THE A&M RUGBY CLUB concluded its 1971 season last weekend by winning the Lone Star Invitational Rugby Tournament in Houston. Here, Steve Harmon is about to be hit by two Houston players. The Aggies went on to win 3-0. (Photo by Mike Huslage)

Aggies win championship at Houston rugby tourney

Battered, bruised and dead on their feet, the A&M Rugby Club defeated the fresher Galveston rugby team to win the championship trophy at the Lone Star Invitational Rugby Tournament in Houston Sunday.

A&M, this year's Texas Rugby Union champions, had the toughest draw of the tourney. Their first opponent was the Austin Gold Rugby team, reputed to be the one capable of beating the Aggies.

The Aggies had their hands full, in a battle that was tied with three minutes left to play. At that time, winger Randy Harju got the ball 15 yards from his own goal line. He blistered by his nearest opponent and went 85 yards, beating the Austin full-back with a fancy move to touch down between the Austin posts. John Gunn's conversion gave the Aggies a 6-0 win.

Two hours later, A&M met the Houston Rugby Club, winner of the previous two Lone Star Tournaments, and in a tough, unrelenting battle managed to scrape by on a 30 yard penalty goal by Gunn.

Rice came up in the following round 90 minutes later, and the tiring Aggies roes to the occasion, defeating them 19-0. This put A&M in Sunday's championship game with Galveston.

The Aggies played three games with two twenty minute halves per game to get into the finals. Galveston only had to play two games to qualify for the championship of two forty minute halves. A&M was able to overcome a strong rally by Galveston for a 10-6 win and the championship trophy.

The Houston meet ends scheduled activity for the Rugby Club this year. Undefeated in 20 games, they scored 411 points against their opponents' 91. Next spring the regular schedule includes a team from Argentina planning to tour in Texas.

The Aggies have all their players returning in 1972, and they hope to field two or three first teams. They are looking for new and capable members, and anyone interested should come to practice afternoons on the drill field.

Nebraska and OU still top grid poll

NEW YORK (AP) — Nebraska and Oklahoma maintained a firm grip on the Nos. 1 and 2 spots in The Associated Press college football poll Monday, giving "Game of the Year" status to their battle on Thanksgiving Day.

Alabama surged into third place ahead of Michigan, which barely beat Ohio State 10-7, adding significantly to the game Saturday in Birmingham, Ala., between the Crimson Tide and Auburn, ranked No. 5.

In the other notable change in the week's rankings, Louisiana State crashed into the Top Ten—in the No. 10 position—on the strength of its impressive 28-8 triumph over Notre Dame.
