

Bounds and Fielder outrun Cubs' passing as Fish triumph

By BILL HENRY
Assistant Sports Editor

Neal Jeffrey's second half rally fell short here last night as Texas A&M dropped the Baylor Cubs 33-22 in an awesome offensive battle.

Jeffrey was far and away the best quarterback to play on Kyle Field in a long time as he hit 15 of 27 passes for 271 yards and three touchdowns. Lloyd Kitchens was his favorite receiver with nine receptions for 170 yards and two touchdowns.

For the Fish, it was a great double-barreled running attack by John Bounds and Sidney Fielder. Bounds led all rushers with 24 carries for 146 yards. Fielder carried the ball 13 times for 112 yards.

Don Dean completed six of 13 passes for 91 yards and one touchdown. Frank Vavala led Fish receivers with four receptions for 52 yards.

The battle was purely offensive with both teams over 400 yards total offense. Baylor, in fact, led in total yards, 427 to 403.

Both teams lost a fumble but Baylor was stuck with two pass interceptions.

Robert Armstrong, highly touted schoolboy from Houston Sam Houston, did not fair as well as expected, hitting only two of eight passes with an interception.

After receiving the opening kickoff, the A&M Fish drove 72 yards in 13 plays for the first score. The drive was a steady ground attack with the longest play being a 14-yard run by John Bounds. Bounds was responsible for the score with a blast from the one. John Schluens kicked the extra point.

The Cubs ran but three plays before A&M got the ball back and covered 56 yards in 12 plays to the Baylor nine. Don Dean fumbled on the next play but recovered for a ten-yard loss. The Fish had to settle for a field goal by Schluens, making the score 10-0 with 3:01 left in the first quarter.

The first quarter ended with the Fish leading 10-0 and holding an edge in total yards 114-66.

Starting the second quarter, Baylor drove 61 yards in nine plays to the two-yard line where the Fish defensive unit held and Baylor had to settle for a field goal. Robert Wegdandt was the workhorse of the drive with runs of 37, 17, 27, 27 and 3 yards. The first run was a kickoff return.

A&M took the ensuing kickoff with Al Thurmond carrying the ball for 37 yards. The following play, Bounds carried for 42 yards from the Fish 43 to the Cub 15. Fielder carried for seven on the next play and three short bursts by Bounds gave the Fish their third score in three possessions. The extra point off the toe of Schluens was wide and the Fish led 16-3.

The Fish defense again let down as the Cubs drove from their own 23 to the A&M 13 before losing six yards and turning the ball over on downs.

Two series later, Bill Cazales, Fish linebacker, intercepted a Armstrong pass and carried it to the Cub 15. Three plays later, the Fish found themselves with a fourth and five situation at the 10-yd. line. Schluens was called in to attempt his second field-goal of the evening. The kick was good and the Fish led 19-3.

Three plays after Randy Haddox's kickoff, a Neal Jeffrey-to-Jerry Jameson pass went for 70 yards and a Baylor touchdown. The extra point by Ray Karl was good, leaving the score 19-10 at the half.

Jeffrey was the highlight of the first half for the Cubs, hitting four of four passes for 117 yards and one TD. For the Fish it was Bounds with 105 yards on 14 carries. Fielder, last week's leading ground gainer, landed runner-up spot with 74 yards on eight carries. The Cubs' leading ground gainer was Weygandt with 63 yards in eight carries.

It took 14:34 into the third quarter before any more points could be added to the scoreboard. A&M drove 37 yards in 13 plays after Jim Herdon jumped on a fumble by Jeffrey while fielding a Steve Canter punt. The extra point by Schluens was good as the score stood 26-10.

Six minutes later, Baylor drove 87 yards in 14 plays for a score. Jeffrey again led the Cubs with his expert passing. He hit 6 of 10 out of the 14 plays with his top receiver being Kitchen. Kitchen caught big gainers of 24, 16 and 10 yards (for the touchdown).

The Fish drove right back going 46 yards in five plays after Thurmond returned a Jeff Hass punt 51 yards. The big play in the drive was a 26-yard pass from Dean to Bounds. The kick was good and the score stood 33-16 with 6:19 left in the game.

Baylor came right back again, going 72 yards in eight plays, each of which was a pass from Jeffrey. Kitchen again was his favorite target with receptions of 11, 14 and 15 yards. Baylor went for a two-point conversion but failed as Kitchen stepped be-

Baylor tried an on-side kick which failed and A&M took over on its own 46. On the second play of the drive, Fielder fumbled and Baylor recovered.

Baylor could not score and turned the ball over on downs and the game ended, 33-22, in favor of A&M.

The Fish will be in action again Thursday night, October 28 in Houston against Rice.

First fall golf tournament held

A new attraction is being added to Southwest Conference golf. The first golf tournament ever held in the fall will take place in Arlington's Great Southwest Golf Club Thursday and Friday.

The tournament will be match play over 54 holes to determine team, four-ball and two-ball champions. Individual championship will be decided at the spring meet.

All eight currently active SWC teams are expected to be represented in the fall meet, which will mark the return to SWC play of the national championship Texas team headed by NCAA individual champion Ben Crenshaw. Texas withdrew from conference competition last season to play an independent schedule.

Texas Tech is the team champion, having edged Arkansas last spring in a tight race that also saw SMU, Texas A&M and TCU all in the running.

Defending individual champion Steve Veriato of Texas A&M is one of seven of last year's top finishers who return. Other top golfers are Tom Kite of Texas, Tommy Johnson of A&M and Jim Cisne of Arkansas.

A practice round is scheduled Wednesday, 36 holes Thursday and the final 18 Friday. Tee-off times will be 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. Thursday and 10 a.m. Friday.
