In September, 1970 I graduated from McMahon College and immediately accepted a position as a Court Reporter. Last year I made $12,000. New Aggie boss pleased with initial spring workout

Coach Emory Bellard and his staff put the Texas Aggies through a spirited two-hour practice session Tuesday in the first day of spring football training and the designer of the Wishbone-T formation expressed pleasure with what he saw.

"I thought the players showed a lot of enthusiasm and they were very willing, but we have a lot to learn," Bellard said. "I saw some bright spots out there, and I thought they were in pretty good physical condition."

The emphasis was on fundamentals in the first session, but there was some live contact work near the end.

A few position changes were evident. Brad Dusek, a safety last year, was running at first team fullback. Buster Callaway, left offensive tackle a year ago, was at right offensive guard and Mike Park, a center-guard last season, was at left offensive tackle.

The Aggies will work every day this week and likely will stage a scrimmage Saturday.
