

Hanoi Calls Off Kissinger Talks

PARIS (AP)—The North Vietnamese declared Thursday there will be no further negotiations with Henry A. Kissinger until the United States commits itself to signing the draft peace agreement.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong speakers denounced the Nixon administration for what they called "a breach of promise" in failing to sign the accord by Oct. 31, the deadline set by Hanoi.

The Saigon government warned at the 165th weekly session of the peace conference that it would refuse to recognize any cease-fire agreement concluded against its will.

In four hours of vituperation between the opposing Vietnamese delegations, there was little to show that "peace is at hand," as Kissinger, President Nixon's national security adviser, said last week.

Nguyen Xuan Phong of the South Vietnamese delegation did not directly refer to the peace agreement in his speech but raised a series of objections to what he said were "utterly contradictory and unacceptable" proposals.

The Viet Cong argued that in failing to sign the agreement, the United States shortened the chances for U.S. prisoners of war getting home by Christmas.

U.S. delegate William J. Porter avoided the polemics of the other three delegations. In a brief statement, he reiterated that the issues still to be clarified in the draft agreement "can be settled quickly by effort and will."

He warned that the United States would not allow itself to be rushed into a settlement of "the few remaining problems of substance."

He denied the repeated Communist charge that these problems were mere pretexts for delay, and declared: "Misunderstandings, if they exist, must be faced frankly and dealt with. Excessive haste in settling the final elements would jeopardize the work that has been done and might place the future viability of the agreement in doubt."

Kissinger told a news conference last week it was up to Hanoi to set the date for a final secret negotiating session. He said the United States has given "a commitment that a text that will be agreed to at the next session will be the final text and that no new changes will be proposed."

The North Vietnamese spokesman, Nguyen Thanh Le, told newsmen after the session that the United States had given such a commitment on the text negotiated last month.

Trudeau Faces Parliament Despite Electoral Setback

OTTAWA (AP)—Pierre Elliott Trudeau said Thursday night his Liberal government will stay on and face Parliament despite the stunning electoral setback that chopped away his majority.

The prime minister acknowledged in a television news conference that his Liberals' showing in the Monday elections "reflected the view of a good many Canadians that the government for the last 4½ years has not been satisfactory."

"The continuation of my government will depend on the Parliament," he said.

Processing of election results developed Thursday into a tie between the Liberal and Conservative parties at 109 seats each in the House of Commons, with recounts still under way in several tight races.

The balance in the 264-member house is held by the socialistic New Democrats, with 30 seats.

David Lewis, the New Democrat party leader, pledged his support for the Liberal government on condition that the government does not introduce legislation the New Democrats cannot accept.

Lewis, in a news conference held after Trudeau's, said the New Democrats would not seek to obstruct Parliament and throw the country into new elections, but he added that no Canadian believes the new Parliament can last a full term of four years.

Robert Stanfield, the Conservative leader, sharply criticized Trudeau's decision.

"Mr. Trudeau made it clear tonight the arrogant desire of his government to hang on to power," Stanfield said. "He is treating the election results as simply another opinion poll in the hope he can somehow get away with it."

Trudeau said Monday's election indicated to him "that there have been some failures."

But Trudeau said he is not going to "govern for any particular party" and added that he does not believe the Liberal government needs the New Democrats.

He said that despite his party's setback, the elections have given no clear sign of approval for any one party.

Trudeau said he has not been able to account for the Liberal decline but hopes to present legislation that will respond to complaints indicated by the elections.

He said an economic package will have to be placed before Parliament that will fight unemployment without causing "galloping inflation."

Blue Collar Workers Defect On McGovern

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—Pollster George Gallup says defection of blue collar workers from the Democrats largely accounts for President Nixon's 59-36 per cent lead over George McGovern.

However, McGovern's narrowing of the gap by six points since the start of the campaign is mainly due to winning back manual workers to their traditional voting pattern, Gallup said.

"The final days of the campaign could see a continued return to the fold of these traditionally Democratic voters, who represent the largest voting bloc in the electorate," Gallup said.

His findings were based on interviews with 3,870 registered voters out of a total sample of 4,855 adults during the first three weeks of October.

Gallup said McGovern trailed Nixon 44 to 49 among blue collar workers, the lowest score of any Democratic candidate since 1936, when scientific polling was introduced.

JESSE JAMES STATE TREASURER

LOOK AT THESE FACTS!

Jesse James has handled over 44 Billion Dollars of the peoples' money with every dollar properly accounted for—as proven by annual reports of the State Auditor.

Jesse James made for the people of Texas over $16,000,000.00 last year in interest earned on State Funds deposited in over 1,100 Texas Banks—more than any billion dollar bank in Texas made net in 1970 or 1971.

Jesse James has financed a giant deficit in the General Revenue Fund — which on April 26, 1972, reached a deficit peak of $314,448,523.00 — without interest or discount cost to State Employees and people who furnish goods and services to Texas, $50,000,000.00. If this $314,448,523.00 had been discounted by 3%, it would have cost the taxpayers over $9,420,000.00 for that period.

Jesse James has proven he knows how to handle your State Finances efficiently.

Texas Law Allowing Seizure Of Property Declared Unconstitutional

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Texas law allowing landlords to seize their tenants' property for non-payment of rent was declared unconstitutional Thursday by the federal appeals court here.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals based its ruling on a recent opinion of the U.S. Supreme Court, which some attorneys believe will have a major effect on all property laws that grant seizure without court hearings.

Now pending before the Louisiana Supreme Court is a lower court ruling that declared unconstitutional a statute giving banks the authority to seize property without benefit of court hearing.

In the Texas case, the appeals court said that owners of Cosmopolitan Apartments in Houston had no right to enter the apartment of Claudine Hall and take a television set for non-payment of rent.

The Texas statute, the court noted, gives landlords the authority to enter into another's home and seize property without having to first show the validity or the accuracy of the landlord's case.

The tenant first should have been granted a hearing, the court said.

"The constitutional right to be heard is a basic aspect of the duty of government to follow a fair process of decision making when it acts to deprive a person of his possessions," said the 5th Circuit.

The appeals court said its ruling was based on a high court case which invalidated Florida and Pennsylvania statutes which provided for summary seizure of goods in a person's possession under a writ obtained by posting a bond. Under the laws of those states, no court hearing was required.

Briscoe vs. Grover These are the differences.

DRUG LAW REFORM

Briscoe

Favors the modernization of the drug laws in Texas. He emphasizes increased efforts toward drug abuse education, rehabilitation of drug users, and the enactment of a modern marijuana possession law. He favors adoption of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, an act which will provide for more modern criteria in the determination of what actually constitutes dangerous drugs and narcotics.

Grover

Mr. Grover believes that Texas' archaic drug laws should be maintained.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Briscoe

Favors legislation that would enable responsible students to be elected for one-year terms, to full voting rights, to Boards of Regents. He also favors increased participation on the College Coordinating Board by students, women, and members of minority groups.

Grover

He said students are "too immature" to serve on Boards of Regents. Speeches before Texas Intercollegiate Student Association, Houston, Texas, October, 1971; Lubbock, Texas, September, 1972. Voted against the 18-year-old vote in 62nd Legislature (1971).
