Annual outdoors exposition opens Saturday in Houston's Astrohall

Under cover of what might be termed the "holiday fog," the huge armada of the Houston International Boat, Sport, and Travel Show has sort of slipped up on its public this year.

It doesn't seem "time" for the boat show, but the first yachts are already moving into Astrohall, the very first one a Grand Banks cruiser of classic Nova Scotia lines.

The nine-day outdoors exposition opens Jan. 8, bigger and better than ever before if space sales, exhibits, and entertainment items are an indication.

Due to work completed on the interior of Astrohall, the show will have a full 15 acres of air-conditioned exhibit space, and as usual it will be filled to capacity with boats and outdoor equipment from around the world.

But no two Houston shows are ever the same, due to the constantly changing and redesigning of boats, tackle, offtrail vehicles, etc. and also because the sponsoring Boating Trade Assn. of Metropolitan Houston each year seems to come up with another new idea or so to make the show informative and entertaining as well as merely the world's largest equipment exhibit.

This year the "new idea" is a dual purpose one designed to give weary show trodders a comfortable place to rest and relax between forays across the 15 acres of Astrohall. And while they're resting, they'll be treated to boating, fishing and adventure films from around the world at the boat show's new "Adventure Film Theatre."

Beautiful hostesses at the film theatre and "hospitality area" will be contestants in the annual Miss Mermaid Beauty Pageant, a contest which this year has national significance in that the winner of the boat show pageant will automatically be qualified to compete for the "Miss Texas Universe" title, one of the official preliminaries of the U.S.A. contest.

One of the show's most popular attractions last year, the Hunting and Fishing Information Center, will also be bigger and better this year taking in most of the North Lobby of Astrohall.

This is the area in which expert fishermen, guides, shippers, etc. offer personal advice and information on everything from where to camp and launch a boat to how to catch a bass. Most of the coast's most famous fishing guides appear at least one night at one of the various exhibits which include those of the major lakes (Sam Rayburn, Toledo Bend, Livingston, Somerville, Canyon, etc.) as well as the major saltwater fishing and resort areas from Galveston to Port Mansfield.

The heart of the boat s... of course, is boats . . . hun... of them from seagoing sa... to flybridge fishing cruisers ... cartop canoes. The Hou... Show has become internati... famous for its blending of ... Coast-West Coast and "M... Texas" boating designs, ... dealers and boating experts ... around the world come to H... ton every year to peruse ... newest designs all under ... roof.
