Services held for one time vice chancellor

Funeral services for E. L. Angell, former vice chancellor of A&M College System were held today in Denton's First Presbyterian Church.

Angell, 70, died in Denton Monday evening.

Angell joined the A&M staff in 1936 as manager of student activities. He became assistant to the president in 1941, assistant to the system chancellor in 1948 and was later named vice chancellor.
