

Students to speak tonight

"What's happening at Texas A&M" will be detailed by student leaders tonight at the Brazos County A&M Club.

Student Senate president Kent Caperton of Caldwell, Corps Commander Van H. Taylor of Temple and Civilian Student Council president Mark Olson of Canyon will give Brazos Aggies the report, announced activities vice president Bob Edgecomb.

Club president Larry Locke said the 7 p.m. meeting will be at Wyatt's Cafeteria. He noted that wives are welcome and reservations for the $2 per person buffet are required.

Reservations can be made by calling 822-0189 for Esta Smith or 823-8061 for Martha Hobson.

Bicycle trip being planned

An overnight bicycle trip to Lake Somerville will be held March 20-21. Everyone is invited including girls.

Participants will bring food for supper Saturday night and breakfast Sunday morning. A car will carry the food and anything else that is necessary.

A meeting will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the fountain for those who are interested. Plans will be discussed and the time will be set.

If anyone has any questions, he can contact Robert Flott, Hughes 222, 845-5600 or Andre Piazza, Davis-Gary 104, 845-6175.

Aerospace

Holt also suggested a production model with small air scoops spaced around the edges and an air exhaust vane pointing downward to increase lift. Such an idea has drawbacks, he said, because it "would have to be designed for either a left or right-handed person."

The aero senior decided that "Wham-O has done an extremely good job of designing the present frisbee."

cine professors have been appointed to the Texas SPF (specific pathogen-free) Swine Accrediting Agency's Advisory Board.

They are Dr. William L. Sippel, executive director, Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory; Dr. William Schwartz, diagnostic lab serologist, and Dr. Mark F. Young, associate professor of veterinary medicine and surgery.

The trio will make recommendations to the association in connection with certification of SPF herds.

Kuvlesky elected to science academy

Dr. William Kuvlesky, sociologist in the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Department of Sociology, has been elected a Fellow of the Texas Academy of Science "in recognition of outstanding sociological research on rural and racial problems."

Kuvlesky, who has been involved in the Texas Academy of Science for five years, was also recognized for his active membership in the Academy and "a diligent engagement in scientific work and an excellence of professional standing."

Library directors meet here Friday

Texas college and university library directors will convene here Friday for the spring meeting of the Council of State College and University Librarians.

Forty persons are expected for sessions to be held at the library and a luncheon at the Memorial Student Center. Sessions will be chaired by John Hudson of the University of Texas at Arlington library.

Library director John B. Smith is chairman-elect. He will head the council in 1971-72.

Sociologists attend demographic meeting

Dr. W. Kennedy Upham, demographer with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and Dr. Robert Skrabanek, acting chairman of the Sociology and Anthropology Department, will attend the organizational meeting of the Southern Regional Demographic Group in Oakridge, Tenn., March 18-20.

LIVING IN AN 8 X 12 TENT may not be the best life in the world but it is good enough for Monica Lutz, a 22-year-old El Centro Junior College student. Miss Lutz moved into the 2-room tent last August after her apartment roommate depleted her checking account and another girl friend wrecked her car. She now lives in the tent the year around and plans to stay until she graduates. (AP Wirephoto)
