Weekend activities spotlight visitors

By JOHN CURYLO
Battalion Sports Editor

A busy weekend has been planned by the A&M athletic department in conjunction with the Maroon-White game, the final football scrimmage of spring training for the Aggies.

A golf tournament for the news media, a luncheon for the wives of the visiting sports writers and a banquet at the Ramada Inn highlight Friday's activities.

Coverage of the game will include 27 Texas newspapers, both wire services, 16 radio stations and 10 television stations. By comparison, the Texas-Penn State Cotton Bowl game this year was covered by 25 Texas newspapers.

Friday's golf tournament gets off to a shotgun start at noon, with 72 news media and 23 A&M personnel in the field. Nine of A&M's football coaches, seven of the athletic department staff members, three members of the Athletic Council, three coaches of other varsity sports and one member of the A&M Board of Directors will play in the tourney, but they will not compete for prizes.

The newsmen will be playing for a first place prize of a full set of new golf clubs. Second through fifth place finishers will be awarded a set of new irons, while sixth through ninth placers win sets of new woods. New golf shoes will be given to the tenth through nineteenth place finishers. All the golfers will receive souvenir hats and golf balls.

Caddies for the tourney will be members of A&M's Corps of Cadets.

An added incentive in the tournament, which will be scored on the Blind Callaway system, is the special prize of a 1972 Cadillac for the player who scores a hole-in-one on the 155-yard, par three ninth hole. The white car with a maroon interior is offered by C. J. Allen of Allen Oldsmobile-Cadillac of Bryan.

Wives of newsmen will be entertained by wives of A&M personnel while the men are playing golf. A luncheon is scheduled at the Briarcrest Country Club.

Prizes and other awards for the golf tournament will be given at a buffet dinner at the Ramada at 7:30 Friday night.

The Maroon-White game will feature the presentation of Wishbone football to Aggie fans. Many of the Aggie football recruits will be here for the game and will be introduced at halftime. Also, some visiting basketball recruits will be introduced.

Admission for the game will be $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students high school age and under. A&M students will be admitted on their activity cards, and A&M faculty members will be admitted on the covers of last year's season ticket books.

Among the newsmen and their wives attending the functions will be Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Waggoner and Hal Taxel of The Eagle, Buba Kruse of the Pictorial Press, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mistovich and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Greer of KORA Radio, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watkins of KTAU Radio, Dave Williams of WAMU-TV, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wilson of BCS-TV, and Mr. and Mrs. Wes Eddleman, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ulman McMullen and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Smyrl of KBTX-TV.

Marks set in 'mural meet

Keathley Hall edged the White Band and White Hall by six points to capture the freshman track competition in Monday's annual intramural meet. Keathley ran up 34 points for first place as White Band and White Hall shared second place with 28 apiece.
Brad Kohls led the winners' assault with 18 points as he and Grier tied for freshman high point honors. Kohls and Grier traded first and second place finishes in the 880-yard run and the 440-yard dash to accomplish their feat.

In the upperclass division, Company A-2, led by Henry Ostermann's 30 point performance, outdistanced L-1, 31-25, for that division's title. Black-Awareness finished a close third with 24 points.
Monday's competition saw meet records set in the freshman 120-yard intermediate hurdles with Jim Bremer's 15.3 and in the 880-yard run as Kohls ran a fine 2:02.7. Upperclassman records came on Ostermann's 13.9 in the hurdles and a 2:03.0 880 performance by Squadron 1's Joe Waltz, who tied the previous mark.
The meet, sponsored by the Intramural Department and conducted by Dr. George Jessup's P.E. 255 Coaching of Track class, saw 346 students participate, making it the largest IMA meet ever held.

BATTALION CLASSIFIED

He drives the Texas way

What do Ed McMahon, Bob Lilly, Bob Hayes, Phyllis Diller, The Carpenters, The Lettermen and Charley Pride have in common?
They all "Drive Friendly."
And they're telling Texans of their own personal ways of driving friendly on a new series of radio public service announcements now being distributed to more than 400 stations by the Texas Office of Traffic Safety Administration.
In one of the announcements, Ed McMahon, Johnny Carson's food-and-drink-loving sidekick on the "Tonight" show, admits that he does "enjoy a nip every once in a while."

"But," he says, "I never drink when I'm going to have to do the driving home. If you plan to drink, let someone else drive. That's just one more way to 'Drive Friendly'—the Texas way."
The entertainers and athletes on this new record, which is third in the series, join a long list of state and national personalities who support the Governor's traffic safety program.
