man, head football coach at Wichita State University, and his entire staff will remain at WSU through the 1973 grid season, Athletic Director Ted Bredehoft said Monday.

"Wichita State needs continuity and stability and . . . Seaman and his staff will remain through the 1973 season to provide it," Bredehoft said in a statement issued by the university's athletic office.

football program in an interview last week with the Wichita Eagle.

"A winning tradition has been initiated with this year's 6-5 season, the first of its kind since 1963," Bredehoft added.

"Coach Seaman and I have visdedication and enthusiasm, he and his staff will be able to keep WSU on the winning side of the ledger as they continue their efforts to bring outstanding student - ath-

Bredehoft declined additional comment and Seaman would not comment on Monday's statement by his boss nor on the previous interview statements contributed to Bredehoft.

Seaman succeeded Ben Wilson ited and I believe with continued as head coach in the middle of the 1970 season when Wilson and 30 other persons were killed in the crash of an airplane in Colorado. The plane was carrying the Shocker football team to Logan,

In the interview, Bredehoft, who came to Wichita State after serving as assistant athletic director at Arizona State, was quoted as saying he was used to 9-2, 10-1 and 11-0 records, adding:

"If it is in the best interest of scores of 41-14, 41-7 and 36-13. Wichita State, there is no reason why we couldn't buy up the additional year on Seaman's contract."

Seaman, who was an Ohio high. school coach before joining the year contract as head coach here. Texas A&M will end its four game schedule with the Shockers next season and in the three previous meetings, A&M has won by Seaman recorded a 3-14 record before having his first winning season in 1972 with a 6-5 record. In last year's A&M-Wichita State game, the Shockers returned the first two A&M kicka 13-6 lead early in the second quarter. The running of junior halfback Mark Green, who rushed for a career high of 165 yards, and timely pitches from then starting quarterback Lex James put the outmanned Shockers under.

Last year's clash was the first and only game to be played in Wichita as the first two and the final game will be played in College Station.
