Original graphic art exhibition planned for Oct. 26

An exhibition of original graphic art by contemporary and old master artists will be held Oct. 26 in the College of Architecture and Environmental Design at A&M.

The exhibition will include more than 1,000 original etchings, lithographs and woodcuts by artists such as Picasso, Chagall, Miro, Goya, Renoir, Rouault and Kollwitz.

Arranged by Ferdinand Roten Galleries of Baltimore, Md., the exhibition will be displayed from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Architecture Building.

Works by contemporary U. S., European and Japanese print-makers also will be included in the exhibition and sale. A Roten Galleries representative will be available to answer questions about graphic art and printmaking.

Galloway will speak at conference

Prof. Bob M. Galloway, head of the highway materials research program of the Texas Transportation Institute at A&M, will speak on "Design and Construction of Bituminous Surface Treatments" at the annual bituminous paving conference today in Urbana, Ill.

The conference is sponsored by the Illinois Highway Department and the Civil Engineering Department of the University of Illinois.

Ladwig elected EE Council chairman

Roger Ladwig, electrical engineering senior from Houston, is chairman of the Electrical Engineering Student Council for the 1971-72 year.

Other members elected recently are seniors Gary Wilhelm of Storm Lake, Iowa, and Frank Wilem of Huntsville, juniors Bill Darkoek of Allentown, Pa., and Jerry Zemanek of Palacios, and sophomore Jeff Pollicoff of Bryan. A freshman representative will be named later in the year.

The EE Student Council was organized in 1969 to help channel communications between students and the administration. The council meets regularly with Dr. W. B. Jones, Electrical Engineering department head.

EES to conduct supervision course

Twenty department heads, supervisors and superintendents from Texas industries will attend a one-week course in general supervision next week conducted by the Engineering Extension Service's Supervisory Development Division.

Dr. W. B. Mansfield, chief instructor, said the course will cover techniques and problems in supervising company personnel. Classes will be held Monday through Friday at the Ramada Inn here.

Course instructors are J. O. Musick, E. J. Mitchan, T. J. Bole and A. A. Middleton Jr.

Michaels featured at Coffee House

Balladeer Lerry Michaels will be featured by the Basement Coffee House as a special attraction for the A&M-Baylor football weekend.

Located in the Memorial Student Center, the Basement will present Michaels in Friday and Saturday performances, announced Chairman Bob Lackey.

He said the Aggie coffee house will be open from 8 p.m. to midnight and admission will be 50 cents per person.

Michaels sings folk and pop tunes, some of his own compositions. He also has recorded and has been listed with the Texas Coffeehouse Circuit. Michaels has performed in Houston's Columns and Derrick Clubs and at the Playboy Club in Atlanta.

Aldredge to give physics colloquium

Dr. G. P. Aldredge of the University of Texas at Austin Physics Department will give the Texas A&M physics colloquium lecture at 4 p.m. Thursday in Physics Room 146.

Topic for the public program is "Electronic Energy Levels and Charge Distribution in Thin Films."

Pakistan students elect officers

M. Saeed Ismail, chemical engineering major, was elected president of the A&M chapter of the Pakistan Students Association.

Also elected were Mussarrat Hussein, vice president; Qamar Saeed Siddiqui, general secretary; Shahid Iqbal, joint secretary; and Mohammed Naseem, treasurer.

Blood to review Corps march-in

Air Force Maj. Gen. Gordon F. Blood, commander of the 12th Air Force headquartered at Bergstrom AFB, will review the Corps of Cadets in a Saturday march-in to the Aggie-Baylor football game.

Kickoff is at 1:30 p.m. for the Aggies' first home daytime game.

Cadet Col. of the Corps Thomas M. Stanley of Mt. Pleasant will lead the 2,500-man corps into Kyle Field at 12:20 p.m., announced Co. Thomas R. Parsons, commandant.

Pipeline project tested at A&M

A $20,000 model test project is being conducted at A&M to assist the $2 billion pipeline program in Alaska's oil industry.

The Department of Mechanical Engineering in the College of Engineering has received the contract from the Alyeska Pipeline Service Co. of Houston and Seattle. The project is entitled "A Study of the Effects of Differentiated Temperatures, Internal Pressure and Friction on the Aboveground Zig-Zag Pipeline." It is under supervision of Dr. P. D. Weiner, assisted by Dr. J. E. Martnez.

Skaggs-Albertson's awards scholarship

Skaggs-Albertson's has presented a $1,000 scholarship to a 1970 graduate of A&M Consolidated High School, Robert Logan.

Logan, who attends Blinn Junior College night classes at Allen Academy, won the scholarship in a drawing. The chain awarded 17 such scholarships.

Hemmerle to present seminar Monday

Prof. W. J. Hemmerle of A&M's Institute of Statistics will present a seminar Monday on "Maximum Likelihood Estimation in Factor Analysis."

The 4 p.m. program in Plant Sciences Room 103 is open to the public.

Economic Society to organize

The Economics Society will hold an organizational meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Nagle. This undergraduate club plans to have guest speakers and social gatherings at future meetings.

Membership is not limited to economics majors.

Article by Costa reprinted in book

An article by Dr. Richard H. Costa of A&M's English Department will be printed in a new textbook.

Costa's "College Classrooms: The Mute Rebellion," first appeared in the April, 1970, "College English." It was selected by Prof. Gary Tate of Texas Christian University for his forthcoming text, "Freshman English."

An associate professor of English, Costa joined the A&M faculty last year. He received the Ph.D. at Purdue in 1969.

Landscape school held through Friday

Approximately 60 garden club members from five states are expected for a three-day landscape design school today through Friday at A&M.

A&M Landscape Architect Robert H. Rucker said the course is designed to train community leaders in the appreciation of good landscape design and to help them create a pleasant community environment.

The program is sponsored by Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., as part of a national continuing education program by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., of St. Louis, Mo.
