Horns, Raiders Pace SWC

By KEVIN COFFEY
 The Southwest Conference, showing more might and balance than it has in years, opens possibly its tightest race ever Saturday night in Lubbock.

Texas Tech's Jones Stadium will be filled to capacity as the Red Raiders host the Texas Longhorns in a game which should shed much light on the race for the 1972 crown.

Texas is the favorite by 12 points but Tech has showed some potent offense in victories over Utah and New Mexico.

Tech is currently leading the conference in offense with over 500 yards a game. Texas is 1-0 and 12th ranked nationally after last week's 23-10 victory over Miami in a rainy Memorial Stadium.

IMA Announces Women's Action
 Women's intramural basketball will get underway Wednesday, Oct. 4, at 5:20 p.m. on the main floor of the DeWare Field House and will last for approximately eight weeks.

Open handball entries are being accepted also and will be received at the Intramural Office until 5 p.m., Oct. 6.

Class W (women staff) volleyball is scheduled to start Oct. 4, with Class Z (coed, three males and three females) will start Oct. 5.

Sunday afternoon, volleyball courts will be set up in DeWare from 2:30-5 p.m., with six and three man challenge games scheduled.

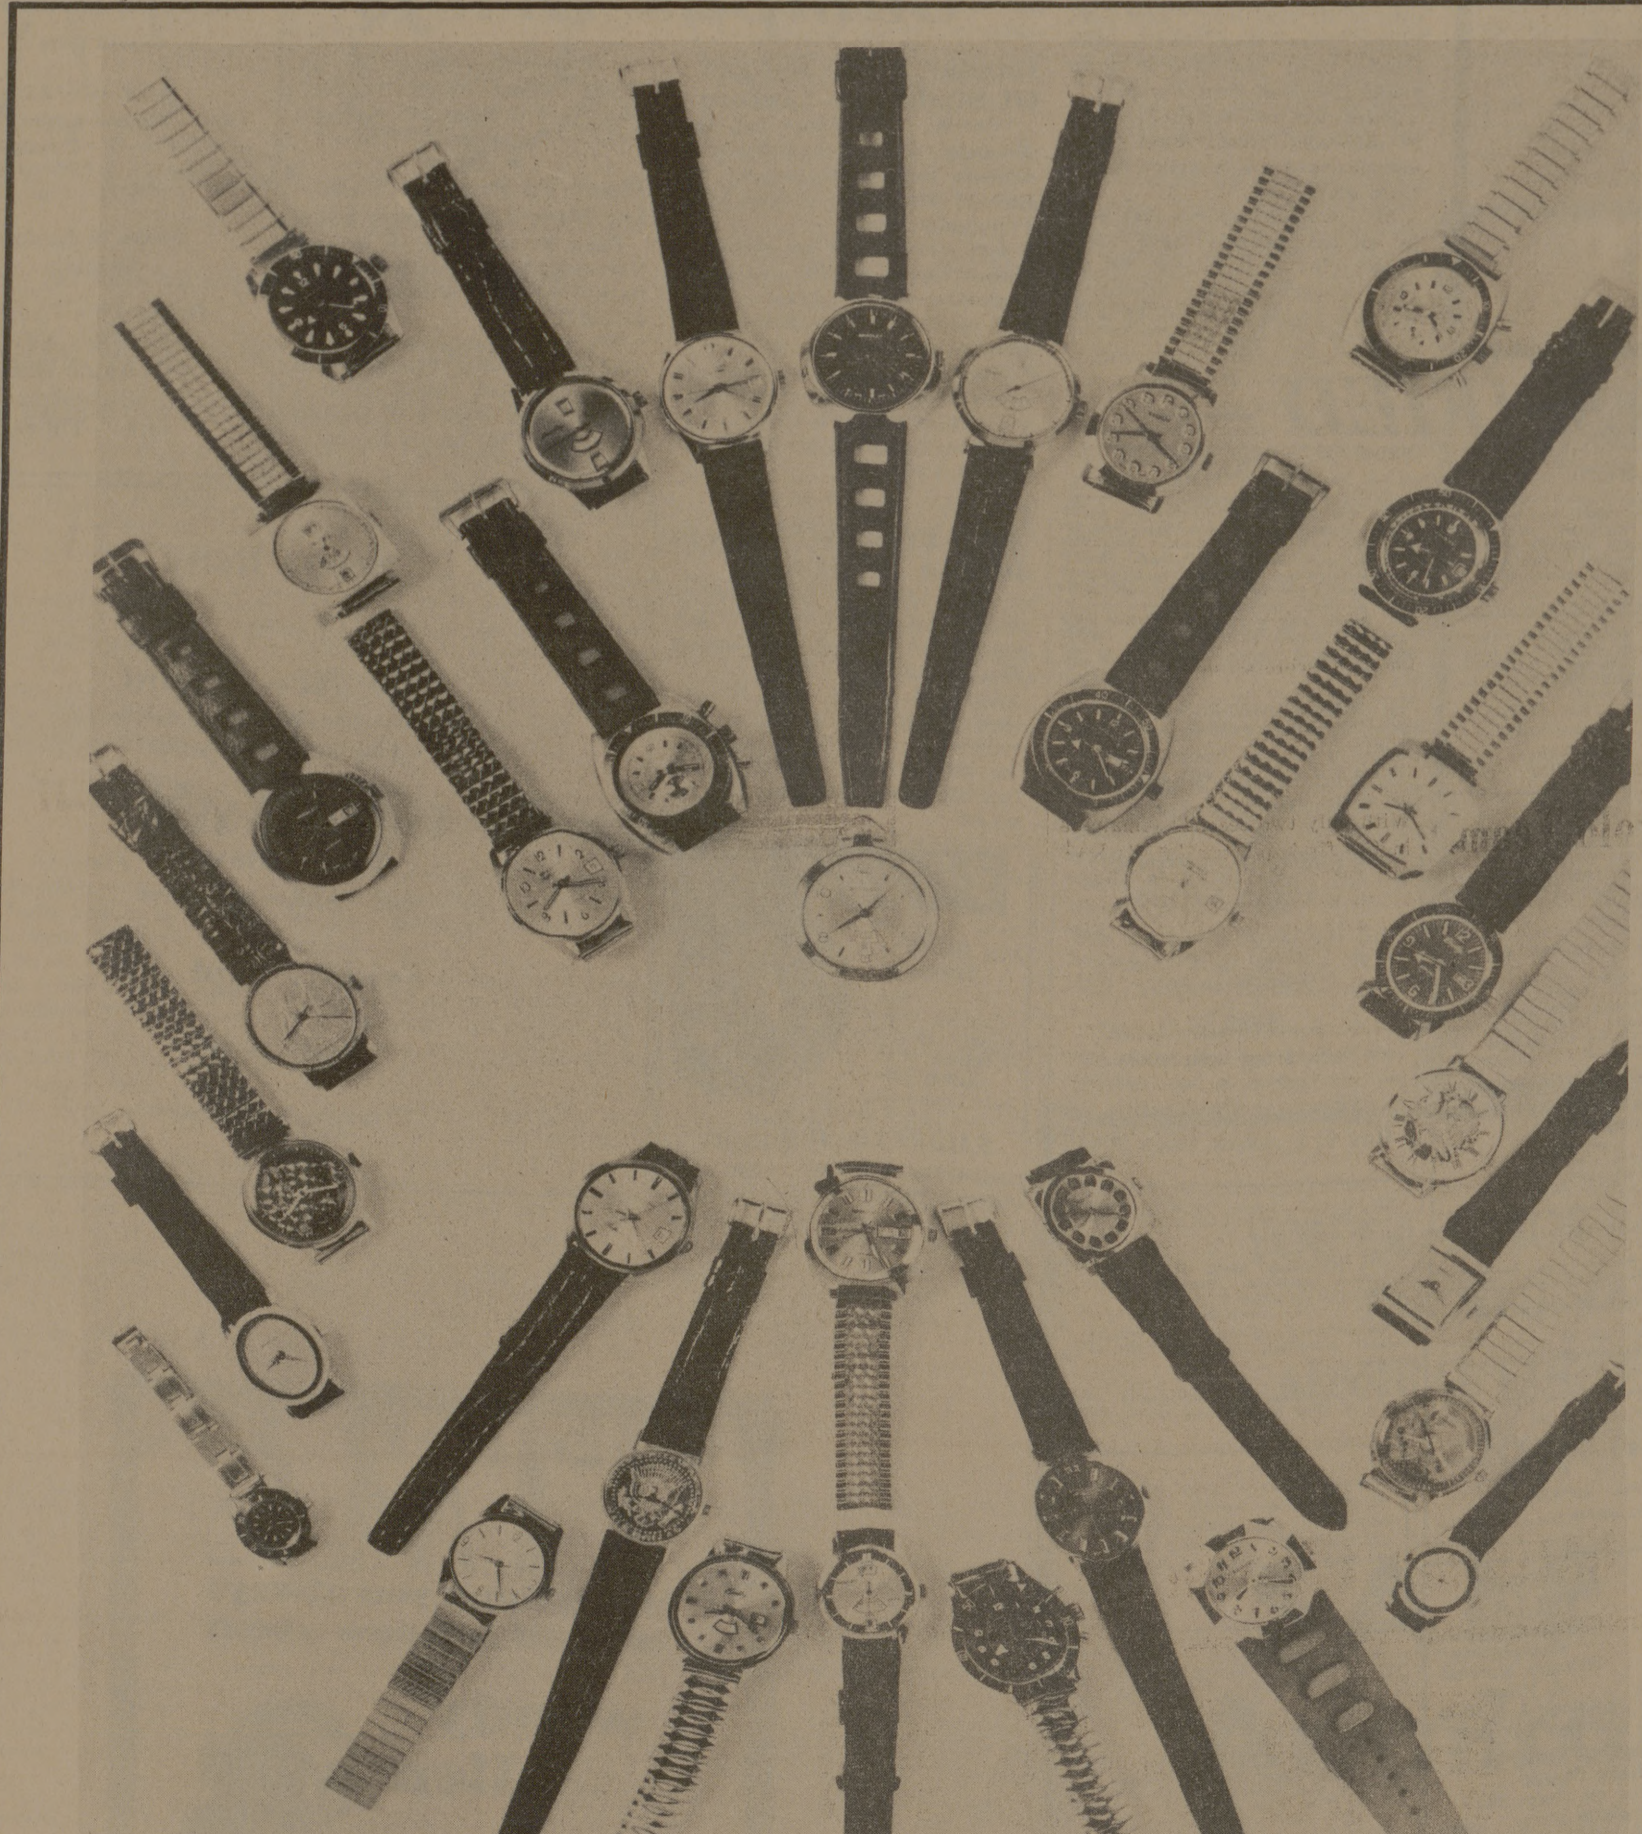

After three weeks of intramural football activities, 34 teams remain undefeated in the four classes. Fourteen Class A handball teams remain undefeated at the conclusion of three weeks.

Five football games ended in a tie this week. In Class A action, B-2 defeated C-1 (0-0), and E-1 defeated C-2 (0-0), both games were won on one 20-yard penetration. Leggett defeated Fowler (12-12), and Crocker defeated McInnis (0-0) by one 20-yard penetration in Class C action. Two games in Class A action were won on safeties, Sq-10 defeated I-2, 4-0, and K-1 defeated Sq-3, 2-0.
