A BIG BALL OF STRING is the result of 18 years' collection by Finley Stephens, left. The ball is five feet, six inches in diameter and weighs 3,070 pounds. Stephens plans to make the ball grow to 12 feet. The string collection is on display at Stephens' Gateway to the West Museum in Weston, Mo. Sitting on top of the huge batch of string is six-year-old Brad Vaughn. (AP Wirephoto)

Army quarterback to be honored

The entire population of a Texas town will add to the luster of the A&M-Army football game here Sept. 30.

All eight people of the North Texas town near Sherman will be present to honor the Army starting quarterback.

The town's mayor, Mrs. Patricia Albright, made arrangements to declare the West Pointer from Eau Gallie, Fla., an honorary citizen when she learned his last name coincided with that of the Grayson County community. He is Cadet J. Kingsley Fink.

If you know its time you looked after your financial security, but aren't sure where to begin LET US HELP
