Boston owns two-game lead in playoff

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Bruins, led by old folks Eddie Johnston and Johnny Bucyk, owned a two-game lead while the

New York Rangers moaned about lost seconds today in the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup championship showdown.

The Bruins made it two in a row in the best-of-seven series by edging the Rangers 2-1 Tuesday night on Johnston's brilliant goal-tending and goals by Bucyk and Ken Hodge.

Ranger Coach Emile Francis had plenty to say about the officiating and the work of the timekeeper before heading for New York and games No. 3 and 4 Thursday night and Sunday afternoon.

Hodge, who had three goals in Boston's 6-5 first game victory, broke a 1-1 tie while the Bruins enjoyed a two-man advantage at 11:53 of the third period. New York's Bruce MacGregor was in the penalty box for tripping John McKenzie along with teammate Walt Tkaczuk, who was sent off for tripping Phil Esposito.

"Tkaczuk didn't trip Esposito," Francis said. "Esposito was so tired that he just fell down. There were a few penalties that could have been called the other way. However, the officiating works both ways and you can't cry about it."

Francis was disturbed plenty about what he thought was a raw deal in the final minute of play. An offside was whistled, and Francis claimed the clock kept running.

"They stole four seconds from us," he said. "When you're a goal down, every second is precious."

Boston Coach Tom Johnson said both the Bruins and the Rangers played "a real good, tight hockey game." He added that his charges have to play a good game to beat New York.

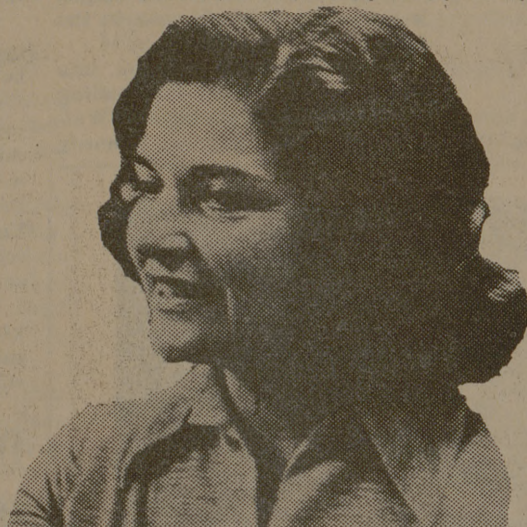

"There's no breathing room when you're in a 1-1 game. I don't think the Rangers can be any tougher than they were tonight. Their goalie, Gilles Lemure, was super. I need him play better."

Johnston, who alternated Boston goal with Gerry Gagne, had 27 saves, which mure was credited with 21. Bobby Orr's assist on the goal enabled him to set a playoff record of 18, one than Montreal's Jean Beliveau totalled last year.

Tuesday's Result: Boston 2, New York 1. Leads best-of-7 series, 2-0.

Wednesday's Game: No game scheduled. Thursday's Game: Boston at New York.

I'm Sissy, Fly Me To Austin

The Texas A&M Farenthold for Governor Committee has been working with students across Texas to keep Sissy's plane flying up to the May 6th primary date.

The A&M Committee is enthusiastic about the campaign. Chairman, Shelia Wilson, said: "the Farenthold campaign, unlike those of our opponents is not financed by lobby interests. The support for the Farenthold campaign comes from the people, and they are the ones who will elect her."

The students are raising money by selling Farenthold posters for $1.00. Helping are:

- FARMER PHOBS
- BUDGET TAPES
- JEANS N THINGS

All are located in the Northgate shopping area and invite you to drop by and give Sissy a hand.

Knicks minus DeBusschere go against confident Lakers

NEW YORK (AP)—The Los Angeles Lakers insist they're playing no psychological games when they say they'd be more comfortable if Dave DeBusschere were in the New York Knicks' lineup —instead of out of it—in tonight's third game of the National Basketball Association championship series.

"I honestly wish DeBusschere was in there," said K. C. Jones, the right hand aide and temporarily the voice of Lakers coach Bill Sharman. "Coach Sharman feels the same as I do."

"If DeBusschere doesn't go or if he's ready only for limited service, our guys are apt to let down. They'll say, 'We got it made now' and relax. If he played, they'd be geared to go all out. And when we go all out, nobody can beat us."

While the Lakers were guarding against possible over-confidence, the Knicks were concerned over the aching side of their star 6-foot-6, 220-pound forward, injured late in the second quarter of the second game Sunday in Los Angeles.

With the best-of-seven series tied 1-1, DeBusschere definitely will not start tonight's game in Madison Square Garden, his place to be taken by the 6-8, 220-pound Phil Jackson. The game will be nationally televised by ABC-TV 8:30 p.m. EDT.

Jones, a former Boston Celtics star, conducted the Lakers' press conference Tuesday for Sharman, who was unable to raise his voice above a whisper because of laryngitis.

DeBusschere, who suffered a strained muscle in his right side in a collision Sunday with the Lakers' Jim McMillian, was reported improved Tuesday but still under ultra-sound and heat treatment. Knicks' Coach Red Holzman said DeBusschere may be inserted in spot or emergency situations.

The Mint is hot

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Key to the Mint returned to the races and took jockey Braulio Baeza straight to the winner's circle while Phil Rubbico got some extra and unwanted steps out of No Le Hace.

Key to the Mint charged to a 2 1/2-length victory Tuesday in the $22,400 Derby Trial, the final prep for Saturday's Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs.

And behind him, swerving badly in the final sixteenth of a mile came Joseph R. Straus' No Le Hace, winner of five straight races including the Louisiana and Arkansas derbies.

Trainer Elliott Burch said a decision on whether to send Paul Mellon's Key to the Mint to the Derby would be reached Thursday and that Mellon's Head of the River, fifth in the Trial, probably would start in the Derby.

The race was Key to the Mint's first victory in only three starts as a 3-year-old and it was his first start since being injured March 15.

Trainer Homer Pardue said No Le Hace reacted to the whip in a similar fashion after a lay-off once before. No Le Hace's last start before the Trial was April 1.

Pardue also said he was confident for the Derby, which was expected to get C. E. Nicholas' Dr. Neale, third in the Trial, and will get the fourth-place finisher, A. E. Reinhold's Big Brown Bear.

ROLAND SEARCY IS THE ONLY CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY WHO KNOWS TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

He is the only candidate who is a graduate of Texas A&M, and is also a former instructor of management. He has practiced law in Brazos County for nearly eight years — more than three times longer than any other candidate. In this time he has learned much about Brazos County and its problems. He's been involved in over 100 criminal court proceedings, and is the only candidate who has participated in a contested criminal court proceeding. This office requires that the County Attorney be experienced and knowledgeable if we are to have a low rate of crime here. Roland Searcy is the only candidate for County Attorney who can offer you this experience. If you want to be assured Texas A&M will be represented in the County Attorney's Office,
