or overly domestic.

How to make him notice you? Share his interests. Be as much of a humanitarian as he is. He might not notice the clothes you are wearing but he loves electric blue, stark white and all the psychedellic colors. Wear a light, heady fragrance and make it part of your aura. He will not notice it, but it will weave its spell all the same.

Some famous Aquarians are Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Durante, Paul Newman, Dean Rusk, Charles Lindbergh and Robert Wagner.

The Pisces man is magnetic and sensual. He likes his home and prefers to spend most of his time there. Ruled by the planet Neptune, he has an idealistic and spiritual side to his nature, which in some Pisceans makes for a kind of indolence. He is reflective and dreamy.

On the plus side, he is sociable, considerable, sympathetic, loving and attentive. He will do anything for you. He is artistic, fastidious and appreciates the lovely things in life.

Always look beautiful and well groomed. Dress in all the water colors. He is a good cook and loves good food. The Pisces man is very romantic.

Famous Pisceans are Lord Snowdon, Rex Harrison, David Niven, Sidney Poitier, Rudolf Nureyev and Jerry Lewis.

New sorority organized; Faulkner elected president

A women's service sorority, Omega Phi Alpha, has been formed at A&M. The sorority was founded by Bill Cronrath, a senior horticulture major and president of Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity.

"The purpose of the sorority is to promote leadership and friendship among girls by serving their country, community, campus and their chapter," Cronrath said.

Last week Pam Faulkner was elected president. Patricia Self, counselor for women, was chosen advisor.

This semester the girls are working on being recognized by the national office. They plan to work with the Bryan Day Care Center, collect magazines and deliver mail for the campus hospital patients, and organize a clothing drive for Mexia. Last month the girls were hostesses at the Alpha Phi Omega smoker.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday in room 3A in the Memorial Student Center. The constitution and projects will be discussed.

Amis contributes to college handbook
James A. Amis Jr., system attorney for the A&M System, is one of 167 contributing authors to the two-volume "Handbook of College and University Administration" newly published by McGraw-Hill Book Co.
The handbook covers every major field of university administration. Reviewers claim it offers one of the most thorough overviews of college and university administration.
Amis is author of Chapter 6, "University as Farmer — Legal Aspects of Agriculture." He was invited to write the 10-page chapter in the fall of 1967.
