on jumpers by Knowles and Threadgill. The Aggies led at the half, 37-29.

A drive by Brown four minutes into the second half pushed the score to 42-31, but George Washington began cutting the margin and finally tied it up with 5:38 remaining on a jump shot by Mike Tallent.

Overhouse countered with three consecutive layups to put the Aggies out in front to stay. Brown hit both ends of a oneand-one with 11 seconds left to push the score to 70-62, the largest lead for A&M since being

The scoring:

A&M - Jeff Overhouse, 18; Bobby Threadgill, 13; Wayne Howard, 11; Mario Brown, 9; Bob Gobin, 9; Randy Knowles, 8; and Rick Duplantis, 4.

George Washington - Mike Battle, 14; Mike Tallent, 13; Robbie Spagnolo, 10; Lenny Baltimore, 8; Tom Rosepnik, 7; Ronnie Nunn, 6; John Conrad, 4; and Randy Smith, 2.

Virginia Tech was a big challenge for the Aggies, since the Gobblers had lost to No. 4 ranked South Carolina by only one point in Columbia. A&M led by one point twice in the first half, but a jump shot by Bill McNeer with 6:02 to play in the opening period made it 24-17 to give Virginia Tech its biggest lead of the half.

The Gobblers stretched their six-point halftime advantage to 13 five times in the second half, the last one being 48-35 with 11:43 to go. Then, Overhouse connected on a layup, Brown made a free throw and Howard followed with a pair of charity shots and a tip-in to lower the edge to six, 48-42, with 9:27 showing.

Overhouse made both ends of a one-and-one and Howard scored on a jumper at 4:26 to make it 54-50. Overhouse cashed in on two more free throws and Howard followed with a jumper to tie it at 54 with 3:07 to play. Neither team could muster a point in the remaining time, forcing the battle into overtime.

The Aggies never trailed in the extra five minutes, with the biggest bulge being a 63-56 total four minutes into the overtime period.

The scoring: A&M — Jeff Overhouse, 17; Wayne Howard, 15; Bob Gobin, 12; Mario Brown, 8; Bobby Threadgill, 5; Randy Knowles, 5; and Rick Duplantis, 4.

Virginia Tech - Allan Bristow, 19; Randy Minix, 14; Craig Lieder, 13; Bill McNeer, 10; Tom Trice, 3; Darwin Pippin, 2; and Charlie Lipscomb, 1.

The Fish (2-1) will also be in action all three nights after a long layoff. They play Blinn Junior College Thursday, San Antonio College Saturday and Hill Junior College Monday. Starters for the Fish will be 5-11 Mike Floyd, 6-3 Dale Donaldson, 6-7 Webb Williams, 6-8 Jerry Mercer and 6-8 Cedric Joseph.
