

Aggie cagers hope to extend win streaks tomorrow

By JOHN CURYLO
Battalion Sports Editor

The Aggie basketball team of Shelby Metcalf will be trying to keep two win streaks alive Saturday when they go to Fayetteville for a televised game with the Arkansas Razorbacks.

A&M currently owns a five-game win streak and a 1-0 conference slate in its 8-5 season record. In addition to these marks, the Aggies have beaten the Razorback cagers the last seven times out. The last Arkansas victory was a 75-70 win at Fayetteville in 1968.

The game, which begins at 2 p.m., matches one team that has a 3-10 record against the Aggies, who were picked to finish last in the conference. These facts are deceiving, though, because Arkansas has impressive talent, and the Aggies have been playing better than predicted.

Although the Razorbacks are 3-10, the difference is their point production and that of their opponents is only 1.7 per game. They lost their first conference game last week in Ft. Worth to defending champion Texas Christian, 95-77.

Metcalf's same five will start the contest. This includes 6-2 guard Mario Brown (12.1 points per game), 6-4 guard Bobby Threadgill (7.1), 6-4 forward Wayne Howard (12.8), 6-7 forward Jeff Overhouse (17.5) and center Rick Duplantis (6.5). Top reserves are 6-3 guard Bob Gobin (5.0) and 6-6 forward Randy Knowles (10.5). Top rebounders are Overhouse, 10.8, Knowles, 7.9, and Howard, 6.2.

Razorback Coach Lanny Van Eman will probably start 6-4 Martin Terry (22.3), 6-6 Vernon Murphy (12.0), 6-8 Gary Rymer (15.1), 6-8 Dean Tolson (10.6) and 6-9 Larry Box (3.9). 6-2 Joel Heider (3.0), 6-7 Dennis White (8.6) and 6-7 Doug Campbell (4.9) will also see action.

"Arkansas has good talent," Metcalf said in sizing up the Razorbacks. "They just haven't put it together. Let's hope they wait one more game before they do."

"A win in Fayetteville will help us," he continued. "It would boost our attendance and make our players more confident. I like the idea of playing on television."

Defense has been the Aggies' strong suit. They have hit only 40.9% from the field, but the opposition has scored over 75 points only five times in 13 games. Since the Lobo Invitational, A&M has allowed over 70 points in just one of the six games, that being a 79-71 win over Southern Methodist in the conference opener last Saturday.

The Aggies have the rebounding edge, 54.1-47.4, having set a school record in the Trinity game with 74. Despite their size, the Razorbacks have not dominated the boards this season. They have 47.3 caroms per game to the opposition's 49.3.

"I'm pleased with our performance defensively and in rebounding," Metcalf said. "The team is giving us what they have, although they could improve. I wish they'd almost get cocky."

"We really came around about the time of the Astro-Bluebonnet Classic," he added. "We had our best practices between then and the Presidential Classic. I look at practices as an indicator of how a team will play. We had a real good workout yesterday (Wednesday)."

Arkansas travels to SMU next

Tuesday and to Texas Saturday. The Aggies have a two-game home stand next week with 8 p.m. games against TCU Tuesday and Baylor Saturday.

The Fish, 4-2, host preliminary games both nights. They meet the TCU Wogs Tuesday and the Baylor Cubs Saturday. Tipoff time is 5:45 p.m.

In other Southwest Conference action Saturday, Texas is at Baylor, Texas Tech at Rice and TCU visits SMU. All games begin 8 p.m.

TINKER TOY CHURCH

And it has a silver bell on the steeple and a cross on top. No one suggested to Bobby that he use his birthday toy this way. He did it himself.

He could have made a ferris wheel, or a barn, or a wagon. But, as it happens, he made a church. Maybe it is because, since he was a tot, the Church has been so important in his life.

To Bobby the Church represents a warmth and love that made him want to "build one of his own."

Does your child feel that way?

Allen's trades give 'Skins fewest choices in pro draft

NEW YORK (AP)—George Allen, who wheeled and dealt his Washington Redskins into championship contention this season, also traded them into last place in the National Football League draft.

Allen revamped the 'Skins by exchanging a raft of draft choices for proven talent that paid off with a 9-4-1 record, their best since 1945, and a shot at the Super Bowl before Washington succumbed to San Francisco in the playoffs' first round.

But his philosophy—"the future is now"—has also left them with only 10 selections in the 17-round draft or college seniors which begins Feb. 1, the NFL said Wednesday.

On the other end of the scale is New Orleans. The Saints, with six extra picks accumulated in trades — including the one that sent quarterback Billy Kilmer to the 'Skins — have 23 choices, tops among the 26 teams.

Eight other teams also have extra picks — Oakland with 21, Pittsburgh and St. Louis with 20 apiece, Baltimore with 19 and San Diego, San Francisco, Dallas and Cleveland with 18 each.

Buffalo, whose dismal 1-13 record, worst in the league, gave it the dubious honor of selecting first, has 17 choices, as do Chicago, Philadelphia and Miami.

Lee Trevino expresses his happiness at winning AP Athlete of the Year award

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—"Oh, man! So many good things have been happening to me that I just can't believe it!"

Lee Trevino, the merry Mexican from a poverty background, who added a dash of fresh color and a new dimension to pro golf, was talking about his selection as The Associated Press Athlete of the Year for 1971.

The 32-year-old Trevino, who made that lightning, unprecedented sweep of the American, Canadian and British Open titles, was named Wednesday in a nationwide poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

He amassed 118 votes to win by a wide margin over baseball's Joe Torre of the St. Louis Cardinals and Roberto Clemente of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, who got 31 votes apiece, and Kareem Abdul Jabbar of basketball's champion Milwaukee Bucks, who was fourth with 24.

"You've got to be thrilled any time something like this happens to you, particularly when it comes from an outfit like this, where so many people all over the country are voting for you," Trevino said before today's first round in the $150,000 Dean Martin-Tucson Open, in which he is a heavy favorite.

"I called my wife and told her, 'Honey, so many things are happening to me I just don't believe it.'"

Baylor's Teaff after proven talent

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Baylor's new head Coach Grant Teaff is going after junior college graduates hot and heavy in an attempt to beef up next year's varsity football squad.

Teaff said Thursday that defensive safety Don Drake of Ranger Junior College and wide receiver Charles Dancer of Navarro Junior College have enrolled at Baylor.

Drake, of Idalou, was a Junior college All American. Dancer, a Mexia native, was an all-Texas Conference split receiver with 4.4 speed in the 40 yard dash.

Both will participate in spring training.
