

So Help Us, Darrell!

By MIKE RICE

Emory Bellard, a soft-spoken innovator and one of the smartest men to enter the coaching profession, will get the job done for A&M—unlike his ex-boss, Darrell Royal, will do for TU—or so states Alan Truex, a sportswriter for The Daily Texan.

Truex, who traveled with the recent SWC Press Tour to visit the eight SWC teams, felt he had no other choice but to pick A&M to finish second behind Arkansas as compared to TU at third.

His opinion of the Longhorn coach seems to have sunk to one of feeling as if he (Truex) will never live to see another winning TU team, so help him Darrell Royal.

Quoth Truex:
"Extremely articulate and congenial, Bellard has a style of describing people and incidents which resembles Royal. The difference is, though that Bellard is friendly. Whereas Royal takes the position that anyone who interviews him is imposing on his priceless time."

Truex rated the Aggies fairly well in the team's different positions, giving two 'A's to the running back and linebackers. He awarded 'B's in all other departments except the defensive secondary, which earned a 'C' from the downcast Longhorn fan.

Truex continued, "It will not take a miracle coach to win at Texas A&M. If College Station has nothing else, it does have good football players.

"And Bellard has won them over. The Aggies do not just respect and admire Emory Bellard. They love him.

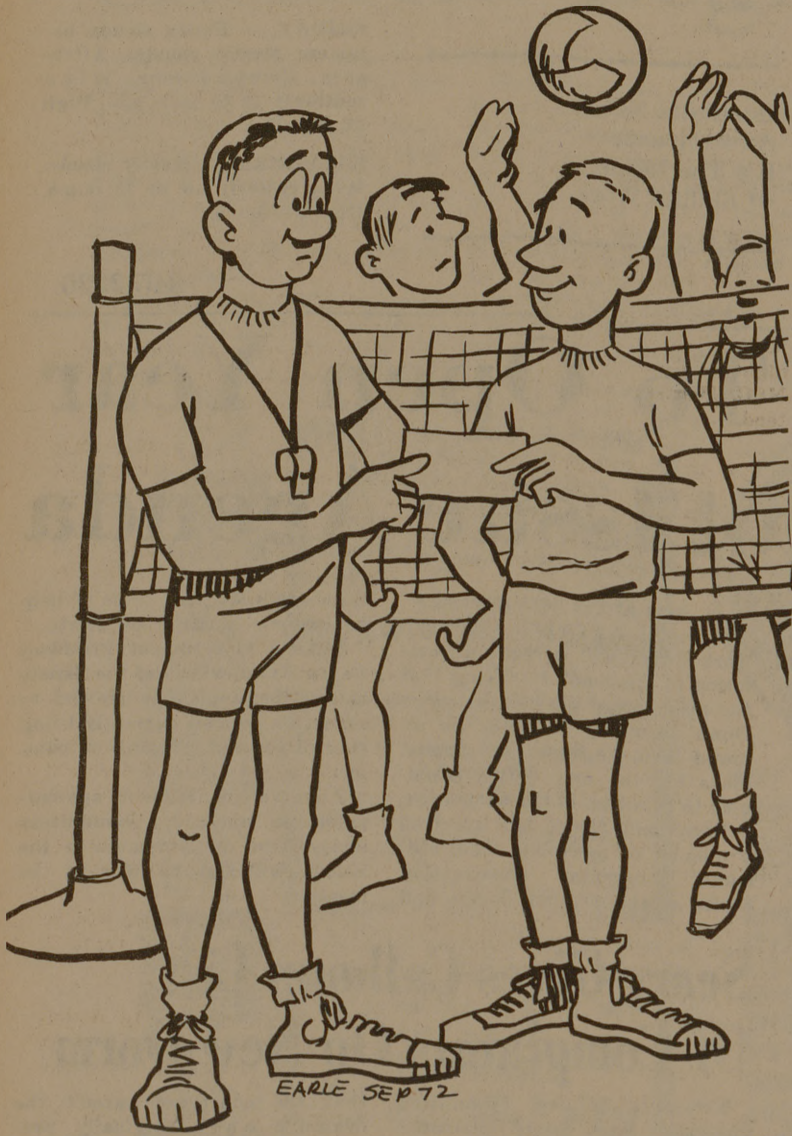

"As he takes over the Aggies, the feeling there is that he will win. He did in high school, where he compiled an incredible record of 139 wins and 34 losses.

"Of course it will be more difficult in college, but Bellard will succeed just the same. . . ."

This is not to say that the other conference schools feel A&M has solved all of its problems, but they do know Bellard has adjusted personnel to "fit the Wishbone to a T."

If Truex' attitude is cognizant of other Longhorn students, Bellard's Aggies will finish in second above doubting TU fans, so help us Darrell Royal.

Mulloy President's Fund Established With $25,000

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Mulloy of College Station, formerly in the Houston real estate and investment business, have funded the Mulloy President's Endowed Scholarship at A&M.

The gift to the TAMU Association of Former Students was a real estate note valued at $25,000 bearing 7 1/2 percent interest.

"The Mulloy gift in this form will enable a student to begin immediately at Texas A&M," commented Robert L. Walker, association staff member responsible for the scholarship programs.

"There is sufficient income to provide the $1,000 a year stipend necessary for the Mulloy President's Scholar," Walker said.

The Mulloys recently moved to College Station from Houston. Both are long-time friends and active participants in many TAMU programs, including sponsorship of a 12th Man Athletic Scholarship.

Mulloy is a director of the Bank of A&M and active in the Brazos County A&M Club and Aggie Quarterback Club.

He is a 1931 graduate of Texas A&M and received a master's degree from Cornell in 1932.

"We are delighted to be in a position to endow such a scholarship at the university we love,"

Luedecke: On Both Sides Of Coin

aren't the answer to transportation problems on campus, we might be able to halt parking lot construction. I hear of people parking in the wrong place many times and accepting the ticket just to get closer to their destination. We can't seem to stop people like that."

Luedecke pointed to the new shuttle bus system as one of the big alternatives to A&M's problem and said he hopes it can be worked out.

He noted he has seen three systems fail at other campuses because no workable solution was found to operate the buses properly.

"I haven't even looked at it yet," Luedecke said, "but this proposed bike path system would take away 500 parking spaces. It's going to take a lot of work to solve that problem."

Batt News Summary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CHARLOTTE AMALIE, St. Thomas, V.I.—Eight Americans were shot to death and three other persons injured Wednesday when robbers burst into the lobby of a plush golf course clubhouse on St. Croix, the acting governor of the U.S. territory said.

The identities of the victims were not immediately available.

The number of gunmen hadn't been determined, but a massive manhunt was launched to capture the killers who fled into the rugged, uninhabited terrain surrounding the resort.

MUNICH—With the Olympics resumed, the West German government has ordered a full-scale investigation of the terrorism and police action which combined to kill 11 members of the Israeli team and five Arab guerrillas.

Officials insisted Wednesday that the airport shootout which resulted in 15 deaths was necessary in an effort to save the Israeli hostages. The plan failed—all nine hostages died along with five terrorists and a German policeman.

Two Israelis died earlier when the terrorists first invaded their quarters at the Olympic Village.

From Moscow to Washington, London to Melbourne, the non-Arab world was shocked Wednesday by the Munich massacre. Some Arab press defended the Palestinian guerrillas, but most Arab leaders were silent.

In Israel, newspapers called for revenge in blood, but most officials carried their grief in silence.

JERUSALEM—The Israeli government expressed "wrath and revulsion" Wednesday at the slaying of 11 Israeli Olympic team members in Munich and vowed to hold responsible any nation aiding the Arab guerrillas.

Foreign Minister Abba Eban called the German decision to try to rescue hostages held by the terrorists "absolutely correct and perfectly in order," adding: "We have made it clear that Israel does not give in to blackmailers, that to give in to them is to increase their spirit, their resources, their sense of success and to make the increase of this activity inevitable."

SAIGON—Government forces battled enemy troops on three fronts in South Vietnam Wednesday, gaining some ground but losing a vital outpost south of the Que Son Valley below Da Nang, field reports said.

Refrigerator Orders Are Due

Students in the corps area can sign up in advance for refrigerators Thursday in Lounge D, said Steve Hill, student distributor.

Students in dorms already having refrigerators will be able to sign up on bulletin boards in their dorms if they don't have refrigerators yet, he said.

Hill will be in Lounge D from 4-7 p.m. Thursday and said he hopes the machines he has ordered will be in early next week.

Hill added that students who have signed up this week will receive priority over individuals wanting refrigerators and not having signed up for them.
