NOTICE AGGIES

Do we need a new sheriff in this county? One who will enforce the law without being rude. One who will not let the big shots go while arresting others for the same acts. One whose doors will always be open to all who need to talk to the sheriff. Who will treat everyone with respect. One who will not permit actions that tend to humiliate those who are under arrest or investigation. One who will restore respect to the sheriff's office. If the answer is yes, then I need your help, to get more people to sign up to vote in Brazos County before April 5th. Write me or come by to see me at Shell Service Station 23rd and Texas in Bryan.

Aggies win pair; defeat Minnesota

By JOHN CURYLO
Battalion Sports Editor

After rain had cancelled a doubleheader with Minnesota the day before, sunny skies prevailed Tuesday as the Aggies came through with a twinbill victory here, 4-3 and 8-0, in the season opener for the Big Ten team. A&M is now 11-6 for the year.

The Aggies scored once in the second and twice in the third inning, with Minnesota countering for a tally in the second and two in the fourth. R. J. Englert bunted his way on base in the fifth inning, advanced on a hit-and-run single by Jim Langford, and scored on an error.

Steve Janda was the winner, going three innings and allowing two hits and one walk while striking out four in his second win against two losses. Charlie Jenkins was the starter, hurling four innings and giving up five hits and three walks and fanning three.

The Aggies exploded for two runs in the third inning and three in each of the next two frames of the second game to dominate the battle, 8-0. Bobby Wittkamp threw six innings of five-hit ball, walking none and striking out three. Ben Sims pitched the seventh inning, walking one and allowing no hits.

Top hitters for the Aggies in the doubleheader were Ghutzman, three for six, Englert, three for seven, and Langford and Jim Hacker, two for six. Minnesota helped the cause with two errors in the first game and four in the second.

A&M continues Southwest Conference play this weekend in Dallas when they try to improve on their 1-2 record in a Friday doubleheader and a single game Saturday.

In a game played Tuesday at Travis Park in Bryan, reserves from the Minnesota squad beat substitutes for the A&M team, 5-3.

Oklahoma City University here for tennis tournament today

Oklahoma City University's eleventh ranked tennis team will visit A&M's Varsity Courts for a 1:30 match against the Aggies today.

OKC already holds a 7-0 victory over A&M from the Corpus Christi Invitational tourney.

"Most of their players are from Australia and they are real competitors," coach Omar Smith said.

Aggies entered intoday's competition are Dick Fikes, Bill Wright, Billy Hoover, Dan Courson, Tommy Connell and Mike Mills.

Thursday A&M will travel to Houston for the Rice Invitational tourney. Ten of the 19 top teams in the nation are entered in tennis extravaganza.

Trinity, fresh from a 6-3 decision over University of Southern California for the national title is odds-on favorites for the team crown.
