Contemporary Arts opens fall series

Contemporary Arts opens its fall lecture series Thursday at A&M with Clark Moustakas, author - psychologist of the Merrill-Falmer Institute in Detroit.

The Memorial Student Center committee presentation will begin at 8 p.m. in the MSC ballroom, announced chairman David Dacus. Contemporary Arts lectures are public-free events.

Moustakas will speak on "Loneliness vs. Being Alone," Dacus said. The author of "Creativity and Conformity" promotes humanizing learning, encourages individuality an dself awareness and enriching the curriculum with art and the creative process.

Boone appointed to Advisory Council

Dr. James L. Boone Jr., head of the Industrial Education Department at A&M, has been appointed to the State Board of Education's Advisory Council for Technical - Vocational Education in Texas. The six-year term on the 21-member board was recommended by the governor and approved by the state board, subject to confirmation by the Texas Senate.

Dr. Boone, 48, will represent teacher education. The council organization and funding was included in legislation this year to provide an advisor council to the State Board of Education on vocational-technical education below the college level.

The council holds monthly meetings, Dr. Boone said.

A member of the A&M faculty 19 years, Dr. Boone holds bachelor, master and doctorate degrees from A&M. He is a native of Houston.

Boyce to present paper at conference

An invited paper by Dr. Meherwan P. Boyce of A&M will be given at the International Gas Turbine Conference in Tokyo Oct. 4.

The paper co-authored by mechanical engineering graduate student Y. S. Bale of India is titled "A New Method for the Calculations of Blade Loadings in a Radial Flow Compressor."

It was invited by a joint committee of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Japan Society of Mechanical Engineers. More than 100 were submitted to the international committee.

Dr. Boyce, an assistant professor in the Mechanical Engineering Department, also will serve as vice chairman of the conference turbomachinery sessions. Enroute to Tokyo, he will present a seminar on "The Aerodynamics of Turbomachines" at the University of Hawaii, also by invitation.

An A&M faculty member since 1969, Boyce has degrees from the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology, State University of New York at Buffalo and the University of Oklahoma.

More scholars named at A&M

Five additional President's Scholars have been named at A&M for 1971-72.

President Jack K. Williams said they are Douglas S. Carlson of Houston; Rosemary E. DeYoung, Beaumont; Margaret C. Nagy, Lubbock; Gary N. Proctor, Arlington, and Clayton G. Smith, Victoria.

The five President's Scholars, along with 20 named in early September, will carry the designation through the 1971-72 senior year. Upon enrolling at A&M next fall, the President's Scholar receives a $1,000 a year scholarship for up to five years study at A&M.

President Williams said five new $25,000 endowments were recently arranged, bringing to 25 the number of President's Scholars selected this year. They will join a list of 75 President's Scholars at A&M next fall.

Barnes to speak at Political Forum

Texas Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes will speak Wednesday at A&M under auspices of Political Forum for a noon series talk on drug laws.

Forum chairman Paul Turner said the public-free presentation will be from noon to 1 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center ballroom.

The presentation will follow the usual noon series format, with a question-answer session following the lieutenant governor's address.

Students can sign for placement interviews

Graduating students can now sign up Monday through Thursday for placement interviews, Placement Director Robert C. Reese announced.

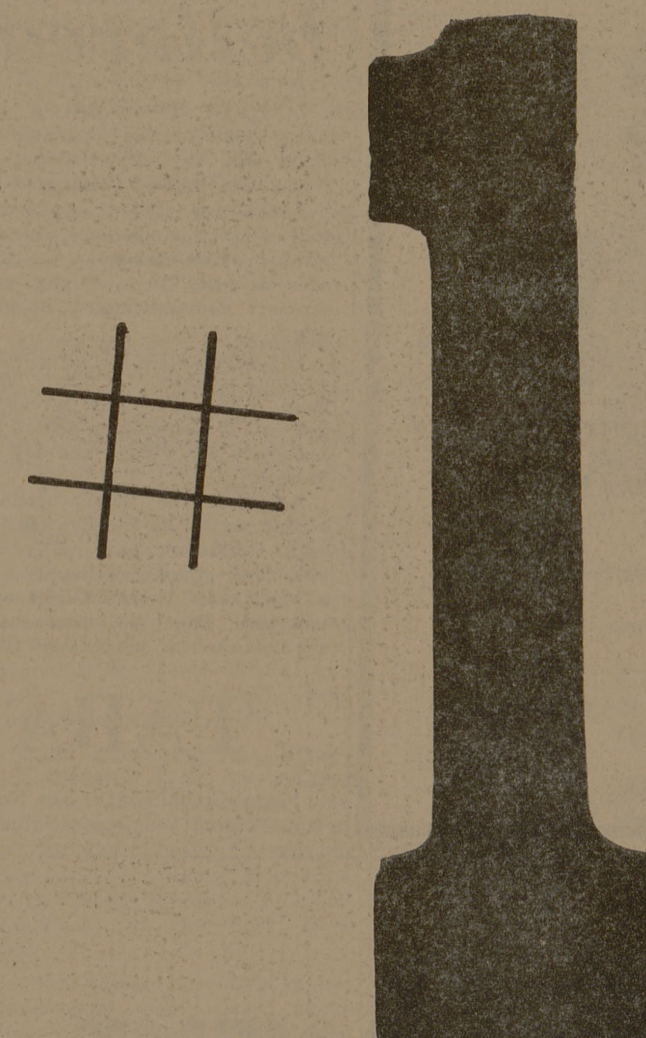

Reese noted that graduating students can sign up on company schedules beginning at 1 p.m.

He said the revised sign up procedure should be more equitable for all graduating students.

Company schedules will be posted at 1 p.m. each weekday except Friday, two weeks in advance of the date of the company representative's scheduled presence.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY SEPTEMBER 27, 1971 OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF ADMISSIONS AND RECORDS

To be eligible to purchase the Texas A&M University ring, an undergraduate student must have at least one academic year in residence and credit for ninety-five (95) semester hours. The hours passed at the preliminary grade report period on October 18, 1971 may be used in satisfying this ninety-five hour requirement. Students qualifying under this regulation may now leave their names with the Ring Clerk, Room Seven, Richard Coke Building. She, in turn, will check all records to determine ring eligibility. Orders for these rings will be taken by the Ring Clerk starting November 1, 1971 and continuing through December 14, 1971. The rings will be returned to the Registrar's Office to be delivered on or about January 21, 1972. The Ring Clerk is on duty from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday, of each week. H. L.
