The two giants of the game, co-favorites for the $25,000 first prize in this 72-hole test that begins today, have finished 1-2 in the annual money standings three times since Nicklaus turned pro in 1962.

And they're in that situation now, Nicklaus leading with $106,-775 and Palmer second at $103,-928. No other player has won more than $100,000 this season.

Neither has led the money standings, considered by many of the touring pros as the real determination of the top player of the year, since Nicklaus led and Palmer finished second in 1967. Both are looking at it seriously this year, however.

"I haven't been the leading money-winner in a long time," Palmer said, almost wistfully. "It Thursday on the 7,086-yard, par looks like I've got a pretty good 70 Preston Trail Golf Club course.

"Since there no longer is a chance for a slam, I'll be back playing the tour more than I'd originally planned," Nicklaus said. "And you like to be first in as many categories as possible.

Nicklaus, who beat Palmer in a sudden death playoff for this in NFL probe Nicklaus, who beat Palmer in title a year ago, has been ninth or better in his last five starts.

He won the PGA and the Tournament of Champions two weeks ago, but saw his dreams of a professional grand slam of all the major championships destroyed when he finished second to Charles Coody in the Masters.

Palmer, playing a much busier schedule than he has in years, also won twice, the Bob Hope Desert Classic and the Citrus Invitational.

They face an extremely strong field of 147 who begin play

Students talk about athletic conduct

Crowd control was the main topic of discussion last weekend at a meeting of the Southwest Conference Sportsmanship Committee held here in conjunction with the spring athletic championship and business meeting.

Rick Perry, a junior yell leader at A&M this past year, and recently elected to be a senior yell leader for 1971-72, was secretary in charge of the meeting, one of which is held each spring wherever the conference gets together that year.

Delegates from A&M were yell leader Tommy Orr, 1970-71 Stu-

Caperton, and next year's President, John Sharp. In addition, Captain Edward C. Schillo of the Military Science Department spoke to the group, composed of similar representatives of the various member schools.

Suggestions were made about control at the spring sports, basketball, baseball, and track. Two of the areas which were talked about were treatment of visiting students by campus police and crowd reaction to calls by officials, particularly in basketball.

Solutions decided upon as guidelines were a better relationship with the law officers, and more courteous treatment of guests by staff members of the host school.

To be eligible to purchase the Texas A&M University ring, an undergraduate student must have at least one academic year in residence and credit for ninety-five (95) semester hours. The hours passed at the preliminary grade report period on March 15, 1971, may be used in satisfying this ninety-five hour requirement. Students qualifying under this regulation may now leave their names with the ring clerk, Room Seven, Richard Coke Building, She, in turn, will check all records to determine ring eligibility. Orders for these rings will be taken by the ring clerk starting April 1, 1971, and continuing through May 7, 1971. The rings will be returned to the Registrar's Office to be delivered on or about June 23, 1971. The ring clerk is on duty from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday, of each week.
