

Improving tracksters entered in Arlington meet

The Arlington Relays will be this week's mountain to conquer for the highly improved Texas Aggie track squad.

A&M moves into Arlington for Saturday's event fresh off an upset victory of LSU and Rice in Houston last weekend.

Seven teams are scheduled to compete in the University division including Southern Methodist, UT-Arlington, Texas Christian, West Texas State, Texas Tech and Oklahoma State.

Preliminaries are scheduled to begin at 9:30 p.m. with finals set for 1:30. In the meet, each school is allowed three entrants per event, which has put pressure on teams highly competitive in only a few events.

Coach Charles Thomas said that two of the Aggies are doubtful because of sore legs. Marvin Mills is entered in the 220-yard dash, but Thomas said he'd have to wait until Saturday to decide whether the sprinter would be ready.

Entered for the Aggies are: 440-yard relay — Billy Porter, Doug Brodhead, Steve Barre, and Donny Rogers.

One-mile run — Pat Bradley. 120-yard high hurdles — Scotty Jones, Edgar Harvey, Donny Rogers.

440-yard dash—Doug Brodhead, Robert Brew, Wayne Mills.

100-yard dash — Billy Porter, Steve Barre, Gary Oradat. 880-yard run—Willie Blackmon, Horace Grant, Dennis O'Brien.

440-yard hurdles—David Prince. 220-yard dash — Marvin Mills, Donny Rogers, Alan Swagerty.

Three-mile run—Frank Ybarbo, Jim Haynie, Danny Jones. One-mile relay—Horace Grant, Wayne Mills or Robert Brew, Willie Blackmon, Doug Brodhead.

Pole vault — Harold McMahan, David Peterek, Billy Hoffman. Long jump—James Johnson.

High jump — Phil McGuire, Marvin Taylor, Johnny Mayo.

Discus—Tim Brown. Javelin — Chris Johnson, Paul Sanders.

Strike decision to be made by pro baseball players

MIAMI (AP) — Major League baseball players will decide whether to strike within the next two weeks, and Baltimore Orioles superstar Brooks Robinson says, "We'll do what we have to do."

The dazzling third baseman said, however, that clubhouse polls among the 24 major league teams should not "be termed a "strike vote."

"Our team voted, like most others, to empower our player representative to do whatever is necessary before the March 31 deadline," Robinson said, "whether it be a settlement, to extend negotiations or to strike."

The issue keeping the two sides apart is pension benefit increases.

Robinson is the Baltimore player representative.

Frank Cashen, general manager of the American League champions, said a players' strike might possibly shut down major league baseball—or at least cripple it—for the year.

August A. Busch Jr., owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, was quoted recently as saying he didn't care whether the players walked out or not.

About half the teams had reported player votes. The Boston Red Sox became the latest Thursday. All have given their player reps the muscle to speak for them at the bargaining table.

Cashen retained his optimism saying, "I don't think we're that far apart. A strike would be a drastic move and I doubt seriously if it'll come about."

Tennis reserves win again, defeat Texas Wesleyan, 5-1

Again using reserves, Coach Omar Smith's tennis swept past Texas Wesleyan here Thursday afternoon, 5-1, for its fifth straight dual tennis victory.

Last Thursday, against Texas A&I, Smith also used his reserves to give his top players a breather before heading into a three-game road trip. His decision proved favorable as the Aggies took all three teams by a 23-4 margin.

This weekend, the team travels to Norman, Okla., to take on Oklahoma University hoping to avenge an earlier defeat.

"The rest should help us again this week," Smith said. "The boys were pretty tired after last weekend, and I felt another break would do them some good. I also like to give our other players a chance to play."

A&M's season record now stands at 10-5.

The results of the singles matches were: Bill Wright of A&M over Mike Dunn, 6-2, 6-0; Mark Russell of Texas Wesleyan over Jeff Carter, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4;

Lawton Park of A&M over Roland Drechsel, 6-1, 6-2; and Jere Mill of A&M over Pat Malone, 6-1, 6-3.

In doubles action, Wright and Billy Hoover defeated Dunn and Russell, 6-1, 6-3; and Mitch Barker and Carl Jaedicke of A&M defeated Drechsel and Malone, 6-1, 6-4.

Smith said he would take a six-player squad to Oklahoma. The group includes Dick Fikes, Hoover, Wright, Dan Courson, Tommy Connell and Mike Mills.

The Texas Christian Horned Frogs come to town today for a three-game series with the Aggies, beginning with a doubleheader at 1:00 and finishing with a 2:00 contest Saturday at Kyle Field.

A&M has a five-game win streak and an 8-4 mark for the year, while TCU is 12-4 for pre-conference play.

Coach Tom Chandler will start Charlie Kelley in the opener of the doubleheader, which will go seven innings. Kelley, a right hander, is 2-2 for the year, with an earned run average of 2.11.

Bruce Katt, fresh from his no-hit performance Monday against St. Mary's, will start the nine-inning second game. Katt is 2-1, and his earned run average is 0.82. Both Katt and Kelley are seniors.

Saturday's starter will be Jackie Binks, a sophomore southpaw. Binks has posted a 1-1 record this season, and his earned run average is 1.89. The team earned run average is 2.09, and eight pitchers on the squad are below 3.00.

Hitting hurt the Aggies in the early going, but the bats began to make themselves heard in the second game with Lamar, when A&M opened up for 15 hits. The Aggies are batting .262 as a team, while the opponents are averaging .177.

Centerfielder R. J. Englert leads the squad with a .425 norm. Shortstop Carroll Lilly is at .314, and second baseman Jimmy Langford is hitting .303. Other starters and their averages are first baseman Butch Ghutzman (.152), third baseman-right fielder Jim Hacker (.286), third baseman Sandy Bate (.267), left fielder Jim Atterbury (.200), right fielder Karl Bystrom (.444 in nine times at bat), and catchers Neil McKittrick (.158) and Mike Frazier (hitless in eight times at bat).

TCU Coach Frank Windegger has a fine staff of young pitchers, including right handers Frank Johnstone and Tom Ladasau and left handers Jess Cole and Johnny Grace. The Frogs have given up only 17 runs in 114 innings, with seven of the tallies being unearned. TCU hurlers have limited the opposition to a .147 batting average in their 16 games.

A tough defensive club, the Frogs have a fielding average of .964. One of the bright additions to the team has been shortstop Tommy Butler, a transfer from Hill County Junior College. Top Frog hitters are left fielder Mike Turner, who is hitting .417, and center fielder Jimmy Torres, batting .400.

The Aggies host Minnesota in doubleheaders Monday and Tuesday, starting at 1:00 both days. A&M continues Southwest Conference action next Friday and Saturday by travelling to Dallas for a three-game series with the Southern Methodist Mustangs. The next home appearance of A&M after the Minnesota game will be April 7-8, when the Bears visit Kyle Field for a game league series. The Aggies will be in San Antonio March 31 for doubleheaders with Force and St. Mary's.

The Church..For a Fuller Life..For You..

SHEPHERD

Whoever he is, wherever he is — I respect this man. Naturally I respect anyone whose presence can bring calmness and peace where there could have been confusion and turmoil.

As for me, I'm just a writer. With others I've been writing on behalf of the Church — with conviction and enthusiasm — for many a year. Rarely until now have I written in the first person.

But this picture challenges one to identify himself. On this rocky hillside teeming with restless life only one is master, guide, guardian of all.

I share with you the common realization: I am not that one. We share too the simple faith that knows: The Lord is my Shepherd.
