

A&M loses net match to UT

Texas defeated A&M 4-3 in Southwest Conference tennis action Wednesday giving the Longhorns their first victory over the Aggies in College Station since 1962.

The victory also left Texas in sole possession of third place in league activities after being tied with A&M for that spot with identical 18-10 records.

Both teams finish up conference round-robin play Friday when A&M hosts Texas Tech and Texas hosts TCU.

A victory looked inevitable after the Aggies took a 3-2 lead after the singles but both doubles teams dropped matches to the Longhorns.

"I was very disappointed in the way our doubles teams played Wednesday," said coach Omar Smith after the contest. "I just knew we were going to beat them after our singles matches.

Tommy Connell, the fiery diminutive senior, won his fifth consecutive conference singles match when he defeated Jim Bayless in straight sets, 6-3, 9-7.

"He may be our No. 5 seeded player but we are taking him to the conference meet to play," Smith said. "He's not the greatest conference performer but he wins for us and that is what counts.

Texas now takes an undisputed third place finish with one match to play while the Aggies drop to fourth with a 21-14 record. Texas stands in at 22-13 with hapless TCU next on the agenda.

"Going into the match, I thought we had more ability and Texas had more experience," assistant coach Richard Barker said. "We really came through in our third, fourth and fifth singles and are very proud of those kids."

"Our doubles teams just fell apart at the seams," Smith added. "I guess they have just played together too long and got stale. We should have switched them around some during the year.

"We lost to a fine club and I have all the respect in the world for them. They are real competitors on the court and real gentlemen off."

In singles action, Avery Rush, Texas, defeated Dickie Fikes, 6-4, 1-6, 6-0; John Nelson, Texas, defeated Bill Wright, 8-6, 6-1; Billy Hoover, A&M, defeated Ron Touchon, 7-5, 9-7; Dan Courson, A&M, defeated Dan Nelson, 4-6, 7-5, 9-7; and Tommy Connell, A&M, defeated Jim Bayless, 6-3, 9-7.

In doubles, Rush and Touchon defeated Fikes and Courson, 6-4, 8-6; and Nelson and Nelson defeated Hoover and Wright, 6-4, 6-4.

Friday's match against Texas Tech will begin at Varsity Courts at 1:30.

A&M doesn't lose a recruit; wins one from Alabama

The Aggies didn't lose a recruit on the national letter signing Wednesday and won one battle over Alabama.

Alabama, inked the national letter with the Aggies.
