The late Samuel J. Reeves, 1969 Texas A&M graduate who drowned while trying to rescue a Boy Scout last summer, will be honored with a small monument at the university residence hall where he served as an advisor.

Placement of a memorial stone at Law Hall was authorized Tuesday by the Texas A&M University Board of Directors.

Reeves died Aug. 13 during a mishap on the Nuese River near Goldsboro, N. C. He rescued one Boy Scout but lost his own life while attempting to save a second youth.

Dean of Students James P. Hannigan said dedication ceremonies are planned on Parents Day, April 18.

The monument will be purchased by the men of Law Hall.

University worker dies after mishap

A&M employe Claudie C. Merryman of Franklin died Friday in a Houston hospital from injuries received in a tractor accident Thursday at the Research Annex.

Funeral services were held Sunday in Mt. Pleasant Church four miles east of Franklin, under the direction of Peters Funeral Home in Franklin.

Merryman, 61, had worked for the university six years as an automobile mechanic

He died at 4:15 a.m. Friday in the intensive care unit at St. Joseph's Hospital, Houston.

Merryman was injured at 11 a.m. Thursday while doing maintenance work on a tractor-backhoe in the Annex Mechanics Shop. He accidentally started the tractor while greasing the backhoe and the left rear wheel rolled on to his hips and legs.

J. W. Martine, superintendent of the Research Annex Maintenance and Operations Office, estimated Merryman was pinned about five minutes before being found by a fellow worker.

Yell leader wants support for team

I would like to use this letter to express my concern about the attendance at our basketball games. Coach Metcalf, Marvin Tate, and others have expressed their concern to the yell leaders just recently. When we have traveled to other Southwest Conference schools, they have either filled or almost filled their gymnasiums. So far we have not come very close to filling G. Rollie White for a ball game.

All I am asking is for more Aggies to give a damn and go to the ball game tonight. Let's show the 'sips we really aren't "Poor Aggies!" Beat the hell outa t.u.!

Whether this young man was expressing his opinion or just forgot to stand up, it doesn't matter. In this country people are supposed to be able to express themselves without fear of harassment. The seniors were wrong in what they did and I think they owe the young man, the corps, and Texas A&M an apology.

During the past several days, there have been several opinions expressed in your paper concerning the question of Silver Taps. Most of the comments made seemed to have some rational thought behind them. Now, however, I find that an "open letter" published under the Listen Up section seems to be rather asinine with the argument contained therein to be absurd.

Last week my mind was bog-
