Rushing duel expected in A&M-UC battle here

By JOHN CURYLO
 Battalion Sports Editor

Run will be the name of the football game tomorrow night when the Texas Aggies host the Cincinnati Bearcats in Kyle Field at 7:30 p.m.

Sophomore Mark Green, who got his first taste of varsity action against Nebraska last week, is pitted against Albert Johnson, the top rushing quarterback in the nation a year ago.

Green is a 6-3, 218-pounder from Odessa, who picked up 43 yards in 14 carries. He passed for 17 yards, completing three of five. His rushing ability is based on size, speed and broken plays.

Johnson, 6-1 and 206, makes his yardage on the option play Cincinnati executes so well. His running is more systematic and planned. The Bearcats averaged 247 yards a game on the ground last season.

Joining Green in the A&M backfield will be Steve Burks at tailback and Doug Neill at fullback. Neill is the leading Aggie ground gainer, with 90 yards in 29 tries. Marc Black plays behind Neill. Hugh McElroy, the starting wingback since Joey Herr's cracked collarbone, has been working at backup tailback in place of Cliff Thomas, who hurt a knee against Nebraska. Ricky Spencer is the number two wingback.

Robert Murski starts again at split end. The Houston junior has caught five aeriels for 53 yards in three games. Tommy Goodwin is his replacement.

The offensive line, less than outstanding to date, should be improved with the extra work they received this week. Homer May is the mainstay tight end, having caught three passes for 33 yards. Mitch Robertson, who does the punting, is his backup man.

The tackles are Buster Callaway and Ted Smith, with Marshall Herklotz and Ralph Sacra spelling them. Smith and Sacra have been waging a hot battle for starting honors, but a knee injury has slowed Sacra thus far.

Leonard Forey and Todd Christopher man the guard slots, and Mike Park and Clifton Thomas said this setup would be the same until James Duback could play again. The other tackle is Boice Best. Tom Evans and Herman Mauch are the second team tackles.

The defense, which was so good in controlling Nebraska's stellar offense, is just about the same as last week. Van Odum will start at right tackle, with Bill Wiebold getting the starting berth at noseguard. Coach Gene Stallings said this setup would be the same until James Duback could play again. The other tackle is Boice Best. Tom Evans and Herman Mauch are the second team tackles.

Max Bird and Kent Finley will start at the ends, with Mike Sweat and Dan Peoples right behind them. Grady Hoermann and Steve Luebbehusen go again at linebacker, and Dennis Carruth is number two at both places. The secondary was a bright spot against the Huskers, and the same crew is ready for Cincinnati.

Lee Hitt and Bland Smith both got stars for their performances Saturday, and they will be the cornerbacks. Ed Ebrum acts as backup man on both sides.

David Hoot and Brad Dusek man the safety positions, and each has stood out for the number of tackles made in the last two games. Larry Ellis, the sprinter of the kickoff unit, is their substitute.

The kicking game looks as strong as ever, with Mike Bellar kicking off and handling placements, along with Pat McDermott, and Robertson punting. Robertson has kicked 20 times for a 41.4 average, best in the Southwest Conference.

McElroy is the return man again, after his kickoff return for a touchdown and the 51 yard punt runback that nearly went all the way. Spencer also plays deep on kickoffs, having run three back for 62 yards.

McElroy has eight returns to his name, making 267 yards for an average runback of 33.4. His three punt returns have totalled 60 yards.

The Aggies are trying to get back on the winning track before conference, and they want to get the offense in gear. Also, the development of Green is a necessity for being successful in improving on the 1-2 record they have.

TCU-Arkansas game headlines SWC action; all teams are preparing for conference play

By BILL HENRY
 Assistant Sports Editor

The fourth week of SWC football is upon us, and, like last week, only one conference game is on tap.

The headliner this week is Texas Christian at Arkansas in Fayetteville for an afternoon contest. The Razorbacks will be trying to get back on the winning track after last week's upset loss to the Tulsa Hurricanes, 21-20. TCU will also be looking for a winning combination after last week's loss to the Sonny Sixkiller-led Washington Huskies, 44-26. TCU is a better football team than many fans expected, while Arkansas has one of the most prolific offenses in its history. It should be a battle between Steve Judy and Joe Ferguson.

Oregon will take a 1-2 record to Memorial Stadium in Austin against the unbeaten Longhorns in an afternoon game. Oregon looked ragged against both Nebraska and Stanford while losing and played well against an outclassed Utah club. Texas, on the other hand, has improved defensively since the UCLA game. Eddie Phillips should be back in the lineup for the Texans.

The Baylor Bears visit sunny Florida for a game with the surprising Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl on Friday night. Miami lost by three to Florida State with a field goal late in the fourth quarter and FSU beat Kansas 30-7 last weekend. Baylor lost to Kansas 22-0 in its season opener. Baylor still hasn't got its offense in gear as the defense won the game last weekend against Indiana. Si Southall, Bear signal-caller, is overdue for a great passing day. Both teams are 1-1.

Rice has a difficult task in store for itself in Baton Rouge Saturday night against the red-hot LSU Tigers. The Owls pulled a mild upset against another Louisiana team, Tulane, last week but the chances of two in a row are slim. After the Tigers' opening game loss to sixth-ranked Colorado, they have been punishing in their victories against

A&M and Wisconsin. Rice looks surprisingly strong this season under new Head Coach Ray Peterson, but LSU wants to finish the season without another loss.

Southern Methodist will entertain the New Mexico State Aggies in the Cotton Bowl in an afternoon game. Neither the Mustangs or the Aggies have looked impressive so far this year. Last week, SMU lost to a fair Missouri football team, 24-12, while New Mexico sneaked by a very unimpressive North Texas State team, 10-0. The Mustangs will have to get the Wishbone in high gear soon or it will be a long season. The key to New Mexico's offense is running, mainly with tailback Po James.

Tech will fly out to Tucson for a regionally televised game with the University of Arizona in an afternoon contest. Tech has got a bad case of the "blahs" on offense and Charlie Napper may be put on the sidelines if this practice continues. Back-up man, Jimmy Carmichael, who threw four interceptions against Texas last week, has the potential to carry the Raiders farther than Napper. Arizona is 2-0 with victories over Washington State and UT at El Paso.

This is the last week of non-conference play for everyone in the SWC except Texas, SMU and TCU. After next week each team will have played a conference game except Southern Methodist.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

what does it mean?

Frightening, isn't it? You see a picture like this and suddenly you feel you are standing at the edge of a chasm in the dark. You are confronted with the threat of the unknown, and you don't like it. Why, you wonder? Why can't men live together in peace?

We all need the courage to face the future unafraid. We need to find and to develop love, understanding and peace of mind. But to attain our goal, we need Faith. That help can be found in church.

On Worldwide Communion Sunday — millions of men and women will unite in one of Christianity's holy sacraments. There will be new faces at thousands of altars, men and women who have only recently begun to realize where man's Hope is to be found.
