Aggie War Hymn Again Relevant As . . .

Guess Who's Coming To G. Rollie For Action

By BILL HENRY
 Battalion Sports Editor
 What makes an Aggie cringe worse than final exams?
 The Texas Longhorns and their athletic dominance.

Well, the time is here for A&M to avenge two losses handed it in last year's SWC hoop race and the humiliating 38-3 football loss last Thanksgiving tonight when A&M and Texas battle hostilities in G. Rollie White at 7:30 p.m.

The game will be a sell-out, so if a seat is to be sat in, get to the game early.

Texas will be trying to bounce back from two consecutive conference losses to Baylor and Arkansas while the Aggies will try and keep their title hopes alive.
 An A&M loss tonight would be a major deterrent to any conference honors.

As most followers now know, Texas lost the services of last year's SWC MVP and Sophomore of the Year Larry Robinson due to a fractured kneecap suffered in non-conference action.

The loss of Robinson, who averaged 24.3 points and nine rebounds last season, has left coach Leon Black's cagers without a consistent offensive threat.

The Longhorns, picked to recapture last year's crown, stands 6-7 overall and 0-2 in loop action.
 Last year Texas was 17-7 overall and tied SMU with a 10-4 loop mark but won the right to face Houston by defeating SMU.

Texas defeated highly-favored Houston in the pre-regionals held in Albuquerque, N.M., but fell to Kansas State in the NCAA regional tourney.

This will be the 137th meeting between the two clubs with Texas holding an 82-55 edge.

For Shelby Metcalf, however,
 A&M has won 11 and lost seven.
 The longest A&M win streak was six games from the first game in 1968 to the second game in 1970.
 Longest Texas streak is seven games from the second game in 1935 through the first game, in 1938 and the first game in 1943
 through the first game in 1946.

The largest margin for the Aggies was 44 points with a 73-29 win in 1959. For Texas, the largest margin is 45 points with a 81-36 win in 1944.

Though certainly favored, coach Shelby Metcalf and his cagers are taking nothing for granted.

"Texas and A&M always have a great game which the fans become involved in," Metcalf said.
 "The intense rivalry doesn't quit with football; both schools always want to beat the other."

For senior center Jeff Over-house it will almost assuredly be a game he will never forget.
 He needs only three points to surpass 1,000 in his career and become the seventh all-time A&M scorer.

With 17 rebounds last Saturday, he hit 600 thus placing him fourth in that all-time category.

"I'm really looking forward to playing Texas this year," he said.
 "They beat us both times last year and we need to make up for that. It's too bad about Robinson but we'd be ready even if he were with them. We've got it together now."

"It was great to see Jeff and Chuck get it together against Baylor and there's no doubt that we've got what it takes to win," Mario Brown said.

Starting for Texas will be John Mark Wilson (6-8) averaging 16 points, B. G. Brosterhouse (6-8) averaging 14 points and nine rebounds, Eric Groscurth (6-6) averaging 11 points, Harry Larrabee (5-10) averaging 11 points and Jack Louis (6-5) averaging 8 points.

The entire team is averaging 80 points per game and 48 rebounds. A&M is averaging 86 points and 53 rebounds.

Starting for the Aggies will be 6-8 Overhouse (14 points, nine rebounds), 6-9 Cedric Joseph (11 pts., 10 rebounds), 6-6 Randy Knowles (15 points, nine rebounds), 6-2 Mario Brown (12 points) and 5-10 Mike Floyd (11
 points).

A&M will travel to Houston ally televised contest Saturday for a 12:30 p.m. region- Rice.
