

Game Tabled 'Rout Of The Week'

Aggies Take On Ninth-Ranked Tigers Saturday Night

By BILL HENRY

Having won but two of their past seven meetings, the Texas Aggies hope for a reversal of their luck Saturday night when they take on the LSU Tigers in Baton Rouge.

Lex James, a sophomore in 1970, led the team to a 20-18 win with a 79-yard bomb to split-end Hugh McElroy on the last play of the game. Louisiana fans still have not forgotten that tragic night.

The game has been touted as "The Rout of the Week" by columnist Steve Harvey who edits "Bottom Ten," a weekly syndicated article listing the 10 worst college football teams in the nation. Texas A&M made it at number 10 this week.

This will be the 36th meeting overall between A&M and LSU, dating back to 1899, with the Tigers holding a 20-12-3 record.

Last week, LSU defeated the University of the Pacific, 31-13, while the Aggies fell to defending national champion Nebraska, 37-7.

LSU returned 31 lettermen from last year's 8-3 Sun Bowl Champion squad. A&M returns 30, 15 offensively, 14 defensively, and one kicker.

Coach Charlie McClendon ranks among the nation's best in winning percentages with a 79-24-4 mark in 10 years. He has taken the Tigers to eight bowl games and was national Coach of the Year in 1970.

Players to watch for LSU are the two quarterbacks, Bert Jones and Paul Lyons, along with defensive safety John Staggs and linebacker Warren Capone.

Three lineup changes have been made for the Aggies this week. Defensive left safety, Dwight Labauve, has been replaced by sophomore Al Thurmond; sophomore Don Long has been replaced by senior James Duback at defensive end and injured fullback Brad Dusek has been replaced by freshman Alvin Bowers.

The rest of the lineup remains the same with Lex James at quarterback, Bubba Bean at right halfback, and Mark Green at left halfback. Starting at center will be Skip Kuehn, with Buster Callaway and Todd Christopher at guards. Tackles will be Mike Park and Ralph Sacra, with Homer May rounding out the offensive line at tight end. Richard Osborne will be at split end.

The defensive line will be made up of Max Bird and Duback at ends and Bill Wiebold and Boice Best at tackles. Linebackers will be Grady Hoermann, Kent Finley and Dennis Carruth. The backfield will be made up of Corky Sheffield, Robert Murski, Larry Ellis and Thurmond.

Tiger Stadium will be full Saturday with all of its 47,000 seats filled for LSU's second appearance of the season. This will be the first time since the 1958 season the Tigers faced a team from the South. LSU has seen the Wildcats of Kentucky, Mississippi State of Alabama, and Georgia Tech of Georgia. These teams are 191 yards total offense and average 1.8 points a game using the shotgun offense invented by Coach Emory Bellard.

First Full Week's Activities Scheduled For SWC Teams

By KEVIN COFFEY

The Southwest Conference enters its third week of action with all nine teams under the gun for the first time.

The University of Houston, which doesn't open conference competition until 1976, looks for its first win of the year against Tulsa at Oklahoma. The Coogs desperately need a win after dropping decisions to Rice and Arizona State.

The Baylor Bears, seeking their fourth victory in as many years visit Missouri for a 1:25 p.m. kickoff. The Bears are seven point underdogs, but played surprisingly well in their 24-14 loss to nationally ranked Georgia. The game will be broadcast locally on WTAW (1150).

Rice University, back down to earth after a 14-13 upset of arch-rival Houston, plays host to Clemson at 7:30 Saturday night. Clemson will be a 1973-74 opponent of Texas A&M.

SMU, fresh off an awesome offensive performance in their 56-10 run-away victory against Wake Forest, find themselves in sunny Tampa for a 6:30 p.m. contest with Florida. SMU rates as a three point favorite and should find Doug Dickey's Gators much tougher than last week's patsy.

The Texas Longhorns, defending Southwest Conference champs for the last four years, unveil their 1972 edition against Miami of Florida. The Longhorns will start six sophomores and Alan Lowry, an all-conference defensive back last year, will be the new quarterback. Texas is a 21-point favorite and will be showing off their newly remodeled and enlarged Memorial Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

TCU also is entering its first encounter of the season under new head coach Billy Tohill. Tohill took over the Horned Frogs following the death of Jim Pittman during the Baylor-TCU game last year.

TCU returns 33 lettermen from last year's squad for its 1:25 p.m. kickoff with Indiana.

Indiana coach John Pont is trying to rebound from a 3-8 record last year and finds his Hoosiers a 3-point underdog to the Horned Frogs.

Texas Tech, which showed it could indeed score points in an opening 45-2 victory over Utah last week, will be out to seek revenge against New Mexico in Albuquerque Saturday night.

The Lobos handed the Red Raiders a 13-10 loss last year but this year Tech is a 10-point favorite.

Tech's biggest problem will be finding someone to replace Andy Lowe, starting defensive end who is lost for the season due to a knee operation.

Conference favorite, Arkansas, will host Oklahoma State at Little Rock in an effort to regroup after losing to USC in their season opener. The Razorbacks have had a week to think things over and find themselves a 19-point favorite.

Next week Tech and Texas start conference play in Lubbock. Both teams are unproven so far and should play no-holds-barred this week in order to find answers to problems which need to be straightened out before league play begins.

Texas is predicted to end up second in conference play behind Arkansas while Tech is slated to finish fifth at best.

Five Juniors Awarded ROTC Scholarships

Two-year Army ROTC scholarships have been awarded five A&M juniors who became eligible for the Army's advanced ROTC course last summer, announced Col. Thomas R. Parsons.

Recipients are Alan W. Cross, fisheries science major of Houston; Keith S. King, history, League City; Barry P. Robinson, political science, Levelland; Jimmy W. Schiller, agricultural engineering, College Station, and Robert C. Schultz, biochemistry, Corpus Christi.

TOUCHDOWN... we all know the thrill that lifts us to our feet when OUR team scores. We cheer, we sing and shout.

It takes teamwork to put a man over that goal line. The whole team must work together to move that ball down the field... "the right way." The guards and tackles must hold the line. The ends must be "on target" to receive passes. The quarterback must know his plays and execute them with speed and skill.

Likewise, in the game of life we need wisdom and strength beyond our individual endeavor. It is essential to receive inspiration and help in order to achieve successfully our goals in life. Your church can provide that faith which leads to everlasting victory.
