Rogers Meets With Israeli Ambassador

tary of State William P. Rogers met Wednesday with Israeli Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin in an attempt to find ways to prevent terrorism of the kind that struck the Olympic Games in Munich. Meanwhile, other State Department officials discussed U. S. proposals with 40 diplomats.

Rogers has been ordered by President Nixon to seek cooperation by other governments "on an urgent basis" on ways to halt terrorism

State Department spokesman Charles W. Bray said the meetings Wednesday were called "to convey the President's interest in broad international consultations ality — and yours. and on eliciting other governments' opinions.

In the meeting with Rabin, Bray said Rogers expressed the Americans' "deep sense of hor-
