Aggies get late-inning win over Rice

By JOHN CURYLO
Battalion Sports Editor

A&M overcame a Rice lead and an eighth inning tie to down the Owls, 8-6, in the third game of their Southwest Conference series here Tuesday.

The win gives the Aggies a 26-11 record for the year and 9-6 in league play. It was the last home game for A&M, with the weekend series with the Texas Longhorns in Austin slated to finish the season.

Jim Langford scored the go-ahead run in the eighth after smashing a double to left. Catcher Tommy Hawthorne tried to sacrifice, but Rice third baseman Bryan Boyne threw it away, allowing Langford to score and Hawthorne to move to second. A sacrifice fly and a base hit brought Hawthorne in with an insurance run.

Center fielder R. J. Englert was two for five, and his hitting streak was extended to 27 games. He has hit safely in 32 of A&M's 37 games, and he did not play in two of the contests.

Englert's SWC hitting streak now stands at 15 games, tying the all-time conference record set by Mickey Sullivan of Baylor in 1954. Should Englert get a hit in the first game Friday, he will have the longest conference streak in the 57-year history of SWC baseball. If he hits safely in all three Texas games, he will be only the third player in conference history to get base hits in all the SWC games played by his team in one season. In addition to Sullivan, Randy Jackson of the 1946 Texas team hit safely in 14 games that year.

Pacing the Aggies at the plate Tuesday were Langford and Karl Bystrom. The little second baseman got two hits, including a double, in four trips to the plate. He scored three runs and drove one in. Bystrom had a double and a triple in three official times at bat, scoring twice and driving one run in.

A&M got off to an early lead in the second inning, scoring two runs on a pair of hits and an error. Bystrom was safe on an error by shortstop Sheldon Kaufman. Langford blasted a long base hit, scoring Bystrom. Langford then moved to second on a hit by Hawthorne. Aggie pitcher Jim Wallace attempted a sacrifice, but Rice pitcher Bruce Henley threw it away, and Langford crossed the plate.

Things quieted down for awhile, but Rice got on the board in the fifth. After one man was out, first baseman Bobby Potter got a broken bat single to short left center. Wallace walked Henley to put runners on first and second.

Leadoff man Joe Zylka tapped a grounder between first and second for an infield hit, but Aggie first baseman Butch Ghutzman made a late throw which went into the Rice dugout, scoring Potter and moving the runners to second and third.

Ted Nowak drove two men in with a hit to center. A force play at second was missed on an error by Langford on a throw which hit the sliding base runner. Steve Janda was brought in to put out the fire, and he started by striking out the first batter he faced. The next Owl hit a drive to left, scoring Nowak, but Rice catcher Len Shelby was thrown out at second after overrunning the base.

A&M tied it up in the sixth with a pair of unearned runs. Bystrom walked and moved to second when Henley made an error on Langford's grounder. Both runners advanced on an infield out, and a pinch-hit single by Jim Atterbury brought both of them home to even the score at 4-4.

In the seventh frame, Englert got a base hit with one out and moved to second on an infield out. A single by Sandy Bate scored Englert, and a triple by Bystrom brought John Woods, Bate's pinch runner across for a 6-4 lead. Bystrom was thrown out trying to score on a pitch that got away from Shelby.

Rice retaliated by tying the total in the top of the eighth. A base hit by Tommy Lasater and consecutive fielder's choices by Kaufman and Boyne preceded a single by Donnie Brogna which put runners on second and third with two out. A base hit by Bobby Potter scored both of them to tie it again.

Charlie Kelley was brought in as the fourth Aggie pitcher. He struck out a pinch hitter and got the side out in order in the ninth to get credit for the win. Kelley hurled a two-hit shutout against Rice Monday.

Bruce Katt, who pitched six innings Monday against the Owls, worked an inning and two thirds, allowing three hits, two runs and walk, striking out one. He was lifted in favor of Kelley in the eighth. Katt and Kelley are expected to go against Texas Friday.

A rhabarb occurred in the eighth inning when Ghutzman, running in for a pop fly, was bumped by the batter, Boyne, who was on his way to first base. Ghutzman argued that interference should have been called, but the umpire ruled it a foul ball, since no one touched it in fair territory.

In the ensuing argument, Ghutzman went to the Rice bench and challenged an Owl player who had been heckling him. Lasater grabbed Ghutzman, and a slight amount of shoving Aggies from the playing area and the stands to the Rice No scuffle took place, and man was ejected from the

A pair of defensive players the top of the ninth kept from starting anything. The batter, Zylka, hit a long left. Atterbury went back the shrubbery growing in fence to make the catch, two out, Shelby hit a close to the backstop, Aggie bench. Hawthorne with the tricky hit, finally and falling to grab it, the game.

My vote for Governor will go to BRISCOE, a man Texans can trust!
