My wife and I are writing this letter to you in a feeble attempt to tell the world, via The Battalion, of the pride we have for Texas A&M, the Cadet Corps and especially the members of Air Force Squadron 5, our son's squadron while he was attending Texas A&M.

Beverly and I were able to observe the Cadet Corps parade during the Dallas Corps Trip and those gentlemen have convinced us that the future of our country will be in good hands.

With the full support and cooperation of the entire student body we could make our way to the SWC championship. If each Aggie (and his date) would take the individual initiative to adapt this tradition and do his part, this goal could be reached, and another sport would become deeply rooted in the hearts of Aggieland.

Personal involvement is necessary for a successful season.

Our son, Billie J. Pratt, Jr., was born in Bryan in 1953, the year I graduated from Texas A&M, and as you know, passed away Nov. 17, 1972, while attending the school we all so dearly love.

Editor:
One of the outstanding traditions at this university may be observed at football games: the enjoyable ceremony that follows the scoring of the fightin' Texas Aggie football team.

My wife and I have just returned from attending Silver Taps at College Station and, of course, we were unable to express to Billie's classmates and outfit how proud we are of them and to personally thank his squadron for serving as an honor guard at Billie's service in Burnet.

We believe this tradition should be practiced at basketball games. The morale of the players and spectators would be boosted tremendously. Attendance would improve at games and enthusiasm would reach an unprecedented height.

Now that the statue of Sul Ross has been protected against vandalism by UT students, what is going to be done to rectify the damage created in front of the monument by the "security fire"?

DETROIT—A tiny pin costing less than a penny is the villain in one of the auto industry's latest recall campaigns, this one involving more than 900,000 Ford cars.

The plan also would require all passengers to walk through weapons detectors before boarding. In addition, all carry-on luggage would be searched.

on a government bill to give police greater power to put the men of the IRA behind bars.

The campaigns are annoying and costly to the auto industry—and admittedly virtually unavoidable despite industry efforts to make sure that all the nearly 15,000 parts of a car are defect-free.

DUBLIN—Prime Minister Jack Lynch's government flung an ultimatum Thursday at its divided opposition: vote for tougher action against the Irish Republican Army or face the people in national elections.

WASHINGTON — A biracial Pentagon task force Thursday supported charges by blacks of discrimination in the administration of military justice and recommended changes to standardize punishment for minor offenses and the recruitment of more black lawyers.
The panel also recommended that the system of selecting military jurors by commanding officers be revised to eliminate possible command influence in trials.

WASHINGTON — President Nixon held an unexpected second meeting with South Vietnamese special envoy Nguyen Phu Duc as signs increased that a climax is near on setting a final allied position on peace negotiations.

The meeting was held shortly after the Pentagon said the White House would make no more formal announcements on withdrawal of U.S. troops from South Vietnam.

"I don't think we should take money from the reserve fund unless it is beneficial to the entire student body," said Bill Hartsfield, chairman of Academic Affairs.

The resolution states, "an International House would provide a basis for cultural exchanges and activities among the students of Texas A&M."

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—John Glenn, America's first astronaut, said Thursday he would make another try for the U.S. Senate from Ohio in 1974.

The quonset hut is now being used for the storage of the sailing club's boats and storage of senate refrigerator cartons. Action on this issue will be taken at a later date.

President Jack K. Williams responded to the Nov. 16 Senate proposal that the bicycle registration fee be lowered to $1.50.

Glenn, who orbited the earth in 1962, was defeated in the 1970 Senate primary. A Democrat, Glenn said he would try to unseat Sen. William Saxbe, R-Ohio.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..
LOST PUPPY FOUND

The puppy had been gone for hours. A small boy stood, nose pressed against the screen, staring at the empty evening. Then softer than a breath of air, beyond the hedge came a whimper. The door slammed, footsteps raced, and the moment exploded in yelping, wiggling delight.

Can you measure the joy of a lost puppy found? If happiness could be weighed or ruled, this surely would be an instant worth distilling. And how about that first glimpse of your newborn? The flash of adoration at the beauty of a Sunday's anthem? That glowing second when the naughty little boy in Sunday School takes your hand and says, "I love you?"

High moments can't be assessed by material standards. But each inspiring revelation of God's love brings us closer to understanding Him and the Truth of His whole creation. That's why it is important to go to church.
