Nebraska, Alabama will battle for national title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only the University of Hawaii stands between another match-up of college football's 1-2 teams, provided, as Coach Bob Devaney of Nebraska puts it, "We can somehow manage to win that one."

The defending national champion Cornhuskers travel to Hawaii for their regular season windup Saturday night and a victory—they're prohibitive favorites—would send them into the Orange Bowl on New Year's Night with a 12-0 record to face runner-up Alabama, 11-0.

Because Nebraska and three other members of this week's top 20 play their final games this Saturday another regular season poll will be conducted next week. It will be the final balloting for the regular season.

The final poll will be taken after the post-season bowl games.

The Sooners dropped to third while Alabama moved up to second following an impressive 31-7 clouting of previously unbeaten Auburn.

Michigan, 11-0 and heading for the Rose Bowl, remained fourth, while Penn State climbed from sixth to fifth. The Nittany Lions, idle last weekend, wind up their regular campaign Saturday against Tennessee and then face Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

Auburn skidded from fifth to sixth, followed by Georgia, Colorado, Arizona State and Louisiana State, the same as last week. Over the holiday weekend, Georgia defeated Georgia Tech 28-24, Arizona State whipped Arizona 31-0 and LSU trounced Tulane 36-7.

In the Second Ten, Texas and Tennessee were 11-12, reversing last week's positions, and Toledo and Notre Dame did the same for the 13-14 spots. Houston remained No. 15.

The Top twenty teams, with season records:

1.	Nebraska	11-0
2.	Alabama	11-0
