Name one thing that hasn't gone up since 1950.

1. Try. Try hard.
The only thing we can think of is what we make. The Swingline "Tot 50" Stapler. 98¢ in 1950. 98¢ in 1971.
And it still comes with 1000 free staples and a handy carrying pouch. It staples, tacks and mends. It's unconditionally guaranteed. It's one of the world's smallest staplers.
And it's the world's biggest seller. Could be that's why it hasn't gone up in price in 21 years.
If you're interested in something a little bigger, our Cub Desk Stapler and Cub Hand Stapler are only $1.98. Both Tot and Cub Staplers are available at Stationery, Variety and College Bookstores.
The Swingline "Tot 50" 98¢ in 1950. 98¢ in 1971.
If you can name something else that hasn't gone up in price since 1950, let us know. We'll send you a free Tot Stapler with 1000 staples and a vinyl pouch. Enclose 25¢ to cover postage and handling.

LSU looks tough again; out for revenge

By MIKE RICE
Battalion Sports Writer
Louisiana State's Fighting Tigers, 1970 champions of the Southeastern Conference, will have their work cut out for them when the Aggies come flying into Baton Rouge Saturday.

Utilizing the "walking I" offense and the 4-3 alignment defensively, LSU Head Coach Charlie McClendon will be trying to better the 19-12-3 advantage it has over the Aggies.

Last year, Lex James handed

Ronnie Estay

Coach Mac his first opening game loss, while giving the Aggies their first win over the Tigers since 1956.

On the offensive side, LSU looks to junior quarterback Bert Jones to throw the winning combination for the Tigers, while Paul Lyons, a junior letterman, will be filling the number two quarterbacking position behind him. In the game against Colorado last weekend, Jones only connected on 5 of 21 for 44 yards, and Lyons hit the .500 mark, throwing 3 of 6 for 33 yards.

In the tailback spot, three lettermen will be leading the charge for the Bayou Bengals. Seniors Arthur Cantrelle (197), and Del Walker (185), along with junior Chris Dantin (184), netted the most yardage for the team in rushing against Colorado next to Jim Benglis, a 207 pound fullback with plenty of experience behind him. Also tough in the fullback position is senior Allen Shorey (180), who saw little action in the last game.

In the punting position for the Tigers this year is the phenomenal Ronnie Estay (225) who is considered by some to be a good choice for All-American. Not unusually large, he is also known for his devastating pass rushing. Against Colorado, he booted his way to 275 yards on seven attempts for an average of 39.3 yards, his longest being a 48 yarder.

LSU's ace in the tight end spot is receiver Ken Kavanaugh (187) who hauled in three passes last week for 39 yards, making him the number one receiver in the game for both teams.

In the split end position is Gerald Keigley, while Jimmy LeDoux fills the bill in the split-back spot. LeDoux had a minus one in the rushing yardage department against Colorado, while quarterback Jones acquired a minus seven mark for the game.

On the front line for the offense will be well-known faces such as Phil Murray (225) and Steve Streete (212) at the tackle spots; Jimmy Elkins (220) and Mike Demarie (220) at the guard positions; and Logan Killen (203) at the center post.

On the defensive side, LSU is very weak this year, having lost three-fourths of the starting front four to graduation.

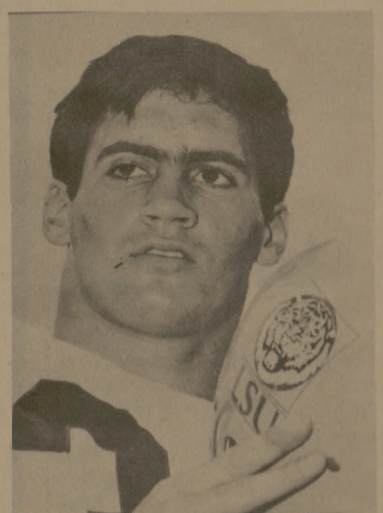

Senior Estasy, a 1970 All-SEC choice at defensive end, could wind up in the tackle spot against A&M along with his fellow squadman, Randy Nicar (225).

The Tigers have only one returning letterman at the end position, junior John Wood (220), but he probably will be joined by squadmen Jim Gainey (205) and Skip Cormier (204), a converted linebacker.

The linebacker posts will probably be filled by Lloyd Frye (204), Boyd Perry (210), Louis Cascio (195), Warren Capone (200), Richard Picou (193), and Pepper Rutland (195).

Seniors Tommy Casanova (191) and John Nagle (183) will hold down the starting cornerback jobs and Casanova could make it to All-American.
