In Opener Against Aggies Experience Plus for Shockers

When head Shocker football coach Bob Seaman talks about his Shocker team for 1972, it brings a smile to his face that can only be deciphered as a little bit of "something good is going to happen to you today."
 Seaman's soldiers have already saddled up for several hard-hitting scrimmages and the results have been both positive and good for the season.
 "We've been extremely pleased with the improvement of Ken Bodge at an offensive tackle spot," Seaman said. "We're still up in the air about the rest of our offensive line but we are pretty well set in a couple of positions. Ted Weglarz, at right guard, and Bob Behrens at left tackle will probably be our starters. Joe Dumakowski and Kim Cocklin are battling it out for the center position with Ray Burford on the injury list with an ankle but he should be the other guard." Seaman praised the work of tight end Bill Moore and felt Ed Plopa would make the team more solid in the receiving corps.

Don Gilley was one of the high-lights of the Saturday scrimmage when he carried five times and broke one for a TD from 40 yards out. Jim Fenwick and Don Burford were both aggressive and carried the ball well. Quarterback Tommy Owen went 19-36 in passing with the receivers drawing praise from the coaching staff.

"We'll have 26 seniors, 25 juniors, 20 sophomores and 34 freshmen out for football with 40 athletes with two years experience," Seaman said. "Among those players, we have 18 of our 22 starters back. That's a football team and we're ready to get after 'em in what we hope is our greatest football season."

"Our early practice sessions have been good and our receivers have been excellent," Seaman said. "Tom Owen has been strong and we're hopeful this is his season."

The Shockers will have All-MVC Lino Venerucci (6-2, 230, Sr.) back at linebacker with All-MVC and "Sophomore of the Year" defensive tackle Rick Dvorak (6-4, 235, Jr.) right in front of him. That combination along with pre-season All-MVC tight end Bill Moore (6-1, 210, Jr.) and 10th ranking kickoff returner Don Gilley (5-11, 175, Sr.) could spell out problems for opponents.

"Our team reported back in the best condition ever," Seaman said of his 1972 soldiers.
 Defensively, the Shockers should have one of the best defensive football teams in the last four or five years.

"We're gonna have depth," Seaman said, "and we've got a lot of newcomers pushing for starting jobs. We're probably going to start three sophomores on our defensive football team. Greg Adkins at a defensive end, Quinton Kay at a tackle and Ken LeBlanc at a linebacker. If these guys are displacing football players that started for us last season, we think with this type of action out of our younger players it'll force our veterans to get on the stick and be better football players."

Civil Suit Filed By Father Of Dead Football Player

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—A $1 million civil lawsuit against the federal government was filed Tuesday in U.S. District Court here by the father of a Wichita State University football player killed in the Oct. 2, 1970 crash of a Shocker football plane.

The crash killed 31 persons—WSU football players, coaches, fans and crew members—when the chartered plane crashed into a mountain near Silver Plume, Colo.

It was one of two Shocker football planes en route to Logan, Utah, for a game with Utah State. The second plane landed safely at Logan.

The suit was filed by Vern Kiesau of Custer County, Okla., father of Randy Kiesau.

The suit charges the U.S. through the Federal Aviation Administration failed to take remedial action against the charter company prior to the crash when FAA rules were violated, and failed to warn the public of the danger.

The U.S. is charged—through the FAA—with the duty of enforcing compliance with standards of safety in air commerce.

FAA field inspectors and supervisors determined operation of Golden Eagle, Inc., Oklahoma City, was contrary to FAA rules, the suit alleges, but that the company, in cooperation with Jack Richards Aircraft Co., Oklahoma City, "engaged in unlawful and unauthorized carriage of persons and equipment by aircraft."

Arkansas and senior quarterback Joe Ferguson were unanimous choices as the best in the Southwest Conference in the annual poll by writers and broadcasters on the 23rd annual SWC press tour.

Arkansas got all 23 votes as the football champion for 1972 and Ferguson was the unanimous selection as offensive player of the year.

The positions and point totals: 1, Arkansas, 184 points. 2, Texas, 152½. 3, Texas A&M, 144. 4, Texas Christian, 100½. 5, Southern Methodist, 95½. 6, Texas Tech 74½. 7, Rice, 46. 8, Baylor, 31.

Safety Robert Popelka of SMU and linebacker Randy Braband of Texas tied for the most defensive player votes.

Frish running back Bubba Bean of Texas A&M and junior college transfer Millard Neely of Baylor tied for the most votes as newcomer of the year.
