Fish open against Wogs next Thursday

By BILL HENRY
Assistant Sports Editor

In one week the 1971 edition of the Texas A&M Fish football team will be on display in Kyle Field against the Texas Christian Pollywogs. Starting time will be 7:30 p.m.

This year's team will be one of the biggest in history with a line averaging well over 220 pounds. "Our offensive line is real big this year," stated Coach Jim Kellar. "They are very young and have not matured into their large size and are not real quick. With experience they will be good football players."

Last year's team went 0-5 after going 5-0 and 4-1 the two previous years. The 1970 team, it is noted, had only half the team on scholarships with a tremendous number of walk-on players who had to carry the load because of injuries. This year, out of the 60 players, only 16 are not on scholarship.

"I can't compare this team to the two good teams we had in '68 and '69," Kellar said. "I'll have to see how they play under game conditions first, then I will be able to judge the talent we have. Right now we look real strong and the kids are very anxious to play a game."

The freshmen have worked out for six weeks without playing under true game conditions and are ready for Thursday night to roll around.

The Fish have only one true Texas Blue Chipper, Johnny Bounds, tailback from Monahans. Seven all-staters and one high school All-American are listed on the roster. John Streckfuss, from Brookshire Royal, Warren Trahan, from Lafayette, La., Jerry Honore, from Lake Charles, La., Paul Hulin, from Hobbs, N. M., Euger Deets, from Kirbyville, Joe Scott, from Seagoville and Jackie Landress, from Dallas Kimball, are the all-staters. The All-American winner is Monty Bice, from Hobbs, N. M.

Teamed up with great line size is depth in the offensive backfield. Don Dean, 6-0, 185, from Little Cypress and Mike Newton, 6-2, 190, from Knox City will do much of the quarterbacking chores along with starting free safety, Steve Canter, 6-1, 180, from Jacksonville.

The wingback position will be manned by Ricky Ford, 6-2, 190, from Fort Worth Southwest and Jackie Landess, 6-0, 195. At tailback; Sidney Fielder, 6-0, 165, from Ennis and John Bounds, 6-2, 210, will be vying for the starting role. The fullback slot will be run by Allen Anderson, 6-0, 200, from Euliss and Jerry Honore, 6-0, 207.

The rest of the offense will have as much if not more depth than the positions already mentioned.

linebacker; Bill Cazales, 6-0, 190, from Corpus Christi Ray at linebacker; Marvin Tate, 6-1, 185, from Bryan High at left cornerback; Joe Scott, 6-2, 188, at right cornerback; Doug Jordan, 6-2, 210, from Nacogdoches at strong safety and Steve Canter, 6-1, 180, from Jacksonville at free safety.

Canter will do the punting chores while John Schluens, 5-8, 180, from Texas City will kickoff and do the point after and field goal duties.

"Overall we will have good speed in the backfield," stated Kellar. "Our passing will be from good to adequate with the two quarterbacks. Fielder, the tailback, is real quick and had a great scrimmage on Tuesday."

The best player on each freshman team is usually put at free safety as Kellar feels this is the most important position. This year it's Steve Canter who is in the mold of the last three safeties Kellar has had who've won all-SWC honors. These were David Hoot in 1968, Brad Dusek in 1968 and Mark Green in 1970.

Next Thursday, the goliath-sized Fish team will get the opportunity it has been waiting six weeks for. The TCU Wogs will be the first of five to experiment with this year's monster team. TCU won the game last year, 31-7.

Morton to start against Washington; Staubach still slowed by injuries

By DENNIE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP)—The combination of an injury to Roger Staubach and a sparkling performance by Craig Morton moved Dallas Cowboy Coach Tom Landry Wednesday to give Morton the starting quarterback nod for Sunday's game with the Washington Redskins.

"The thing that swayed me was that Roger has not competed," said Landry. Staubach was kayoed in the first quarter in the 42-7 victory over Philadelphia by Eagle defensive end Mel Tom. The Cowboys are disturbed about what they thought was a cheap shot.

Even such a hardened campaigner as tight end Mike Ditka couldn't believe Tom would do such a thing.

"Tom always seemed like a nice guy," said Ditka.

Offensive tackle Ralph Neely said, "I'm not going to say anything about it, but I'm not going to forget it, either."
