Demos seeking total Vietnam withdrawal cratic senators voted 31 to 8 Tuesday to seek total withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam sometime during the 1971-72 session of Congress.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, the Demoflexible, specifying no date for withdrawal, but calling for President Nixon to act "in a time

The Montanan said no implementing legislation will be considered in the immediate future. Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., a senior committee member, reportedly spent much of the two-hour caucus debate arguing for deletion of the last four words of the resolution that read:

Indochina and to bring about the withdrawal of all U.S. forces and the release of all prisoners in a time certain.'

"It's the Hatfield - McGovern amendment all over again," Jackeratic leader, said the caucus was son said afterward. "I don't think you can have a date certain and bring this war to an orderly con-

The Senate last year rejected an amendment by Sens. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., and George Mc-Govern, D-S.D., requiring withdrawal by the end of 1971, but it has been reintroduced. Sen. Hugh Scott, the Republican leader, said the resolution is vague, but politically acceptable to the several possible Democratic presidential contenders.

"To set a date would have fragmented the candidacies," he said.
