Injured Aggs entered in CS Relays

By BILL HENRY
 Assistant Sports Editor

An injury riddled A&M track team takes to the Tartan track of Kyle Field Saturday to compete in the fourth annual College Station Relays against Baylor, TCU and Rice.

A&M has Billy Porter (100, 220 and sprint relay), Horace Grant (880 and mile relay), Wayne Mills (440 and mile relay) and Scotty Jones all on the doubtful list for the meet because of sore legs.

Rice, who is favored in the meet, will not use star hurdler Mike Cronholm, out with a cracked small bone in his foot and freshman sprinter Zoe Simpson, hampered by a leg injury.

"Porter may run in the 100-yard dash," stated coach Charley Thomas, "if his legs feel as well as they did on Wednesday."

Allan Swaggerty will replace Porter in the sprint relay and Marvin Mills may try to run the 440-yard dash for the first time this season.

The high jump pit will be the site of this year's top competition with Gary Kafer, Baylor, who cleared 7 feet; A&M's Phil McGuire, 6-10; Glen Ray, Rice, 6-9 3/4; and A&M's Marvin Taylor with a 6-9 but has not reached full capacity yet.

The long jump had been expected to be a great three-man battle with Rice's Darryl Hughes, 25-7 1/2; Baylor's Danny Brabham, 24-7 1/2; and TCU's Carl Mills, 25-8 1/2 will now be between Hughes and Brabham as Mills is injured and won't compete.

The Aggies have the best times in both relays with 41.0 in the 440 and 3:12.6 in the mile. But, with Porter and Grant out, Coach Charley Thomas will be forced to substitute Swaggerty for Porter in the 440 and Brew for Grant and Swaggerty for Wayne Mills in the mile.

"Rice should win because of their tremendous field event personnel," Thomas said. "Baylor could hurt them though with their high jumper and long jumper. Neither Hughes or Brabham have been defeated this year."

TCU is expected to give A&M a battle in the running events with sprinters such as Freddie Pouncy, Bill Collins, Ron Shaw and Gary Peacock. Pouncy has a 9.4 in the 100 and a 21.2 in the 220. These four sprinters will also make up the sprint relay team that had a 40.9 clocking last without Pouncy.

Twenty-five high school teams are also entered in the meet which include such stellar performers as Sealy's Sammy Dierschke, Houston Elmore's Charles Dawson and Nestor Day, Beaumont Forest Park's Frank Summo and Beaumont South Park's Ken Harrison.

Harrison, also an outstanding football quarterback that is still unsigned, is a versatile track star with a 9.6 in the 100, high jumper 6-7 and has a 23' long jump.

Weightmen include Houston

King's Bruce Welch, who has signed a football scholarship with Texas A&M, Aldine's James Benoske, Brenham's Wilson White, Aldine MacArthur's Carlos Dantan, and Austin Reagan's Dan Nelson.

Some of the top relay units the state are among the high school entrants.

The meet will begin at 11 a.m. with the high school field events and then high school relay event preliminaries at 12 noon. The University field events will start at 4 p.m.

Finals of the meet are scheduled to start at 6 p.m. with the high school sprint medley relay finals.

Admission will be charged for Saturday night's finals. Students will be charged 50 cents and adults $1.

Tennis team draws stars in Rice Invitational tourney

By BILL HENRY
 Assistant Sports Editor

A&M's tennis team faces another "Mission Impossible" episode when it participates in the Rice Intercollegiate Invitational Tennis Tournament this weekend.

Dickie Fikes, Bill Wright, Billy Hoover and Danny Courson will compete in the Class A division while Tommy Connel, Mike Mills, Jere Mills, Lawton Park and alternate Kermit Smith are entered in the B division.

Pairings for the top Aggie performers are unbelievable as Fikes takes on Trinity's (nation's number one team) number one player, All-American Bob McKinley; Wright takes on Karl Coombes, number one player from 11th ranked Oklahoma City University; Hoover takes on Kenny McMillan, number one player from fifth ranked Pan American; and Courson takes on Lamar Tech's top ranked player, Luis Baraldi. Doubles pairings for the Aggies are not favorable either as Wright and Hoover take on the team of Hess and Baynton, top team of Oklahoma University; and Fikes and Courson take on the team of Hashaw and Hardy of Arizona.

The tournament field includes some of the best teams in the nation, in addition to top-ranked Trinity. Ten of the top 19 teams in the nation are included. Twenty-three schools are entered with an expected enrollment of 145 players.

Heading the list of stars is defending champion Harold Solomon from Rice who is ranked 10th in the nation and top-seeded performer again this year. Second-seeded is Dick Stockton of Trinity, ranked 14th, and his teammates, Bobby McKinley, Brian Gottfried and Paul Gerken are also ranked in the top 20.

Tournament action got underway at 8:30 a.m. Thursday with two rounds of singles and doubles expected to be concluded. Play will resume today with semifinals set for Saturday and finals on Sunday at the Jake Hess Tennis Center on the Rice campus.

Monday the Aggies return to home court action when they play on West Texas State at 1:30 p.m. on Varsity Courts.

The Church..For a Fuller Life..For You..

The night was dark and calm. All creatures were silent and leaves stood still as a lone man knelt in a garden called Gethsemane and prayed, "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt."

Around Him Jesus' disciples lay sleeping. Soon He knew would come betrayal, public condemnation and derision . . . and the long last march. And yet He prayed, "Thy will be done."

In the shadow of the Cross Jesus demonstrated perfect love and trust for God, His Father. In the hours ahead He would establish His Sonship for the atonement of all mankind.

And so today, in a world that needs this message of hope, let us commemorate that first Good Friday by acknowledging God as our Father, helping our churches to illustrate His way to the hungry, the sick, and the needy.

Ferraris on exhibit Sunday at sports car club time trials

An exhibit of Ferrari race cars will highlight Spring Time Trial III Sunday at the Texas World Speedway.

Timed runs will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the A&M Sports Car Club event. More than 60 drivers have entered the day-long competition, according to Kerry Bonner, TAMSSC president.

The Ferrari exhibit and time trial is a public-free event, Bonner announced. He noted the pit and infield entrance will be open from 7:30 to 8:15 a.m. and at five-minute intervals at 9 a.m.,

2 and 4 p.m. for spectators desiring an infield vantage point.

Four or five Ferraris owned by name Texas drivers will be in the exhibit on the TWS concourse.

Activities also will feature Charrae Roques as Spring Time Trial III sweetheart. An A&M sophomore in bio-medicine, she will congratulate winners in the awards ceremony following conclusion of the event, among other duties.

Bonner said the competition will run one car at a time against the clock over the TWS back road course. Runs will be made clockwise on the 1.5-mile track, with each entrant getting five timed runs.

Two cars at a time may be on the course, which is long enough to keep the machines separated. TAMSSC officials at turns will flag down a driver should the preceding car encounter trouble, the president said.

TAMSSC members paid $8 to enter, entrants from Ford Motor Sports Association of which the club is an affiliate $10 and others $12. The fee covers insurance and awards for the competition. Entered cars must pass a technical inspection including tire condition, suspension, engine reservoir fluid levels, etc. before competition.
