Leland Paces CS Swim Club

College Station Swim Club members won 25 medals and ribbons in a nationwide meet hosted over the weekend by the Houston Dads Club YMCA Swim Team in conjunction with the Gulf Association of AAU.

Bobby Leland won the 100-meter breast stroke and placed third in the 200-meter breast and 200-meter backstroke in the top "A" Division. CSSC Coach Steve Montgomery noted Leland's 100-meter breast performance was close to that required for high school All-America honors.

CSSC winners in "B" Division were David Comstock in the 200-meter individual medley; his sister, Cathy Comstock, 100-meter freestyle; Bill Leland, 100-meter fly, and David Dowell, 50-meter fly.

Dowell also placed second in the 50-meter freestyle and 50-meter back stroke. Other top "B" Division places went to Donna Dotson, second in the 100-meter freestyle, and Sandy Sandstedt, third in the 100-meter breast stroke.

Lourdes Oliver was first in the 50-meter freestyle and 50-meter back stroke and third in 50-meter breast stroke in the "C" Division. Cindy Hallaran was first in the 50-meter fly.

Other CSSC members winning ribbons for finishing seventh or higher in their events were Mark Robeck, Olguita Oliver, Julie Combs, Bill Kuvlesky, Carol Whitaker, Clara Whitaker, Kerry Kuttler, Tom Sanders, Diana Feltz and Margaret Hurley.

Nearly 50 CSSC boys and girls participated in the two-day meet.

Cotton Bowl Sellout Again

DALLAS (AP) — The Cotton Bowl Athletic Association announced Tuesday that for the 12th consecutive year the New Year's Day Classic is a sellout.

Texas and Alabama meet New Year's Day and Cotton Bowl officials said enough tickets have been subscribed to fill the Cotton Bowl, which seats some 72,000 fans.

Ifs' Surround NFL Action

HUBERT MIZELL, Associated Press Sports Writer in San Francisco has only one they're the eighth and final team for the National Football League playoffs.

It's two "IFs" for Atlanta.

the 49ers win Saturday, If the Falcons win and if San Francisco loses, the spot reserved for the National Conference West champion will go to Atlanta.

For Los Angeles, it's a triple "IF."

Both the 49ers and Falcons must lose—that's two ifs—and then LA must win its regular season closeout to wobble into the playoffs of Dec. 23-24.

Let's toss in another "IF." If the 49ers, Falcons and Rams all lose, the NFC West crown will be accepted through the back door at San Francisco.

If the 49er-Viking tussle ends in a tie, that'll work okay for San Francisco, too. A 7-5-2 record would equal Atlanta's highest possibility, an 8-6, percentage-wise. And, since San Francisco won both head-to-head meetings with the Falcons, the 49ers would be in.

Here's the way it stacks up: The Oakland Raiders play at the home of the American Conference Central Division champion at 1 p.m., EST, Dec. 23. If Pittsburgh wins Sunday at San Diego, the site will be the Steelers' Three Rivers Stadium.

But, if the Steelers slip and Cleveland — which already has a playoff spot in the bag—beats the New York Jets, then it would be Oakland against the Browns at Municipal Stadium.

The AFC Central runnerup plays the unbeaten Miami Dolphins in the other conference playoff Sunday, Dec. 24, at 3 p.m., EST, in the Orange Bowl.

In the National Conference, Green Bay is set to battle Washington at noon, EST, on Dec. 24 at the Redskins' Robert F. Kennedy Stadium and the world champion Dallas Cowboys are playoff bound as the NFC "wild card" team.

Dallas will play the NFC West survivor, heading to either Candlestick Park in San Francisco, Atlanta Stadium or the Los Angeles Coliseum for a 4 p.m., EST, matchup on Dec. 23.

The four winners on Dec. 23-24 advance to the AFC and NFC championship games. The sites for those depend on which teams qualify.

In both conferences, the Central Division has preference for hosting the Dec. 31 showdowns that will determine participants for the Super Bowl, scheduled Jan. 14 in Los Angeles.

TAKE OFF

Undecided about your future? It's no disgrace. When Einstein couldn't make up his mind for quite awhile.

Van Gogh took time to get on track. The Wright brothers didn't start concentrating on airplanes right away.

So, if you're graduating from college and you still don't know what to do with your future, chin up.

You can go to Officer Training School. Become an officer. Get officer's pay and prestige. Travel. All while you're learning to fly.

You can do something constructive, exciting, profitable and patriotic. Be an Air Force pilot.

They'll say you're just another genius who has made up his mind.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

THE HIGH PLACES

Does the goal you're seeking seem as remote—as unattainable—as this snow-frosted mountain top? Does it seem, sometimes, as if you'll never get there? Are you on the verge of giving up?

Don't! Though your objective may seem light-years beyond your reach, if it's the right thing for you, God will help if you'll let Him. The teachings of His Church will give you the patience and endurance you need to accept setbacks . . . and still keep trying.

Don't try to climb to the top all by yourself. It's a lonely ascent. Let the Church help you, as it helped those who were here before you . . . and as it will help those who come after you.
