

Aggies will try to score on national champs tomorrow

By JOHN CURYLO
The Aggies journey north tomorrow to meet the national champion Nebraska Cornhuskers in Lincoln at 1:30 p.m., and redemption is the goal they have in mind.

causing some of the changes.

Lex James starts at quarterback again, but sophomore Mark Green may be ready to play his first varsity game, having just recovered from a foot injury.

Doug Neill, the team's leading rusher last year and through two games this season, gets the nod at fullback, with Marc Black expected to see considerable action. Steve Burks will be the tailback, and his replacement is Cliff Thomas.

Robert Murski will start at split end, backed up by Tommy Goodwin. However, a change has been made at wingback, due to the collarbone injury to Joey Herr, who will be out from four to six weeks. Hugh McElroy will start in his place, with Ricky Spencer the number two man there.

In the offensive line, Buster Callaway still has the left tackle spot, with Marshall Herklotz behind him. Todd Christopher is the left guard. An injury to Butch Kamps has moved Clifton Thomas into the substitute role there. The center will be Robert Gerasimowicz, with Skip Kuehn right behind him. Leonard Forey is expected to be the right guard, and Mike Park is his replacement. Either Ted Smith or Ralph Sacra will start at right tackle. Tight end is ably held down by Homer May, who is spelled by punter Mitch Robertson.

Defensively, at least three starters have been changed. A foot injury to Max Bird may put Dan Peoples at the left end slot, with Mike Sweat number two. A similar injury to James Dubcak gives right tackle to Herman Mauch, and Lee Hitt will be at left cornerback in place of Ed Ebram.

Boice Best will be the left tackle, and Van Odom is still the middle guard, backed up by Bill Wiebold. Kent Finley is the right end, but if Peoples starts on the other side, Rusty Pool will be moved up to the second team.

Steve Luebbehusen stays at right linebacker, with Dennis Carruth listed behind him. Grady Hoerman starts at left linebacker. Mike Lord has a bruised thigh, and will not make the trip. Bland Smith will start at right cornerback, and Larry Ellis is second.

The safety positions are the same. David Hoot and Brad Dusek will be at strong and free safety, respectively. Between the two of them, they made 25 unassisted and eight assisted tackles against LSU.

Pat McDermott will do the place-kicking, and Mike Bellar will take care of kicking off. Robertson has punted 10 times this season, averaging 42 yards per kick. His longest was for 63 yards against LSU. With the Herr, either Dusek or Mauch back up Robertson.

The Aggies need to play Nebraska's passing and play control, two things teams had trouble doing against Cornhuskers. A crowd of plus is expected. The game last week drew 68,000 to Nebraska's Memorial stadium, their 19th straight sellout.

Texas meets Tech in SWC opener

By BILL HENRY
Assistant Sports Editor

Southwest Conference football blasts into its second fall week of play with the first conference game of the year on tap for Saturday afternoon in Austin.

The Texas Tech Red Raiders sneak into Austin for a 4 p. m. contest against the Longhorns. Tech is riding on a two game losing streak with losses coming at the hands of Tulane and New Mexico. Texas, on the other hand, is recuperating after a 28-10 victory over UCLA. The big question mark is whether Eddie Phillips, generator of the Wishbone T, will be well enough to play. If not, the Texas offense is in grave danger.

TCU, after a stunning 42-0 win over the University of Texas at Arlington, will invade Seattle for a game with the Washington Huskies in an afternoon contest. This game will put two great passers against each other in TCU's Steve "The Dealer" Judy and Washington's Sonny Sixkiller. Washington has won two straight against the University of California at Santa Barbara, 65-7, and Purdue, 38-35. This should prove to be an explosive offensive battle.

Baylor takes on the Indiana Hoosiers in a 7:30 p. m. contest in Waco. The Hoosiers are 1-1 so far this season with a victory over Kentucky, 26-8, and a loss to Minnesota, 28-0. Baylor has lost the only game it played, to Kansas, 22-0, last week in Lawrence. Si Southall leads the attack for the Bears.

Arkansas takes on improved Tulsa in Fayetteville in an afternoon game. The Razorbacks are riding the crest of a two game winning streak with victories over California, 51-20, and Oklahoma State, 31-10. Tulsa pulled an upset over Kansas State last week end for its lone victory. Arkansas's awesome offensive attack is triggered by Joe Ferguson at quarterback and Jon Richardson at wingback. This combination leads the Southwest Conference in proficiency.

SMU travels to Columbia, Missouri, for an afternoon contest with the Missouri Tigers. The Mustangs are 0-1 with last weeks loss to Oklahoma, 30-0, in a game marred by rainy weather and numerous errors by both teams. Missouri has lost two straight; against Stanford, 19-0, and Air Force, 7-6, which was regionally televised. Both teams obviously need to get the offense in gear.

Rice will entertain the Tulane Green Wave in Houston at 7:30 p. m. Rice is 0-2 going into Saturday's game while Tulane is 1-1. The Owls have been beaten by Houston, 23-21, and USC, 24-0. Tulane started the season with an upset of highly touted Texas Tech, who in some circles were picked to win the SWC, 15-9. Last week the Green Wave was slaughtered by the Georgia Bulldogs.

Water polo tournament is scheduled at indoor pool today and tomorrow

By MIKE RICE

The Texas A&M Water Polo Club will sponsor a Novice Water Polo Tournament for high school and college freshmen this weekend in the Natatorium and outdoor pools.

The tournament will be the first of its kind to be held at A&M and Coach Dennis Fosdick hopes that it will help build up the sport in Texas high schools.

Fosdick, in looking at the teams that are entered in the two-day affair, feels there will be three main contenders for the top three spots of the tourney.

"We have a team coming all the way from Mexico City," said Fosdick, "and I don't think they would come that far if they weren't a fairly decent team, but I can only guess because I don't know anything about them."

The other teams he feels will be in the top three are the Texas A&M fish team and the squad from the University of Texas at Austin.

The A&M team, incidentally, will be coming into the tournament with a 9-6 win over the Longhorn junior varsity team, which had only a few freshmen on it.

"Whether we can keep our fast break going," commented Fosdick on his frosh team, "will make the difference in the outcome for us. Since this is a new group, they have had a lot to learn, particularly in keeping their momentum going in the game."

LIGHTED WINDOWS

It's after hours. Yet most of the windows are bright. Perhaps the cleaning crew is at work, or a few executives catching up on their mail.
Whatever the reason, the lighted windows glow with purpose. The dark windows are blank, austere and forbidding. What difference one flick of a light switch can make!
People are like the windows of this building. Some, radiant with the joy of living, find days full, happy and useful. They are fun to be around. Others, gloomy and sad, find life lonely and meaningless. Their company is tedious.
What makes the difference? Where can you turn if life seems troublesome? You can't flick a switch to change an attitude.
The secret is in your church. Worship and study there, and welcome the living presence of God into your heart and mind. Your whole life will be lighted and your days filled with new happiness.
