

Fish Oppose Owlets Tonight

KEVIN COFFEY
Assistant Sports Editor

After 43 grueling workouts, the Texas A&M Fish football team will finally be unveiled at 7:30 tonight. Aggie fans have been waiting to see the results of recruiting efforts which placed seven men on the varsity squad. The Rice Owlets are the opponents as the 49-man squad, as well as the entire Fish coaching staff, make their debut as Texas Aggies.

The Owlets are fresh from a 34-14 beating of arch-rival Houston while the Fish have been anxiously awaiting their season opener.

The Fish will be without the services of Bubba Bean, Skip Walker, Alvin Bowers, Richard Osborne, Carl Roaches, Ed Simonini, and Henry Tracy due to the new freshman eligibility rule but coach Paul Register is left with plenty of talent.

In addition to 30 scholarship athletes, the Fish have 19 walk-on players who made the squad. Every scholarship athlete recruited by the Aggies made at least all-district honors in high school.

The Fish will run the Wishbone with Dale Ammons at quarterback. Halfbacks are Ronnie Hubby and Melvin Howard with Bucky Sams the fullback.

Garth TenNapel is the Fish center flanked by Dennis Tyrone Wright and Dennis Smelser. Offensive tackles are Scott Knippa and Tyrone Wright.

The receiving corps for the Fish consists of tight end David Greeno and split end Roy Murry. Murry is a non-scholarship athlete.

The Fish defense is a standard 4-3. It is supported by two-way starters Bujnoch, Smelser and TenNapel.

Bujnoch teams with Blake Schwarz at defensive end while Kent Krueger and Smelser are the tackles.

Kim Scott, Carl Warnke and TenNapel are the linebackers with Pat Thomas, Jackie Williams, Doug Wood and Charles Arndt in the secondary.

Lee White is the Fish punter, while Mark Stanley handles the kickoffs and extra points.

Coach Register summarized the Aggie team as having good size and good speed in running backs and a solid first unit. But depth will be a problem, he said.

Rice compiled 241 yards passing against Houston with Claude Reed throwing two touchdown passes. Owl defense also recovered five fumbles.

After tonight's game in Kyle Field, the Fish play three away games before returning home Nov. 16 to play Texas.

Finks Invade A&M Stadium To Initiate Army Quarterback

WEST POINT, N.Y.—Not all Army football fans are finks, but almost all Finks are Army football fans. At least they are in Fink, Tex.

The entire population of Fink—eight people—will invade College Station, Tex., on Saturday, Sept. 30, to welcome its newest citizen and adopted king, Cadet J. Kingsley Fink, prior to the Army-Texas A&M football game.

King Fink, as he's called by his teammates, is Army's starting quarterback. The six-foot, 192-pound junior, who actually hails from Eau Gallie, Fla., will then lead the invasion of Finks from the north, and an invasion of Cadets from the northeast, into College Station on the 30th.

When her honor, Mayor Patricia Albright of Fink, learned that King Fink would be in Texas this fall with the Army football team, she presented a resolution to the townspeople to grant an honorary citizenship to the visiting cadet. It passed unanimously, 8-0.

When Cadet Fink; his coach, Tom Cahill; and the Army athletic director, Colonel William J. Schuder, were informed, West Point reciprocated and invited the entire town of Fink to be the guests of the Army Athletic Association at the grid contest in September.

As a result, officials at the Military Academy and at Texas A&M have agreed that the presentation of the Fink citizenship plaque should be made to King Fink before the game. Assisting in the ceremony will be Mayor Albright and her husband, Willard, and their family; also Captain Gerald B. Peddicord, a retired Navy captain, now the head of the Fink Country Club in Tanglewood, Tex.; and Mr. and Mrs. John Clift, the official Fink historians.

In addition to his new citizenship, King Fink also will receive a commission as an admiral in the Texas Navy.

Wolfpen Village

it's easy to live in Wolfpen Village

The last section of College Station's most interesting residential community for young, creative "now" people is open for your inspection.

The life style at Wolfpen is open and easy. Living spaces are simple and uncluttered. Thoughtful design subdues the plastic "outside" world and encourages pleasant contact with the natural green world. Wolfpen is in a world of its own. Yet the university campus is within walking distance.

The tedium of lawn care and grounds maintenance is handled by others. So there's time for a swim in Wolfpen's pool. Or a stroll along a curving path along Wolfpen Creek. Or other pursuits that contribute to living a full, fun life.

Wolfpen's ultra-modern design includes the features proven most popular with creative people living in similar projects on the Coast. These amenities for leisure-lovers include glass walls opening onto inside patios and courtyards, fireplaces, covered two-car garages with generous storage, wall to wall shag carpet, custom cabinetry, one-piece fiberglass tub, showers, rheostat-controlled lighting, wooden decks, spacious closets, all electric kitchens, two-level vaulted ceilings and exposed beams, to mention those features that are obvious.

The features not so obvious include the fine attention to detail, the careful craftsmanship, the surprisingly thoughtful design that contribute to enjoyment and value now and at resale.

There is still a choice of one or two story models and two or three bedroom floor plans. A limited number are priced under 25K. Financing arrangements include low down payment, payments extended to 30 years, a unique lease-purchase plan and even a guaranteed equity buy-back option.

The model home is open every day until dark. Come see for yourself. You'll be surprised how easy it is to live in Wolfpen Village.
