Medina case reaching end as last witnesses are heard

FT. McPHERSON, Ga. (AP)—The government will begin winding up its case against Capt. Ernest L. Medina on Wednesday when his My Lai court-martial resumes after an 11-day recess.

Among the government's final witnesses will be Robert Brisentine Jr., Baltimore, Md., an Army Polygraph examiner who administered 2 lie detector tests to Medina.

A ruling by the military judge, however, will sharply restrict Brisentine's testimony.

Before recessing the court-martial after two weeks of testimony, Col. Kenneth Howard ruled that Brisentine may not allude to the actual results of the lie detector test he gave the captain while the Army investigated his case.

Howard ruled that Brisentine may testify only about the interview he conducted with Medina, 35, of Montrose, Colo., before administering the test. The interview spanned 14 hours.

Medina is accused of assaulting one My Lai villager by firing a rifle over his head into a tree, personally shooting one civilian, ordering the slaying of another and failing to intervene while his troops, including Lt. William L. Calley Jr., killed at least 100 others.
