College Station, Texas

Cloudy and cool

Wednesday - Partly cloudy, easterly winds 10-15 mph. High 81°, low 64°.

Thursday - Partly cloudy to cloudy, afternon thundershowers. Southerly winds 10-15 mph. High 84°, low 68°.

845-2226

Foreman gave the Law Day address Monday night at the Memorial Student Cen-The flamboyant Houstonian used wit to open the program but got serious when talkbout individual freedoms. (Photo by Bill Kemp)

former students honored distinguished A&M alumni

nguished Alumni Awards ng May 6 commencement ceries, President Jack K. Wilannounced Monday.

ol. 67 No. 118

the tear express well don

EY

Anythi

11pment

ipment

mps

ools

eras

rd requ

Getap

and re

e Credit

as Ave.

ARY CLU

ity Drive

s A Week Midnight

18 Admitted

D.

9:00 p. m.

T 7:15 P.

PLE" (Pl

OR OF

alue

ected for the 1972 honor Edward Mueggee (Buck) who resides in Hunt and n; Hal N. Carr, chairman the board and chief executive with homes in Bryan and Lake, Minn.; Harold J. es, president of Standard of California, of Kentfield, , and Dr. Durward B. dy) Varner, president of the ersity of Nebraska System, ln, Neb.

The four join 30 living and deceased Texas A&M gradates honored since the program egan 10 years ago.

Schiwetz, 72, received a bachor's degree in architecture from exas A&M in 1921. Following laduation he worked for a Dalarchitect, later moved to Houson and then to New York City. lis works in lithography and thing at the New York Art Stunts League led to depression ears sales and attracted the atntion of the editor of the prese returned to Houston as a Twil ather in an advertising agency hich later became Wilkenson, liwetz and Tips. Regular cusners of the firm included Institute's Air Transport Panel

lous art magazine, "Pencil

as A&M University will Hughes Tool Co., Humble Oil and Advisory Committee. or four former students with Refining Co. and Anderson-

"The Texas Sketchbook," a collection of illustrated articles by Schiwetz, is now a Texana collectcompleting his second book for vetz, Texana artist-illustra- the University of Texas Press.

His work has been exhibited lines, Inc. throughout Texas, plus Chicago New York, Philadelphia, Michier, North Central Airlines, gan, San Francisco, San Diego and at the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C. He also has had a number of one-man shows.

In addition to his NYU teaching, he has taught art in Mexico and at the University of Houston.

Hal Carr was named president of North Central Airlines in 1954 at age 33, at that time the nation's youngest president of a regularly scheduled airline. He was elected board chairman in

His management and leadership during the past 18 years brought a small local airline in poor financial condition into a major air carrier serving 90 cities in 13 states and two Canadian prov-

A 1943 economics graduate of Texas A&M, Carr continued graduate study in industrial management and finance at the American University, Washington, D.C. He is a councilor and former trustee of the Texas A&M Research Foundation and a member of the Texas Transportation

like Rice, Joe Arredondo named Sublications editors for 1972-1973

been named the new editor The Battalion, announced Stu-Publications Director Jim also selected for top student blications positions were Joe R. edondo Jr. of Goliad as editor the Aggieland, and John ylo of Orange, summer editor the newspaper.

OINT" (PG Lindsey noted the incoming ttalion editor traditionally ases his new position during the > University National Bank n the side of Texas A&M."

chael L. Rice of Baytown final month of the spring semester as preparation for the following school year. Rice's appointment was effective Monday.

A sophomore journalism major, Rice has worked on The Battalion two years as a reporter-photographer. He also is serving this year as a section editor for the Arredondo is a junior majoring in horticulture. He has served on the yearbook staff two years and is currently an assistant editor.

Curylo is a senior majoring in journalism. He has worked on The Battalion two years, serving -Adv. the past year as sports editor.

Carr, 51, has been an officer and director of over 20 corporations. He entered the airline business following World War II service, first as assistant direcors item. Currently Schiwetz is Hor of route development for Trans World Airlines, Inc., and later with Wisconsin Central Air-

> He has been a consultant to the Secretary of Navy, Department of Air Force, Department of Commerce and a member of the management consultant firm of McKinsey and Co. of New York

> In 1955, he was nominated as a candidate for one of Ten Outstanding Young Men in America by the U. S. Jaycees.

Haynes, 46, is a Fort Worth native who joined Standard Oil of California (SoCal) in 1947 as producing staff engineer. He holds a civil engineering degree from Texas A&M, awarded in 1946 after serving as a commissioned Navy officer during World War II.

Haynes' work with SoCal has included assignments as chief production engineer, vice president of the company's Venezuelan operations, vice president and director, and in 1969, at age 43, president of the sixth largest oil company in the world.

Haynes is a director of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and the Bay Area Council. In 1970, Chevron Oil honored Haynes by christening its newest oceangoing tanker the "SS H. J. Haynes."

He received the 1971 John Rogers Award at the 11th annual Institute on Exploration and Economics of the Petroleum Indus-

Dr. Varner, 55, has been president of the 33,000-student University of Nebraska System since Feb. 1, 1970. After graduation from Texas A&M in 1940, he became assistant to the president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston.

During World War II he served four years and was separated with the rank of lieutenant colonel with European Theatre decorations.

From 1959 to 1971 Varner was chancellor of Oakland (Mich.) University. He has honorary doctoral degrees from Saginaw Valley College, Olivet College, Oakland University, Nebraska Wesleyan and Michigan State.

Foreman would back TAMU aw school

Monday night when Houston at- College and University System. torney Percy Foreman said "law would profit" from an association with the university.

"A law school would do this college a great service," Foreman told the Law Day audience at the MSC, "and the university would do law schools a great service."

The noted criminal defense attorney declared he "certainly would" support TAMU attempts to establish a law program. The institution's board of directors in February directed administrators ication to young people. to plan for establishment of a law

By MARAGARET SHAW

mary election.

upcoming election.

of city voting wards.

County Judge Bill Vance informed student body president

Layne Kruse Monday that the Commissioners Court will be unable to put a voting box on the Earlier in the year the Student Senate had passed a resolution asking for a change in the precinct lines or a change of the location of the polling place for the Last week the Student Senate

presented a resolution to the College Station City Council requesting an on-campus polling place for city elections. In this resolution, the senate asked that county

laws be followed in the division

The City Council agreed to work with the county officials in agenda. This would permit stu-

Judge Vance emphasized that he would be unable to change the precinct lines until the July or August meeting of the Com-

Hoover dead

WASHINGTON (AP) - J. Edgar

Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation since 1924, died Monday night at his home at the age of 77, the Justice

Hoover, the nation's chief law officer for 48 years, had become a legend in the United States, shaping the FBI into a massive.

Kleindienst issued a one-paragraph statement in which he said

Hoover's body was found by his maid at approximately 8:30 a.m.

"It is with profound personal grief that I announce that J.

Edgar Hoover passed away during the night at his residence,"

Kleindienst said. "His personal physician informed me that his death was due to natural causes."

permitted by presidential order to continue in his $42,500-a-year

government job after reaching the mandatory retirement age of Hoover, unmarried, dominated the bureau during his lifetime as no man in any other federal agency. Wielding vast power, he was said to lavish on the FBI

the pride and possessiveness of a

He joined the bureau as its acting director in 1921 after several years as a $990-a-year Justice Department law clerk, and became director three years later.

Born in Washington, D.C., on Jan.

1, 1895, Hoover received his law degree from George Washington University and lived all his life in

He had a fondness for dogs,

the District of Columbia.

stern and watchful parent.

The jut-jawed FBI head was

Acting Atty. Gen. Richard

state elections on campus.

at age 77

Department announced.

powerful federal agency.

Tuesday, May 2, 1972

Foreman made the comments during a question-answer session which followed what he called "a voice crying in the wilderness" for individual freedoms over central government controls.

Included in the Brazos County Bar Association-sponsored program was presentation of the Liberty Bell Award to Bryan Police Sgt. Mike Orozco, a 12-year veteran lauded for his work and ded-

Commissioners court unable to get polling place for A&M

ulated by the Texas election code

He added that only one polling place can be allowed per precinct.

solidated High School band hall.

The Student Senate had protested the location of the voting

box and the make up of the college

precinct on the grounds that it violated Section 2.04 of the State

The law states that each vot-for such modification.

A&M campus for the May 6 pri- For A&M it will be the A&M Con-

months make up the period stip- used.

Foreman said the United States

Texas A&M's bid for a college and submit the proposal is the only country in the world to pay expenses of witnesses, or of law got a shot in the arm to the Coordinating Board, Texas with fundamental individual if a prosecuting attorney selectrights guaranteed in writing. Quoting the late Justice William E. Gladstone, Foreman said "if we lose our liberty it will not be to a foreign government, but to our

> Foreman reminded the Constitution protects every man's lib-

He noted it would be much easier for law enforcement if an arrested man were carried directly to the pen, or if a man was guilty until he proved himself of ourselves." He said in this century Ameri-

Foreman said he fights for rights every day in the court-He acknowledged a question about the rights of society?' "My answer is, if the blackest crinimal on earth, the worst one, if he has no rights under the law, then no man has."

Foreman stressed if one starts deciding who has the right of Precinct 9, which includes A&M Earlier Kruse was advised by of men." the office of the Secretary of State in Austin that this is a new law concepts in the Supreme common occurrence in precincts throughout the state, although it is in violation of the State Election Code. Kruse said several campuses are being allowed to have polling places for the May 6 election.

Kruse said he will pursue the ing precinct will have no more matter for the June 6 run-off elections since students will be has 3,712 registered voters.

than 2,000 qualified voters if paper ballots are used and no more on campus for summer school.

missioners Court. These two than 3,000 voters if machines are

Housing office now accepting summer rooming applications

establishing a new voting ward and placed it on the May council up for rooms this week in the dents to vote in city, county and housing office. McInnis, Moore, Crocker, and ramps B, D, & E of Hart will be open for male undergraduate students. Fowler Hall will house women and Keathley will be reserved for vocational training and special students. Schumacher Hall will house veterinary medstudents only.

Students living in the above residence halls wishing to reserve the room they now occupy may sign up in the housing office through 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Other students will reserve rooms on a first-come, first-

Students attending the first served basis, beginning Thursday, summer school session may sign and continuing through Friday.

All residence halls except Schumacher, Hughes, and ramps B, D, & E of Hart will be closed and locked at 6 p.m. Friday, May 12. Students may obtain accommodations in Hughes Hall for the three weeks between terms beginning May 8 through May 12. Room rent will be $2 per day for this Summer residents of Schumacher and Hart will also sign up for accommodations between terms and pay rent at the housing office at the times listed above.

Students who reserve rooms but cancel them after May 15 will forfeit their room deposits.

ed the defense attorney.

"We in America take our blessings for granted," he charged.

"We take lightly, as we do the air we breath or the water we drink, our rights to think and speak and aspire for betterment ca has marched millions of boys to the battlefield to offer their lives that liberty might live.

"The trouble in this country," he continued, "is too many people are ready to die for it and not enough are willing to live for it."

frequently asked is: 'but what trial "then we are not a government of laws, but a government He insisted there have been no Court decisions of the 1960s, what is known as the "Warren Court He said every right now enforced at the state level has been the right of all men in a federal court since 1971. Foreman called recent Supreme Court rulings an extension of the states of federal court rights defendants were denied until 1961 because of a reluctance to interfere with state constitutions. In 1961, Foreman said, five of the nine men on the high court finally believed as much in the right of the individual as in property rights.

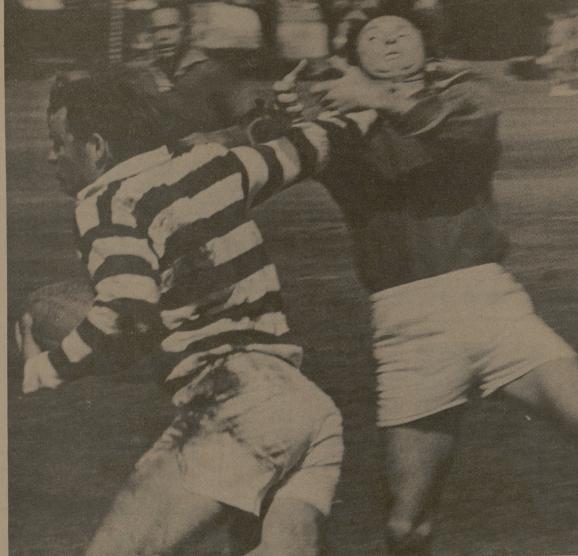

Foreman cautioned that law and order campaign pledges are "a threat to the liberty of every man and woman in America."

He quipped, "I should know because I dedicated my life to disprove the slogan crime doesn't

In answer to a question on the death penalty, Foreman said "the state has no more right to murder than an individual."

He favors long prison terms because "no one has yet come back to say it (the death penalty) is a punishment."

Foreman told the audience he has a great respect for Texas A&M and that his 14-year-old daughter wanted to be an Aggie to study veterinary medicine.

for his garden and for horse-Don Robertson bursts free from his opponent as the Aggie Rugby team downed the Galracing, confining himself to twoeston Rugby Club, 20-0, Saturday to claim the Texas State Championship for the second dollar bets. But nothing transcended his devotion for the FBI. year running. See related story on page six. (Photo by Mike Rice)