Letter putting down editor - and reply

Editor:
I am writing this letter to The Battalion in reference to the attitude of the Editor throughout (sic) this year. I'm a CT and proud of it.

I'm not going to refer to any issue in general in this letter, but to your "projected" attitude throughout (sic) the year. You have done nothing but excite (sic) dissent (sic) among Non-Reg's - CT's throughout (sic) the year. As a newspaper man and a representative of the entire school (which includes both CT's and Non-Reg's) it is your duty to present facts and articles of interest to the school. However, throughout the year you have done nothing but project your "petty" views of your dislike for the Corps of Cadets.

Some of us (Aggies) would like to end this conflict between the two fractions (sic) and start living together as Aggies. Why don't you help? I'm not interested in your "petty" views concerning CT's, as I'm sure that you are not interested in mine concerning Non-Reg's. If you want to be a trouble maker, go somewhere else.

Robert Hedrick
Class of '73

Things you need to do:

- 1) Prove your point with specific, not your idea of "projected" attitudes or generalizations.
- 2) Remember that you don't have to "dislike" something to criticize it.
- 3) Take remedial spelling.

Wait! Wait! Wait! Here is THE WORD on the Wigginton-

MSC filing open until Feb. 22

Filing closes Feb. 22 for several Memorial Student Center Committee Chairman positions.

Applications are still being accepted for the following chairman positions: Aggie Cinema, Black Awareness, Camera, Community Development Center, Contemporary Arts, Host & Fashion, New Tradition Singers, Radio, Recreation, Chess, SCONA and Travel.

Interested students should go by the Student Programs Office in the MSC and ask for an application. These should be turned in by 5 p.m. Tuesday. Interviews will be conducted on February 23 and 24.

All students are reminded that membership is open to any MSC committee and should come by the Student Programs Office to join or obtain information.

Anyone who has an idea for a new activity and is willing to work at it should also come by the Programs Office. John Dacus or Sam Walsler will be interested in discussing any ideas.

uniform-pride-etc. caper. Coming from a school that has absolutely no pride (I know because I attended Texas 1963-1967 and they have not had a single person attend a football game since 1959, when the rumor swept the campus that Teresa Brewer would sing the National Anthem topless), Mr. Wigginton most certainly meant to ridicule the institution that had just hired him, in order to gain tenure.

However, Mr. Calvert "72" was right on the beam when he wrote about paying the price (Batt Feb. 15). I paid my price... four years active duty in the Navy. Now, whenever I see boys and girls (oldline Ags see Webster's under female n.) wearing bell-bottom dungarees, watch caps, chambray shirts, and God forbid, pea coats, I want to scream (C sharp, I think). I also want to run out and keelhaul their rudder, or spike them with my marlin, or kick them in their coxswain. You non-sailors better watch your step, boy.

tune took its toll - two helpless females encountered themselves with a flat tire. Not being able to live up to the expectations of the Women's Liberation Movement, we found ourselves stranded on the side of the road. Before experiencing sheer panic, a passing driver stopped to offer aid. Not only did he have to change a flat tire, but then had to take care of a weak battery. This good Samaritan was obviously an Aggie on his way to visit our beloved campus, Sam Houston State.

The purpose of this letter is to thank not only this Aggie, but all other Aggies who have given of their time and patience to the stranded and helpless. We have high regard and respect for such A&M gentlemen. It is these common courtesies which foster friendly attitudes between our campuses.

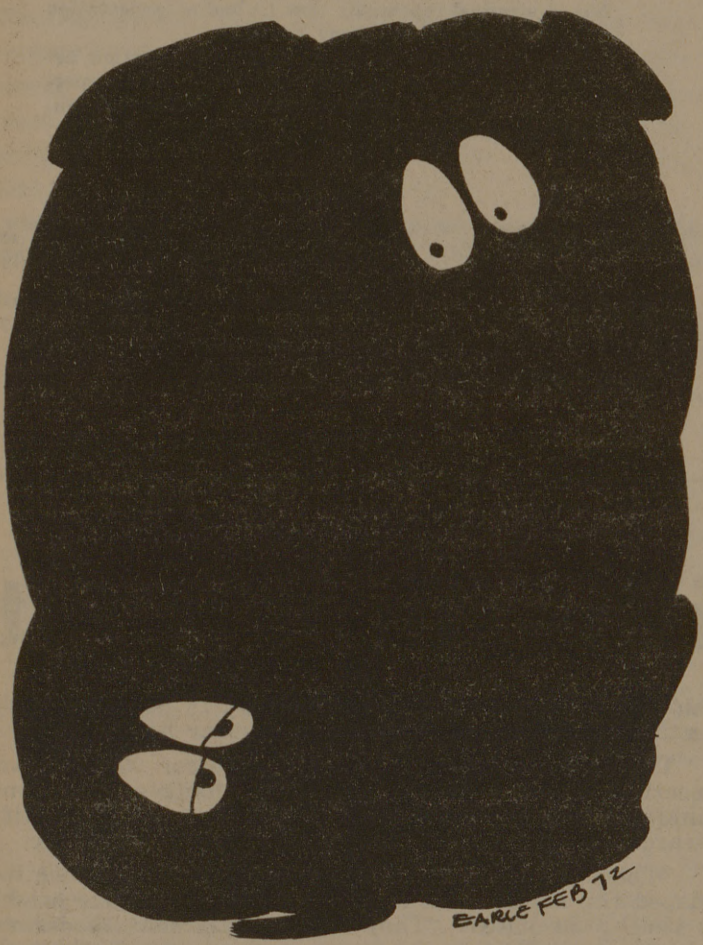

One Reminder: Aggies are welcome at Sam Houston anytime.

In view of the recent successes of the A&M Rugby Club, I think the rugby players should get to use Kyle Field while everyone else, including the football team, uses the drill field. I hope that they would dig up all that fake plastic grass though, and play in the real grass and occasional mud as they did against Argentina. It looks like it's much more fun that way.

Tora! Tora! Tora! great

By D. P. FONTANA
This weekend there will be hold-overs of both of the movies reviewed last week. Dirty Harry will play downtown at the Palace. So, if you missed Clint Eastwood, San Francisco, or Lolita's act last week, you now have another chance.

The historical accuracy of the film is superb, and the historical "fairness" in handling the events is exceptional. As you are probably aware, many veteran organizations across the country resented the "fairness" which was employed (as well as the fact that a Japanese film company was splitting the profits from a movie dealing with Pearl Harbor with an American company. Peace makes strange bedfellows.) At any rate, the movie is well worth the $2 you'll have to pay for its ticket, and this film deserves a Film G.P.R. = 3.2.

Those of you who missed last weekend's fare at the Palace, J. W. Coop, will find that it is also still in town. It and A Man Called Sledge will play at the Skyway Twin. On the other screen at the Twin, you will be able to see two really horrible horror movies.

However, don't despair. The next feature at the Campus will be The Devils which is a very fine motion picture starring Vanessa Redgrave and Oliver Reed. This will definitely be a movie that you won't want to miss. Nor will you want to miss Ryan's Daughter, the next film at the Palace. This is another David Lean (Bridge on the River Kwai, Lawrence of Arabia, Doctor Zhivago) production and boasts a star-filled cast.

If you can't wait for a new movie to arrive and have seen Tora! Tora! Tora!, you might try Houston (so far, no Frolic has been scheduled for this weekend). And, if you are in Houston, try to get tickets to Clockwork Orange. This is Stanley Kubrick's (2001) new film and has already won Film Critic's Award for both Best Picture and Best Producer for this year. However, be forewarned, this may be the most violence-filled film ever produced.

MSC Council has selected new officers

The present Memorial Student Center Council has selected eight officers for next year's council. Wade Seidel of Brenham was named Executive Vice-President of Projects and Pat Lucey of Bryan became Executive Vice-President of Committees.

Vice-Presidents for Operations, Issues, Programs, and Recreation are Don Webb of Arlington, Rochelle Lindsey of Pasadena, Mark Cuculich of Center, and Steve Waring of Houston, respectively.

Also named to the Council were Gary Reger of Wellborn as Public Relations Directors and Carol Flournoy of Breckenridge as Council Comptroller.

The new officers will be responsible for working with council and directorate activities. They will begin serving on the new council March 22.

Editor:

We would like to say something else concerning the relationship between Sam Houston State and Texas A&M. We have read the past letters written by a Sam Houston female student, but we too have a story to tell.

After visiting the great university last weekend, our return trip to Sam Houston on Sunday night was quite eventful. Before reaching Roans Prairie, misfor-
