Defense To Be Tested On TV Turkey Day

By BILL HENRY
Battalion Sports Editor

The whole world will be able to compare the top and bottom teams in the SWC this week when the Texas Aggies and the Texas Longhorns meet in Austin Thanksgiving Day at 8 p.m.

This nationally televised game will pit the Longhorns, which have already sewn up their fifth consecutive SWC title, against A&M, which is tied with Arkansas for the loop cellar.

It will be the third television appearance for Texas and the first for A&M in over two years. The last time Texas was on the tube was against the Razorbacks in a game billed as the SWC championship game.

The circumstances surrounding this final clash of the 1971 season are very similar to that of last Thursday's freshman contest between the two schools. A&M was given no chance to come close in that tilt either.

The Texas freshmen were riding on the crest of a 19 game streak, while the Fish had lost 13 players to the varsity ranks. As most people know by now, the Fish defeated the Shorthorns here 10-8.

A&M, it seems, does not have a snow ball's chance of winning with its disappointing 3-7 season and 2-4 SWC marks against the 'Horns with an 8-1 overall and 6-0 loop mark.

Yet stranger things have happened in SWC football this year, and mostly to the Aggies. Texas has won the title, win or lose Thursday. There is nothing left for them to do but get ready for Alabama and the Cotton Bowl. For the Aggies it could be a win that enables them to regroup for next year.

games from 1957 until 1966. Their largest margin was in the 1898 48-0 tilt. The most Texas points was in 1970 with a 52-14 win and those 66 points are the highest total scored by the two teams.

Last year Texas broke the Aggies' four game win streak with a 34-14 win in College Station and knocked the Aggies out of a Liberty Bowl bid. It was Donnie Wigginton's masterful performance, along with a Texas defense that swiped three Joe Mac King passes and scooped up two A&M fumbles. A&M's two scores came back to back with King hitting Billy Joe Polasek on a 15-yard strike and a two-yard plunge by Mark Green.

Wigginton is now a coach here at A&M while King has graduated and Green is out with a bad knee and will not see action.

For coach Emory Bellard, it will be his first encounter against his former Austin boss. Bellard spent five years as backfield coach there where he designed the Wishbone attack used by both teams now.

Darrell Royal is in his 16th season as head coach of the 'Horns, where he has compiled a 134-33-4 mark overall and an 86-20-2 SWC mark. Last week he won his fifth straight loop crown making a total of nine since taking over. He has also taken the Longhorns to 12 bowl games in 15 years and will make it 13 in 16 this New Year's Day.

Top players for Texas are offensive tackle Jerry Sisemore, quarterback Alan Lowry, fullback Leaks, and linebackers Randy Braband and Glen Gaspard.

Nineteen freshmen are now on the A&M varsity, with six being added after last week's season finale. Newcomers are halfback Bucky Sams, quarterback Dale Ammons, linebacker Garth Ten-Napel, offensive tackle Bruce Welch and Wayne Itlis and middle linebacker Carl Warnke.

The team will leave College Station Thursday afternoon and leave immediately after the game.

BATTALION CLASSIFIED OFFICIAL NOTICE

Official notices must arrive in the Office of Student Publications before deadline of 1 p. m. of the day preceding publication.

To be eligible to purchase the Texas A&M ring, an undergraduate student must have at least one academic year in residence and credit for ninety-five (95) semester hours. The hours passed at the preliminary grade report period on October 15, 1972 may be used in satisfying this ninety-five hour requirement. Students qualifying under this regulation may now leave their names with the ring clerk, Room Seven, Richard Coke Building. She, in turn, will check all records to determine ring eligibility. Orders for these rings will be taken by the ring clerk starting October 30, 1972 and continuing through December 12, 1972. The rings will be returned to the Registrar's Office to be delivered on or about January 22, 1973. The ring clerk is on duty from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday, of each week. 158138
